Readings for NEXT WEEK
Holy Trinity Sunday Year C

First Reading

Proverbs 8:22-31

A reading from the book of Proverbs
The Wisdom of God cries aloud:
The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works.
From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being.
The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water.
Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust.
When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries – and the waters will not invade the shore – when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men
The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him in mind,
mortal man that you care for him?

Yet you have made him little less than a god;
with glory and honour you crowned him,
gave him power over the works of your hand,
put all things under his feet.

All of them, sheep and cattle,
yes, even the savage beasts,
birds of the air, and fish
that make their way through the waters

Second Reading

Romans 5:1-5

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.
The word of God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

Gospel

John 16:12-15

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.

Everything the Father has is mine;
that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'
The Gospel of the Lord

Reflection

1. The humbler we are before the great mysteries, the more they will reveal themselves to us.
2. Like other relationships in life, we are in a relationship with God, with the Divine mystery, and Jesus has come to show us the way into that relationship

We are committed to the safety, wellbeing and dignity of all children and vulnerable adults

At the moment we are hoping some of you may wish to become communion ministers for Sunday 9am & 11am Masses. CATHOLIC MISSION

Every mother deserves the reassurance of giving birth with the appropriate facilities and equipment. The dignity of a safe and comfortable birth. In some of the most remote places in the world, accessing healthcare is a difficult and dangerous journey. Without a dedicated mother's shelter, pregnant women and new mothers have no choice but to share facilities with other people with critical illnesses. This year Catholic Mission's appeal is to help these places upgrading its facilities and medical equipment. Next weekend (14/15 June) we will have third collection to support this appeal

ARCHDIOCESAN CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

In previous years, the Corpus Christi Procession has been a beloved tradition at our Seminary, held on its patronal feast day, and at our Cathedral -our light into our city. This year, we have a wonderful opportunity to carry the light of Christ into the heart of Melbourne CBD in an even more public way. In this grace-filled Jubilee Year, archbishop Peter A. Comensoli invites all to join as God's faithful in a very special Eucharistic Procession, to bear witness as a community to Christ in our midst. ARCHDIOCESAN CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION Sunday 22 June 2025. Begins after 11am Mass at St Patrick's Cathedral Melbourne. Concluding at Federation Square
