PARISH OF ST JOSEPH CHELSEA

15TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

14 JULY 2024

Moving forward, decisions need to be made and planning now has to take over, as Niamh nears the end of her schooling years. I cannot say enough wonderful things about Niamh's time at school – first at Nepean at Seaford and then Glenallen at Glen Waverley. Dedicated and committed staff and volunteers spend their days making the lives of disabled children fun and enjoyable - art and crafts are made, music reverberates through the corridors and laughter is evident everywhere.

Recycling at Glenallen School!

So, finding a place for Niamh in a day program, where she can be with other people (because she loves people!) versus bringing someone in or caring for her myself at home. Niamh will never be able to look after herself and will always require someone to feed her, dress her, administer medication, help her with exercise and physiotherapy and ensure she is safe.

I have attended an information session at a facility called Bayley House in Brighton which caters for adults with a disability and I had some good feelings about the place and the information that was presented about their day programs. And I think this is perhaps the best way to find a suitable fit for Niamh – she needs to be happy and comfortable, and knowing her needs, I can make choices on her future care plan. A place that allows her to be herself, to be with other people and to join in activities that will allow her to laugh, and to gain, in a small way at least, a degree of independence away from her Mum for a bit.

Niamh is using an adapted paint stick to paint the background of her artwork used to create the whole school collaborative dragon, inspired by the Lunar New Year celebrations - Year of the Dragon 2024.

God Bless
Maree and Niamh Dalton

OUR SATURDAY VIGIL MASS CHOIR

The Vigil Mass Choir is looking for a male voice to enhance the richness of our Liturgical singing. We need another male voice which will make an immense difference. Currently we have practice on Wednesdays at 2pm and a run through at approximately 5pm on a Saturday evening prior to Mass. It is not all work as it is quite 'social' in nature and there is much laughter and enjoyment. If you think you can give it a go, please ring Elaine Shelton 0409026839 who will clarify and explain. Many thanks.
