

4 ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: The Lord is the strength of his people, a saving refuge for the one he has anointed. Save your people, Lord, and bless your heritage, and govern them forever.

A reading from the Book of Job (38:1,8-11)
From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said: Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther: here your proud waves shall break. The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Response: Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.”

Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters. These men have seen the Lord’s deeds, the wonders he does in the deep. R./

For he spoke; he summoned the gale, tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven and back into the deep; their soul melted away in their distress. R./

Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress. He stilled the storm to a whisper; all the waves of the sea were hushed. R./

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired. Let them thank the Lord for his love, the wonders he does for men. R./

A reading from the second Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians (5:14-17)
The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them. From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia! A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people. Alleluia!

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St Mark (4:35-41)
With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Let us cross over to the other side.’ And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, ‘Master, do you not care? We are going down!’ And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, ‘Quiet now! Be calm!’ And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, ‘Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?’ They were filled with awe and said to one another, ‘Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.’
The Gospel of the Lord.

Homily Notes

JESUS CALMS THE STORM. Mark’s account of the episode features a wonderful combination of the human and the divine. At first the disciples are in control. When Jesus makes the suggestion, ‘Let us cross over to the other side’, they take him ‘just as he was, in the boat’. On land he may be in control but the sea is their sphere of competence: they are after all, most of them, fishermen. Completely in their hands, it seems, Jesus takes the opportunity to have a little nap, commandeering, we are told in a delightfully human touch, the helmsman’s cushion for the purpose. The sudden onset of a storm (something for which the Sea of Galilee is notorious) changes everything. The disciples become desperate, wake him and rather rudely ask if he cares at all that they are about to sink! Jesus then turns to the disciples and questions them about their fear and lack of faith. Did they not understand that with him present, even if asleep, there was no chance that the forces of chaos and destruction could overwhelm them? Did they not realise who precisely was among them in the Master they had come to follow? THE RIGHT QUESTION. It seems that their faith still had a long way to go before being adequate to the mystery of Jesus. But at least they ask the right question, ‘Who is this, who even the winds and the sea obey?’ From their biblical understanding they know that they have witnessed an exercise of divine power. Hence, they are ‘filled with awe’ – the true human response in the presence of the divine. In the brief compass of this one short scene we have moved so swiftly from a very human view of Jesus to one where he is exercising divine power in a most dramatic way.

Riflessione

In questo brano tutto è volto a descrivere la situazione dell’umanità nella sua lenta storia e tutto mira ad annunciare il piano divino che il Figlio di Dio vuole realizzare. Gesù salva la sua Chiesa da tutte le tempeste che minacciano di farla affondare. Gesù non rimprovera il fatto che non lo si sia svegliato subito, ma biasima invece la mancanza di fede. Bisogna pregarlo, e pregarlo con fede. La paura di morire, che è negativa, viene allora sostituita dal timore di Dio, che è l’obbedienza dei fedeli al loro Salvatore. Questa è la nostra situazione: la debolezza della nostra imbarcazione trae forza dalla presenza di Cristo: egli ci fa passare.

Parish Pastoral Plan 2024 WORKSHOP ON INTERCULTURALITY

First Session held on 20TH July 2024 for Leaders and designated volunteers only
Our parish is blessed with diversity of gifts of people, languages, cultures and traditions. We are an English, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Filipino, and Swahili speaking communities. We have been doing our best to be more intercultural than multicultural by having common parish activities where we encounter each other and organise events together. However, we want to go deeper than just seeing each other and tolerating each other's differences. We want to deeply understand and embrace each other's culture and tradition, which is a way to live out our parish vision to "bear witness to a missionary discipleship."

For this reason, the Parish Pastoral Council organises the Workshop on Interculturality this year guided by Sr Cathy Solano RSM, an expert on the topic.

Parish Vision and Mission

Inspired by the Holy Scriptures and Tradition, we, the intercultural Parish Community of St Brigid's and St Mark's, are called to bear witness to a missionary discipleship by remembering our history, honouring diversity, creating a safe and hospitable place, and celebrating communion.
