in a nutshell

The Countless Multitude. On this feast of All Saints we remember the countless multitude of men, women and children, including many we have known, who are now in heaven. We continue to be inspired by the qualities they revealed in their lives: humility, a concern for justice, gentleness, purity of heart, mercy, and courage. We take comfort in knowing that from their home in heaven they intercede for us still we pray for all who are sick or suffering and those parishioners unable to be among us this weekend, especially, Chris Nolet, Marilyn, John Laan, Harry Heerings, Pat Henshaw, Fr Pat Purcell, Pauline Bennett, Paul Latham, Margaret Broderick, Fida Rees

For those who have died recently:
and those whose anniversary occur at this time: Rocco and Vivian Varone

of special note

Raise Your Voices

Entrance Antiphon

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrater the feast day in honour of all the Saints,
at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. R

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. R

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. R

Gospel acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come to me, all you that labour and are burdened,
and I will give you rest, says the Lord, Alleluia!

Communion Antiphon

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they shall be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

All Saints Day Party
There will be a party to celebrate All Saints Day on Sunday 1st November, after the 10.30am Mass at St Mary's.

Adoration of the Eucharist
Adoration: Every day, thousands of Catholics step into adoration chapels seeking a quiet encounter with the Lord. They offer adoration, honour, praise and thanksgiving to the supreme majesty of God.
Confession: The mystery of the incarnation and the renewal it accomplished could not have taken place without the Father's will. This is all God's doing: it is He who has reconciled us to Himself through Christ, and who has given us the ministry of Reconciliation. (St. Cyril of Alexandria) Adoration, spend time in the presence of the Holy Eucharist: Mount Evelyn: Tuesday at 5:00pm & Friday 8:00am. Yarra Junction: Thursday at 6:00pm. Confessions available during Adoration.

Stewardship Corner
"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." - Matthew 23:12
The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions are the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety, and depression than ever before. The lives of the saints show that the key to a happy life are relationships. Relationships with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.

Safeguarding Compliance for Volunteers
Thank you to those of you who have completed the process. Please check your SPAM folder for any emails from the parish. When you complete the training and sign the Code of Conduct please forward a copy of the certificate to the office. If you need assistance to complete the online training call Janine during office hours.

This week's giggle...
Every night, my whole life, I'd prayed to the saints to keep my family and home safe. Which is why when my house was destroyed in an earthquake my faith was badly shaken. The saints must have been distracted by something that day. I don't want to point the finger at anyone in particular, but I can't help feeling it must have been San Andreas' fault
