PENSIERO DOMENICA

La storia dei due discepoli che andavano ad Emmaus, aiutava i neo battezzati ad apprezzare la celebrazione dell'Eucarestia. Li incoraggiava a radunarsi insieme nelle loro case la domenica per la "Frazione del Pane". Quello che ora noi chiamiamo La Messa, ai tempi antichi si chiamava "La Frazione del Pane".

Walking with the Risen Christ to Emmaus

Today's Gospel is a famous story of the Lord appearing to two disciples on the road to Emmaus and we can relate to it easily because it is really our story. These two followers of Christ are not important figures like Peter, John, Mary Magdalene and Thomas. They are ordinary people like us, and the Lord comes to them.

In this story we learn that the Risen Christ is near to all of us, because we are all important to him. These two disciples were not in Jerusalem, not in the upper room, not even near the garden tomb. They were on an ordinary road, travelling to a small, relatively unknown village, a few miles from Jerusalem, and Jesus came to them.

The Risen Christ is part of our lives wherever we are. The "where" of the Emmaus story is a nameless road, really any road, every road where we are, any point on the road of life as a child, teenager, young adult, parent or senior citizen. It is anywhere in the world of work, whatever our occupation. It is anywhere we are personally, in doubt, in grief, in joy, in consternation, in worry, in distress. Christ is there with us.

Through the Emmaus story we learn how we come to know Jesus in the "breaking of bread," in the Eucharist as we gather to do what Jesus told us, "Do this in memory of Me." The Mass, the table for our sharing the life-giving food of the body & blood of Christ, is central to our Faith. The Mass is our Emmaus experience where our eyes are opened to recognise the truth about the Lord and about ourselves.

In this magnificent Easter appearance, in that small town called Emmaus, the Risen Jesus showed those two disciples where he could always be found, in the breaking of the bread, in Mass.
