First Reading

Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak different languages.

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

A Responsorial Psalm

(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

1. Bless the Lord, my soul! Lord God, how great you are, How many are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your riches. (R.)
2. You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came. You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth. (R.)
3. May the glory of the Lord last for ever! May the Lord rejoice in his works! May my thoughts be pleasing to him. I find my joy in the Lord. (R.)

Second Reading

Galatians 5:16-25

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians

If you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you. When self-indulgence is at work the results are obvious: fornication, gross indecency and sexual irresponsibility; idolatry and sorcery; feuds and wrangling, jealousy, bad temper and quarrels; disagreements, factions, envy; drunkenness, orgies and similar things. I warn you now, as I warned you before: those who behave like this will not inherit the kingdom of God. What the Spirit brings is very different: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness and self-control. There can be no law against things like that, of course. You cannot belong to Christ Jesus unless you crucify all self-indulgent passions and desire. Since the Spirit is our life, let us be directed by the Spirit.

Sequence

The sequence may be said or sung.

Holy Spirit, Lord of light, From the clear celestial height Thy pure beaming radiance give.
Come, thou Father of the poor, Come with treasures which endure; Come, thou light of all that live!
Thou, of all consolers best, Thou, the soul's delightful guest, Dost refreshing peace bestow;
Thou in toil art comfort sweet; Pleasant coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe.
Light immortal, light divine, Visit thou these hearts of thine,
And our inmost being fill: If thou take thy grace away,
Nothing pure in man will stay; All his good is turned to ill.
Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour thy dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away: Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray.
Thou, on us who evermore Thee confess and thee adore,
With thy sevenfold gifts descend: Give us comfort when we die;
Give us life with thee on high; Give us joys that never end.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Alleluia!

Gospel

John 15:26-27; 16:12-15

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to his disciples:

'When the Advocate comes,
whom I shall send to you from the Father,
the Spirit of truth who issues from the Father,
he will be my witness. And you too will be witnesses, because you have been with me from the outset. I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.
But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself
but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come.
He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.
Everything the Father has is mine;
that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

Communion Antiphon

Acts of the Apostles 2:4,11

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke of the marvels of God, alleluia.

Have YOU thought?

The Spirit

We can sometimes regard Pentecost as the day the Holy Spirit came into the world. However, the Spirit had long been active in the world before this event. In fact, even the second verse of Genesis Chapter 1 tells us that the Spirit hovered over the waters. The Old Testament is filled with references in which 'The Spirit of God came upon (him) with power' and the Spirit was evident at Jesus' baptism and throughout the gospels. Jesus is frequently described as being 'filled with the Spirit'. So, from the very beginning of creation the Spirit has moved in the world and continues to energize it today.

Gospel Reflection

The feast of Pentecost celebrates the power of the Holy Spirit coming upon the disciples and energising them to set about their mission of continuing the ministry of Jesus. The gospel reading is one of the post-resurrection appearances by Jesus when he breathed the Holy Spirit upon the disciples. The actual events of that first Pentecost are recorded in the book of Acts and are recalled in this week's first reading. The use of this post-resurrection gospel account is a reminder that Jesus had already imbued the disciples with the Spirit but, as so often throughout his ministry, they were a bit slow to catch on to the significance of what he had done. It seems that they needed a more tangible experience to jolt them into action and Acts records the very physical experience of the Spirit entering their midst as a roaring wind before settling upon them as tongues of flame. Jesus had breathed the Spirit upon them but it took the roaring wind to make a real impression on the disciples. There are frequent references in the gospels to Jesus being 'filled with the Spirit'. It is this Spirit with which he was filled that he breathed upon his disciples; it is that same Spirit that we receive sacramentally in Confirmation.

For the weeks following the death of Jesus the disciples had lived in fear and confusion, not fully understanding what had happened and not really knowing what to do. When they realised that the Spirit Jesus had breathed upon them was really present and urging them to action they finally had the courage to begin the mission that Jesus had entrusted to them: to spread the Good News of Jesus and continue to realise his message in the world.

Historical Context – Pentecost

The word Pentecost comes from the Greek for fiftieth day. Pentecost Sunday ends the season of Easter and comes as a Sabbath day after seven weeks of seven days. In Jewish tradition the 50th day after the Passover was celebrated as a blessing of the harvest and rather than the unleavened bread of Passover it was celebrated by leavening the bread. It was for this reason that the disciples were gathered together when they experienced the Holy Spirit empowering them. In Christian tradition, Pentecost is celebrated as the arrival of the Spirit, promised by Jesus, that animated the disciples to spread the gospel of Jesus and gather believers to form what would eventually become the Church.

Pope proclaims Jubilee: 'May hope fill our days!'

At a ceremony in St Peter's Basilica on Ascension Thursday, Pope Francis solemnly proclaims the upcoming Jubilee Year 2025, consigning the Bull of Indiction – "Spes non confundit. Hope does not disappoint" – to the Archpriests of the Papal Basilicas and representatives of the world's bishops.

By Christopher Wells

"Hope" is the overarching theme of the upcoming Ordinary Jubilee of 2025, a theme reflected in the opening words of the Bull of Indiction, entitled "Spes non confundit. Hope does not disappoint."

Solemn opening of the Holy Doors: In Spes non confundit,

Pope Francis announces that the Jubilee Year will begin with the opening of the Holy Door of St Peter's Basilica on Christmas Eve, 2024. Later, on 29 December, the Pope will open the Holy Door of the Archbasilica of St John Lateran, the Cathedral of Rome. On the same day, every Cathedral and co-Cathedral throughout the world will have Mass celebrated by the local Bishop to mark the opening of the Jubilee. On the Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God, 1 January 2025, Pope Francis will open the Holy Door for the Basilica of St Mary Major, with the Holy Door for the Basilica of St Paul's Outside the Walls being opened on Sunday, 5 January, the Vigil of Epiphany. "In the course of the year," Pope Francis writes, "every effort to enable the People of God to fully participate in its proclamation of grace and in the signs and efficacy of the Holy Doors." The Jubilee particular Churches throughout the world on 28 December will have the Holy Doors of St John Major, and St Paul's being closed on that day. And finally, the Jubilee will draw to a close in Rome on the Solemnity of Epiphany, 6 January 2026.

Francis should be made God to participate of hope in God's that attest to their will end in the throughout the 2025, with the Lateran, St Mary Outside the Walls same date. Year will draw to Solemnity of

An opportunity to be renewed in hope

"Everyone knows what it is to hope," the Pope wrote in the introduction to the Bull. "In the heart of each person, hope dwells as the desire and expectation of good things to come, despite our not knowing what the future will bring." Expressing his desire that the Jubilee might be "an opportunity for us to be renewed in hope, Pope Francis recalled that pilgrimage is "a fundamental event of every Jubilee event," traditionally associated with the human quest for the meaning of life. The artistic masterpieces and the beauty of creation we see on our journey inspire us to praise and thank God for His wondrous works. In particular, he invited all the particular churches throughout the world to prepare priests and the faithful for Sacramental Confession, which should be readily available throughout the year. In a special way, Pope Francis invited the faithful of the Eastern Churches, especially those already in union with the Successor of Peter, to take part in the Jubilee, and to feel welcome in the city of Rome, noting how many are already "enduring their own way of the Cross," forced to leave their lands by violence and instability. Pope Francis insisted that Christian hope, rooted in Christ's death and resurrection for each human person, points to our final destiny, eternal happiness with God in heaven. We are saved by God's mercy, seen especially in the gift of indulgences: While Confession washes away our sins, indulgences – including the Jubilee Indulgence – remove the effects of sins forgiven in the Sacrament. In the Bull of Indiction, the Pope notes that the specific conditions for receiving the indulgence will be published soon.

Jokes of the Week

- 1) There is an old joke about a man who asked his pastor whether it was okay to smoke while he prayed. His pastor said, "Absolutely not! When you pray, you should be completely devoted to prayer!" So the man went to another priest, but he changed his question, "Would it be okay to pray while I smoke?" "Yes, of course" was the answer.
- 2) Several years ago in Germany, while giving the Sacrament of Confirmation, a bishop was questioning the children who were about to be confirmed: "Who can administer the sacrament of confirmation?" he asked. A young girl answered: "Any bishop, once he's attained the age of reason!"
- 3) "If I sold my house and my car, had a big garage sale and gave all my money to the Church, would that get me into Heaven?" I asked the children in my Sunday School class. "NO!" the children all answered. "If I cleaned the Church every day, mowed the yard, and kept everything neat and tidy, would that get me into Heaven?" Again, the answer was, "NO!" "Well, then, if I were kind to animals and gave candy to all the children, and loved my wife, would that get me into Heaven?" I asked them again. Again, they all answered, "NO!" "Well," I continued, "then how can I get into Heaven?" A five-year-old boy shouted out, "YOU GOTTA BE DEAD!"
- 4) The gift of fortitude: A mother refused to permit her little girl to go for a picnic with her classmates. On the day of the picnic, however, she changed her mind and gave her permission. But she sighed and confessed, "It's too late Mummy, I've already prayed for rain on the school picnic day!"

URGENT!! APPEAL FOR HELP!

The Parish has a Family (Mother, Father & teenage son), who I personally vouch for, as a terrific Family, but who have fallen on difficult times and need affordable rental accommodation.

Could the individual that expressed the possibility of being able to help please contact Fr Geoff.

This is urgent, so if you can help, please contact me 59752200.

THANKSGIVING CAMPAIGN

In the coming weeks, we will commence our Offertory Giving Campaign in our parish community, which will run over a three-week period. Giving generously is a way to deepen our faith and is a vital part of our identity as Christian worshippers. You are encouraged to engage prayerfully with the content presented and provided over this time and we look forward to growing and going deeper in our relationship with Christ through this process.

Personalized Pledge Packs can be found in the church foyer— they are arranged alphabetically based on Surnames.

There are also blank packs available if you would like to start donating.

More information will come in the following weeks, including how to fill out the information and returning the packs to the office.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The ceiling in the Church above the altar and in the annex, will be getting painted, so those sections of the Church will be closed off for two weeks.

Weekday Masses will continue, as will Saturday night 6pm and Sunday 5pm, as all have less than 180 people and we can still use the original section of church and the choir loft.

However on Sunday 26th May and Sunday 2nd June there will be

NO 9am or 11am Masses in the Church.

Instead, they will be held at the St Macartan's School Hall, 97 Bungower Rd.

Hello Friends and Parishioners,

My messages are far and few between these days, so I will try and cover what I feel is important to pass on to you.

We have a new cabinet in the Gift Shop making it easier for you to access all goods available on display. We will continue to display new stock on the table outside the Gift Shop for you to browse over on your way into and out of Mass. I am inviting those who sit in the annexe to just pop in and see the beautiful items we now have available for you the Parishioners when required. People travel from miles away to purchase from our Gift Shop and we are all proud to be able to assist them.

May is the Month of the Blessed Virgin Mary: Our Lady of Fatima – 1st Apparition – 13th May -----Mother of the Church 20th May ---- Our Lady Help of Christians 24th May ----- Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary 31st May. We will have a table to commemorate the Blessed Virgin. I personally couldn't resist, purchasing the 40cm plaster statue of the Miraculous. It looks amazing in our home

The most popular items we are continually ordering weekly for sold orders would be the Miraculous Sterling Silver Medals, some gold plated in small, medium and large. Weekday and Sunday Missals are always popular along with Rosary Beads. It doesn't matter that we have inherited Rosary Beads from our Grandparents, our Parents and from others along the way; it just seems we feel the need to update with all the beautiful styles that are currently available.

If you are looking for something that we don't have in stock, please ask. I do my utmost to fill all requests.

Unfortunately with family commitments it is very hard to open the Gift Shop on a Tuesday. If anyone requires anything urgently please do not hesitate to call me and I can arrange a time to meet you there when convenient.

Take care and God Bless.

Trish, Graham and Ann
