Come to the Water – Frank Andersen MSC

Chorus:

Come to the water, you who are thirsty.
Though you have nothing, I bid you come,
And be filled with the goodness I have to offer;
Come, listen, live.

Verse 1:

Why spend your money on what cannot fill
The emptiness deep in your heart?
Listen to My word and you will enjoy
Goodness and peace in your heart.

Chorus:

Come to the water, you who are thirsty.
Though you have nothing, I bid you come,
And be filled with the goodness I have to offer;
Come, listen, live.

Verse 2:

Just as the heavens are high above earth
My ways and thoughts beyond you.
Call me your Father and know I am near
I will be Father to you.

Chorus:

Come to the water, you who are thirsty.
Though you have nothing, I bid you come,
And be filled with the goodness I have to offer;
Come, listen, live.

Verse 3:

Just as the rain falls to water the earth;
Just as a seed becomes bread;
My word upon you can never return
Until My longing is filled!

Chorus:

Come to the water, you who are thirsty.
Though you have nothing, I bid you come,
And be filled with the goodness I have to offer;
Come, listen, live.

EPIPHANY HOUSE BLESSING: There is a Catholic custom of blessing our homes on or after the Epiphany. This blessing is performed by the members of each home. It can be done by a family, or by someone who lives alone. It involves a short prayer service, and writing an inscription over the front door of our home with blessed chalk. Chalk was blessed at our Masses when we celebrated the Epiphany last Sunday. We are now invited to call down a blessing on our homes by taking home a stick of blessed chalk and a sheet of paper with the instructions and the prayer service. It's a great way of starting the New Year, and we hope that you will give it a go.

If you know someone who might also want to bless their own home, you are welcome to take chalk and paper for them too.

WEEKDAY MASSES this week are at 9:15 am on Monday 12th January, Wednesday 14th January, and Friday 16th January.
