CTC seminar - Mary and the emporer's mother

Presented by: Dr Rosemary Canavan

EVENT DATE - Friday 6 February 2026 - 1.00pm - 2.00pm - Via ZOOM

Biblical scholar Dr Rosemary Canavan explores how Mary, the mother of Jesus, can be understood within the same imperial context that shaped portrayals of figures like Atia and Livia, the mother and wife of Augustus in the Gospel of Luke. By comparing Mary's biblical iconography with Greco-Roman "mother" imagery, the paper highlights how early Christian views of Mary may have echoed or reinterpreted imperial feminine models.

This is a paper presentation via Zoom. See you at 1pm on Friday 6 February.

Prayer Life

Jesus showed us that regular prayer is essential for a close and authentic relationship with God. In the gospels, he regularly takes himself to a quiet place to pray. He also prays in the synagogue and with his followers. He prays with the words of Scripture and in his own words, calling out to God from the depths of his heart. Sometimes his prayers are peaceful; sometimes they are a struggle. His prayers take many forms, but he is always praying.

Central to a healthy prayer life is the worshipping life

(<https://melbournecatholic.org/learn/encountering-god-sacraments>) of the Church. The prayers of the liturgy - and especially the Eucharist - help us, as a community, to foster an attitude of reverence, trust and humility, which in turn enriches our private prayer.

The Catholic prayer tradition is rich and diverse, and includes praying the Rosary, (link to Rosary prayer card on CAM website) contemplative prayer
