called to serve with joy."*

33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 2025

15th and 16th of November 2025

Gospel Reflection – Luke 21:5–19

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks with clarity and honesty about the challenges that His followers will face. He foretells times of uncertainty, suffering, and hardship — moments when life will feel shaken to its foundations, just like the great Temple that people once believed could never fall.

Yet, these words are not meant to frighten us, but to strengthen us. Jesus reminds us that faith has never promised a life without storms, but it does promise a God who walks with us through them. He calls us to trust, to stand firm, and to remember that fear is never the last word for those who hope in Him. So often, in modern times, we seek comfort in what is new, fast, and loud. But Christ invites us to something deeper — to hold fast to the unchanging values of faith, prayer, perseverance, and trust in God's timing, just as generations of believers have done before us. There is wisdom in remembering that the strongest foundations are built slowly, prayerfully, and with endurance. Jesus assures us, "By your perseverance, you will secure your lives." This is our encouragement for today: not to give up when the path feels long, not to lose heart when the world feels uncertain, but to remain anchored in God who is faithful through every age. May we carry these words into the coming week with courage, trusting that Christ walks beside us, yesterday, today, and always.

With every blessing: Fr Jerald

THANK YOU

Thank you for making our recent multicultural day event a wonderful success!

Your participation and support are truly appreciated!

It was a beautiful reflection of our parish's spirit. We especially thank:

- Our dedicated organising team for the months of planning and coordination
- The amazing cooks, performers, and cultural contributors who shared their gifts.
- The volunteers who helped with setup, serving, welcoming, and clean-up.
- Everyone who came, participated, and celebrated together.

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time — 15th and 16th of November 2025

First Reading Malachi 3:19-20

The day is coming now, burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and the evil-doers will be like stubble. The day that is coming is going to burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, leaving them neither root nor stalk. But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will shine out with healing in its rays.

Responsorial Psalm 97 Response: The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.

Second Reading—2 Thessalonians 3:7-12 You know how you are supposed to imitate us: now we were not idle when we were with you, nor did we ever have our meals at anyone’s table without paying for them; no, we worked night and day, slaving and straining, so as not to be a burden on any of you. This was not because we had no right to be, but in order to make ourselves an example for you to follow. We gave you a rule when we were with you: not to let anyone have any food if he refused to do any work. Now we hear that there are some of you who are living in idleness, doing no work themselves but interfering with everyone else’s. In the Lord Jesus Christ, we order and call on people of this kind to go on quietly working and earning the food that they eat.

Gospel Acclamation : Alleluia, alleluia! Lift up your heads and see; your redemption is near at hand. Alleluia!

Gospel—Luke 21:5-19—When some were talking about the Temple, remarking how it was adorned with fine stonework and votive offerings, Jesus said, ‘All these things you are staring at now – the time will come when not a single stone will be left on another: everything will be destroyed.’ And they put to him this question: ‘Master,’ they said, ‘when will this happen, then, and what sign will there be that this is about to take place?’ ‘Take care not to be deceived,’ he said, ‘because many will come using my name and saying, “I am he” and, “The time is near at hand.” Refuse to join them. And when you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be frightened, for this is something that must happen but the end is not soon.’ Then he said to them, ‘Nation will fight against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be great earthquakes and plagues and famines here and there; there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven. ‘But before all this happens, men will seize you and persecute you; they will hand you over to the synagogues and to imprisonment, and bring you before kings and governors because of my name – and that will be your opportunity to bear witness. Keep this carefully in mind: you are not to prepare your defence, because I myself shall give you an eloquence and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relations and friends; and some of you will be put to death. You will be hated by all men on account of my name, but not a hair of your head will be lost. Your endurance will win you your lives.’
