EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

5 APRIL 2026 | YEAR A

Dear Parishioners,

On that first Easter morning, as we hear in the Gospel, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb while it was still dark. She came carrying grief and confusion, only to discover that the stone had been rolled away. What appeared to be the end had become, by God's grace, a new beginning. The empty tomb speaks quietly yet powerfully: Christ is risen. Death does not have the final word. Love is stronger than fear.

We celebrate Easter in a world that often feels unsettled and burdened. We witness conflict between nations, division within communities, and uncertainty in many hearts. At times, like the disciples, we may feel overwhelmed by events we do not fully understand. Yet the Easter Gospel reassures us that even in moments of darkness, God is already at work, bringing life where we least expect it.

The Resurrection is not only a memory of the past; it is the foundation of our hope today. The Risen Lord meets us where we are — in our anxieties, our disappointments, and our longing for peace — and gently calls us forward. He invites us to live as people of faith, of generous love, and of quiet courage.

Easter reminds us that no stone is too heavy for God to move. In our families, in our parish, and in our wider world, the light of Christ continues to shine. Whenever we choose forgiveness over resentment, kindness over indifference, and faith over fear, we bear living witness to the Resurrection.

May this Easter renew your hearts and your homes. May the joy of the Risen Christ strengthen you, and may His peace guide our world toward healing and unity. Let us hold fast to the truth that sustains us: Christ is risen, and in Him there is hope.

Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed and joyful Easter.

In Christ,
Fr Jerald

Have a
Blessed Easter

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord, 5 April 2026

First Reading:

Acts of the Apostles 10:34. 37-43

Responsorial Psalm 22

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia! Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 28:1-10

After the Sabbath, and towards dawn on the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala and the other Mary went to visit the sepulchre. And all at once there was a violent earthquake, for the angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled away the stone and sat on it. His face was like lightning, his robe white as snow. The guards were so shaken, so frightened of him, that they were like dead men. But the angel spoke; and he said to the women, 'There is no need for you to be afraid. I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here, for he has risen, as he said he would. Come and see the place where he lay, then go quickly and tell his disciples, "He has risen from the dead and now he is going before you to Galilee; it is there you will see him." Now I have told you.' Filled with awe and great joy the women came quickly away from the tomb and ran to tell the disciples.

And there, coming to meet them, was Jesus. 'Greetings,' he said. And the women came up to him and, falling down before him, clasped his feet. Then Jesus said to them, 'Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers that they must leave for Galilee; they will see me there.'

CARPET REPLACEMENT

Assistance Needed

Our parish is currently exploring the possibility of replacing the carpet in the church.

We are seeking a parishioner who has experience in the carpet industry and would be willing to assist us with the initial assessment.

This would involve taking measurements of the church and providing a general idea of potential costs.

If you have the relevant experience and are happy to help, we would greatly appreciate your support.

Please contact the parish office on 9763 7302.

Thank you for your continued generosity and care for our parish community.
