PARISH OF ST JOSEPH CHELSEA

10TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

9 JUNE 2024

A few parishioners have asked me how we did with the Episcopal Visitation on the Palm Sunday weekend, and what remarks Bishop Tony had to make in his report. So, over the next three weeks the bulletin will feature the pertinent sections of the Bishop's report pertaining to the parish.

Bishop's Report Arising from the Episcopal Visitation, 21st, 23rd, and 24th March 2024.

Parish Weekday Mass (9am Thu 21st March)

Observations: The weekday Mass had 50-60 parishioners in attendance. Fr Kevin said that there were more in attendance than usual probably because of the Visitation.

Recommendation: At a future visitation, the Bishop is to take the long way out of the Church, so that he can greet the people who have come to weekday Mass.

Brief meeting with Parish Priest

Observations: Fr Kevin spoke of the condition of the Presbytery. There is at least one water leak and deterioration of the window frames. He said that the parish had not reached out to the neighbouring parishes to discuss The Way of the Gospel (parish amalgamation),

Recommendations: That steps be taken to immediately rectify the water leaks in the Presbytery and then to restore the ceiling and walls where there is water damage.

St Joseph's School Chelsea

In attendance: Fr Kevin Williams, Gavan O'Donnell (Principal), Lisa Kniese (Deputy Principal), Kate Cronin (Learning Diversity Leader), Kelly Riddle (REL), Donna Connolly (Learning and Teaching), Collette Grella (also Learning and Teaching). Had meeting with these leaders, morning tea with the staff and visited classrooms with the principal.

Observations: The leadership team presented themselves as a team and the staff as supportive of one another. Over morning tea, some staff complimented the leadership of Gavan O'Donnell. The school is 95% [baptised] Catholic. The school has very good facilities even though it is on a small piece of real estate.

Commendation and recommendations: Congratulations to the Principal and leadership team for presenting a school where there is a shared vision, purposeful journeying together and a desire for improvement.

Parish Office

Fr Kevin Williams, Maree Dalton (Parish Secretary). Absent: Vanessa Heredia.
Observations: The Parish Registers are filled in correctly and up to date.
To be continued next week.....

Please do not attend Mass if you are unwell.
There are no numbers restrictions on attendees at church.
Face masks are no longer mandatory inside the church.
Please use the hand sanitiser provided.
