First Reading

Genesis 2:18-24

A reading from the book of Genesis

They were two in one flesh.

The Lord God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make him a helpmate.'

So from the soil the Lord God fashioned all the wild beasts and all the birds of heaven.

These he brought to the man to see what he would call them, each one was to bear the name the man would give it. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of heaven and all the wild beasts. But no helpmate suitable for man was found for him. So the Lord God made the man fall into a deep sleep. And while he slept, he took one of his ribs and enclosed it in flesh. The Lord God built the rib he had taken from the man into a woman, and brought her to the man. The man exclaimed:

'This at last is bone from my bones,
and flesh from my flesh!
This is to be called woman,
for this was taken from man.'

This is why a man leaves his father and mother and joins himself to his wife, and they become one body.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 127. R. v.5

(R.) May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

1. O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways!

By the labour of your hands you shall eat.
You will be happy and prosper. (R.)

2. Your wife will be like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house; your children like shoots of the olive,
around your table. (R.)

3. Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord.

May the Lord bless you from Zion in a happy Jerusalem
all the days of your life!

May you see your children's children.
On Israel, peace! (R.)

Second Reading

Hebrews 2:9-11

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

He who sanctifies, and those who are sanctified have one origin.

We see in Jesus one who was for a short while made lower than the angels and is now crowned with glory and splendour because he submitted to death; by God's grace he had to experience death for all mankind.

As it was his purpose to bring a great many of his sons into glory, it was appropriate that God, for whom everything exists and through whom everything exists, should make perfect, through suffering, the leader who would take them to their salvation. For the one who sanctifies, and the ones who are sanctified, are of the same stock; that is why he openly calls them brothers.

Gospel Acclamation

cf 1 John 4:12

Alleluia, alleluia!
If we love one another,
God will live in us in perfect love.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 10:2-16

A reading from the Gospel according to Mark

What God has joined together, no one must divide.

Some Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, 'Is it against the law for a man to divorce his wife?' They were testing him. He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' 'Moses allowed us' they said 'to draw up a writ of dismissal and so to divorce.' Then Jesus said to them, 'It was because you were so unteachable that he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female. This is why a man must leave father and mother, and the two become one body. They are no longer two, therefore, but one body. So then, what God has united, man must not divide.' Back in the house the disciples questioned him again about this, and he said to them, 'The man who divorces his wife and marries another is guilty of adultery against her. And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another she is guilty of adultery too.'

People were bringing little children to him, for him to touch them. The disciples turned them away, but when Jesus saw this he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. I tell you solemnly, anyone who does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.' Then he put his arms round them, laid his hands on them and gave them his blessing.

Communion Antiphon.

Lam 3:25

The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to the soul that seeks him.

Scriptural Context

Discipleship

This section of Mark's Gospel explores what it means to be a disciple. While this particular passage may seem to be a bit out of place, Jesus seems to be stressing to the disciples that there are some bottom lines – some non-negotiables – when it comes to being a disciple. Unlike the Pharisees who are preoccupied with the letter of the Law, Jesus encourages his disciples to get beyond that and understand the spirit of the Law – God's dream for humankind. The shift in the passage to the focus on children seems a little disconnected but the whole passage is about living in the kingdom with the right attitude.

Gospel Reflection

In the Western world today, somewhere between one-third and one-half of marriages end in divorce. It's a statistic that we hear wheeled out as a sign of the collapse of family values in our society. However, the reverse statistic is also true: somewhere between one-half and two-thirds of marriages are lasting ones. In the last 30-40 years, divorce has transformed from being a shameful scandal to an accepted, even commonplace, fact of life. It would be uncommon not to know someone affected by divorce. Despite those who argue that divorce is too 'easy', it is an emotional and difficult decision for couples to reach and has rippling impacts on children, extended families and friends.

When the Pharisees in the gospel asked Jesus about the law regarding divorce, they really weren't interested in divorce; they wanted to check Jesus' orthodoxy – how he stood in relation to traditional teaching. Rather than respond to them directly, Jesus asks them first of all to name the teaching to which they refer. He then explains that Moses only ever wrote the instruction because the people were so unwilling to listen to God's way.

For the second time in the last few weeks, the gospel shows Jesus welcoming children and praising their attitude as the way to the kingdom of God. Children of the time had no status and were regarded as literally the property of their father. When Jesus laid his hands on the children and gave them his blessing, this was the action of a father 'claiming' the child as their own. To welcome the kingdom like a little child is to enter into living the kingdom of God without any claim to position or status; to recognise our complete dependence on others; to let go of our ideas of who is important and who is not; to allow ourselves to be 'claimed' by Jesus.

Parish Footy Tipping Competition

100,013 at the Grand Final last Saturday and 4.1 million TV viewers marked the end of the 2024 AFL season. A season with big crowds, big stories and big swings in form making it very difficult for our tippers to find winners regularly. The Swans are one of 3 Clubs that have lost three consecutive Grand Finals? Do you know who are the other 2? Chris Houlihan was our champion tipper for 2024 shadowed by Mary Lane, Maree O'Halloran, John Frank and Lachlan Jolly.

Spencer Meier was our final winning tipper last week with the closest winning margin of the 19 tippers who correctly forecast Brisbane. Our other Finals winners were Carolyn Meier, John and Teresa Lincoln.

Pope opens Synod General Assembly with Mass in St Peter's Square

In his homily during Mass for the Solemn Inauguration of the Second Session of the 16th General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, Pope Francis emphasizes the need for hearts open to dialogue and the importance of the harmony that comes from the Holy Spirit. By Christopher Wells

Pope Francis' homily for the opening Mass of the General Assembly of the Synod focused on the images of "voice, refuge, and a child".

In his reflection for the feast of the Holy Guardian Angels, the Pope recalled God's command "to listen to the voice of the Angel He had sent."

Striving to understand the path

As the Church con- along the synodal Lord places in our dreams, and hopes the Church spread world. He invited "strive to under- must follow to reach Lord desires for us." obstacles to the har- the Holy Spirit, the must be open to the in order to hear the tinues to journey path, he said , "the hands the history, of a great people," throughout the participants to stand the path we the destination the In order to remove mony intended by Pope continued, we contributions of all, voice of God.

A welcoming embrace, a place of refuge

With the concept of refuge, Pope Francis said protecting wings of the angel of God becomes "a symbol of what God does for us, and also a model for us to follow." The gifts of each one are a great richness to the whole Church; but at the same time, we must be willing to reach out to one another, offering one another "a welcoming embrace and a place of refuge." "The more we realise that wear are surrounded by friends who love, respect, and appreciate us," he said, "friends who want to listen to what we have to say, the more we will feel free to express ourselves spontaneously and openly."

Like a little child

Finally, the Holy Father invoked the image of "a child," like the one Jesus placed before the disciples, "inviting them to convert and be small like him." The paradox of the greatest in heaven being that one who becomes little, like a child, "is fundamental for us," the Pope said. Although the Synod necessarily deals with great and important issues, "it is precisely for this reason that we must not lose sight of the child, whom Jesus continues to place at the centre of our meetings and work tables."

Guided "by the breeze of the Spirit

"Brothers and sisters," Pope Francis said in conclusion, "let us resume this ecclesial journey with an eye to the world, for the Christian community is always at the service of humanity, to proclaim the joy of the Gospel to all."

And finally, after announcing his intention to lead the public recitation of the Rosary on Sunday to implore the Virgin Mary for the gift of peace; and proclaiming a day of prayer and fasting the next day for peace in the world, Pope Francis enjoined the faithful to continue to "journey together," listening to the Lord and allowing ourselves "to be guided by the breeze of the Spirit."

2024 PUBLIC ROSARY

“Public prayer is more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy, and the Church, guided by the Holy Spirit, has always advocated it in times of disasters and general distress.”

- Saint Louis de Montford

4 October 2024

Letter to Clergy and Laity of the Archdiocese of Melbourne

My dear friends,

Greetings to you, in Christ Jesus, Prince of Peace.

As we approach the first anniversary of the 7 October terrorising and evil attack by Hamas on Israel, we have seen from a distance the frightening and destructive consequences that have unfolded, involving many countries and more importantly, many peoples – families, the elderly, the young, the displaced.

The lands of Israel, Lebanon, and the Palestinian territories are our Holy Lands, and it is heartbreaking to see where Jesus walked, talked, died and rose, once again on the precipice of an abyss.

Recently, I met with Cardinal Pizzaballa, the Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem. His wise words remain with me: a “solution to conflict does not equate with peace”. Rather, peace comes through the speaking of truth and the fostering of trust.

Similar thoughts were expressed in this year’s Social Justice Statement, of the Australian Bishops:

All of this points to a crisis of truth which creates in turn the crisis of trust lying at the heart of the world’s current convulsions; because without trust there can be no peace... We say: speak truth to build trust and build trust to make peace.

In the conflict zones hatred is obscuring truth and hindering peace. This is something we can never give oxygen to in our own country. No to war, and no to the hatred of peoples. Whilst we might feel helpless at what is unfolding overseas, we can ensure that we live truthfully, and work for dialogue and reconciliation at home. As Christians, peace among people, and respect of peoples, must be our choice.

I join with Pope Francis and my brother Bishops in calling for a day of prayer, fasting and reconciliation for Peace this coming Monday, 7 October, the memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary. I encourage you to take up this call in your family and localities. I also ask that our faith communities give expression in prayer to this call during our worship this Sunday, rather than protest in anger.

May our prayers be offered in earnest to Blessed Mary, Mother of Hope and true Lady of Israel, of Palestine and of Lebanon, so that through her intercession the God of all mercy and consolation will bring about a reconciled world.

Most Rev Peter A Comensoli
Archbishop of Melbourne

A Prayer for Peace

Lord our God,
Father of the Lord Jesus Christ,
and Father of all peoples,
Who in the cross of Your Son and through the gift of His own life, at great cost You wished to destroy the wall of enmity and hostility that separates peoples and makes us enemies:
Send into our hearts
the gift of the Holy Spirit, that He may purify us from every feeling of violence, hatred and revenge, enlighten us to understand the irrepressible dignity of every human person, and inflame us to the point of consumption for a peaceful and reconciled world in truth and justice,
in love and freedom.
Almighty and eternal God,
in Your hands are the hopes of men and women and the rights of every people:
Assist with Your wisdom those who govern us,
so that, with Your help,
they will become sensitive to the sufferings of the poor and of those who suffer the consequences of violence and war;
may they promote the common good and lasting peace
in our region
and throughout the earth.

Virgin Mary, Mother of Hope, obtain the gift of peace for the Holy Land that gave birth to you and for the whole world. Amen.

Cardinal Pizzaballa Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem

Jokes of The Week

#1: "My husband and I divorced over religious differences. He thought he was God and I didn't."

#2: "The secret of my success in my married life and in my business is the same", said, Henry Ford on the 50th anniversary of his wedding, "I don't change models every now and then; instead, I stick on to one and try to improve it."

#3: A couple was being interviewed on their Golden Wedding Anniversary. "In all that time — did you ever consider divorce?" they were asked. "Oh, no, not divorce," the wife said. "Murder sometimes, but never divorce."

#4: Marriage markers: I never married because there was no need. I have 3 pets at home which answer the same purpose as a husband: I have a dog that growls every morning, a parrot which swears all afternoon and a cat that comes home late at night.

#5: Marriage miscellany: "A marriage may be made in Heaven but the maintenance must be done on earth." — Marriage is a three-ring circus: Engagement ring, wedding ring, and suffering. — At the cocktail party, one woman said to another, "Aren't you wearing your wedding ring on the wrong finger?" The other replied, "Yes I am; I married the wrong man." — Adam and Eve had an ideal marriage. He didn't have to hear about all the men she could have married, and she didn't have to hear about the way his mother cooked. — A man tells his wife of 15 years that it feels like they've only been married for 5 minutes, the wife says, "That's so sweet!" and he says, "Yeah, 5 minutes under water!"
