WELL DONE - ENCOUNTER

Congratulations to the Encounter Youth Group on the success of their first cake / bake sale.

They raised over $480 for the use of their Youth group, but more importantly, the participation was terrific!

The Youth and Youth Leaders connected with the Parishioners and bought a smile to everyone's face and many were rewarded with delicious cakes and yummy slices.

Can't wait for the next one :-)

First Reading

Joshua 24:1-2. 15-18

A reading from the book of Joshua

We will serve the Lord God, because he is our God.

Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem; then he called the elders, leaders, judges and scribes of Israel, and they presented themselves before God. Then Joshua said to all the people: 'If you will not serve the Lord, choose today whom you wish to serve, whether the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are now living. As for me and my House, we will serve the Lord.' The people answered, 'We have no intention of deserting the Lord and serving other gods! Was it not the Lord our God who brought us and our ancestors out of the land of Egypt, the house of slavery, who worked those great wonders before our eyes and preserved us all along the way we travelled and among all

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 33(34):2-3. 16-23. R. v.9

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. (R.)
2. The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth. The Lord turns his eyes to the just and his ears to their appeal. (R.)
3. They call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress.
The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save. (R.)
4. Many are the trials of the just man but from them all the Lord will rescue him.
He will keep guard over all his bones, not one of his bones shall be broken. (R.)
5. Evil brings death to the wicked; those who hate the good are doomed.
The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants. Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. (R.)

Second Reading

Ephesians 5:21-32

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

This is the great mystery, it applies to Christ and the Church.

Give way to one another in obedience to Christ. Wives should regard their husbands as they regard the Lord, since as Christ is head of the Church and saves the whole body, so is a husband the head of his wife; and as the Church submits to Christ, so should wives to their husbands, in everything. Husbands should love their wives just as Christ loved the Church and sacrificed himself for her to make her holy. He made her clean by washing her in water with a form of words, so that when he took her to himself she would be glorious, with no speck or wrinkle or anything like that, but holy and faultless. In the same way, husbands must love their wives as they love their own bodies; for a man to love his wife is for him to love himself. A man never hates his own body, but he feeds it and looks after it; and that is the way Christ treats the Church, because it is his body – and we are its living parts. For this reason, a man must leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one body. This mystery has many implications; but I am saying it applies to Christ and the Church.

Gospel Acclamation

See John 6:63. 68

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life:
you have the words of everlasting life.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 6:60-69

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Lord, whom shall we go to? You have the words of everlasting life.

After hearing his doctrine many of the followers of Jesus said, 'This is intolerable language. How could anyone accept it?' Jesus was aware that his followers were complaining about it and said, 'Does this upset you? What if you should see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before?

'It is the spirit that gives life,
the flesh has nothing to offer.

The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life.

'But there are some of you who do not believe.' For Jesus knew from the outset those who did not believe, and who it was that would betray him. He went on, 'This is why I told you that no one could come to me unless the Father allows him.' After this, many of his disciples left him and stopped going with him.

Then Jesus said to the Twelve, 'What about you, do you want to go away too?' Simon Peter answered, 'Lord, who shall we go to? You have the message of eternal life, and we believe; we know that you are the Holy One of God.'

Communion Antiphon

The earth is replete with the fruits of your work, O Lord;
you bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer the heart.

Historical Context

Christians and Jews

The first followers of Jesus and those who became followers in the years after the death of Jesus were faithful Jews. They saw the teachings of Jesus as a way of being a better Jew. They didn't think that they were beginning a new religion; just a new way of interpreting their faith. However, as the years passed and the followers of Jesus began to clarify their understandings and beliefs, it started to become obvious that their belief in Jesus as the Son of God was distancing them from their Jewish brothers and sisters. Gradually the term, Christian, came into use and their differences from Judaism became more apparent.

Gospel Reflection

For the last few weeks we have heard a number of readings from chapter 6 of the Gospel of John focusing on the teaching of Jesus that he is the Bread of Life, come down from heaven. This reading is the last in the sequence and shows the reaction to Jesus' teaching. What Jesus has been saying in this discourse is incredibly confronting to his Jewish audience. Jesus asserts that he has come down from heaven – from the Father – and that through knowing him one can know the Father. Jews were the first people to have a concept of one God. This belief did not allow for any spouse or child of God, nor any personal manifestation. They struggled with what Jesus was saying because his claim to have come down from heaven could be seen as blasphemous. No wonder many of them walked away from Jesus and wanted nothing more to do with him!

Jesus gives an interesting response to them. He tells them that it is the spirit that is important, not his human flesh, and that the spirit is what he has been sharing with them through his words and actions. He is trying to say to these faithful Jews, don't be hung up about the fact that I'm here in person, listen to my message as you've never heard it before. It is an interesting thought for our modern audience as well. How often do we fail to hear the message of Jesus because we are dismissive of the way in which it comes to us; the messenger; or the circumstances in which we hear it? The message is all the more confronting when it comes from an unlikely (or even un-likable) source. The message of Jesus is to be found in our everyday encounters with everyday people.

Parish Footy Tipping Competition

This week's last Round will decide our champion tipper for 2024. Chris Houlihan is still in the lead but only by one from Maree O'Halloran. 2 further back is John Frank while another one back finds Mel Fisher, Kees Duyvestyn and Peter Keightley. 5 tippers last week tipped 7/9 in another very unpredictable week to find winners. The Finals start in one week when our finals tipping competition will also start.

Do you know which 15 events are no longer part of the Olympic Games program? Of interest is that a different kind of football is included in the 2028 Olympics in LA for the first time. Do you know what kind of football is debuting then? In our footy, which team was no longer part of the VFL after 1914 and in which year did the VFL axe Fitzroy or do you know in which year did the VFL become known as the AFL?

Pope: Christians called to share Gospel of peace, even amid persecution

Pope Francis thanks Catholics in the Italian city of Rimini for praying the Rosary in their city's square every month, and urges Christians to spread the Gospel of peace, even when they face persecution.

By Devin Watkins

For 10 years, Catholics have gathered in the northern Italian city of Rimini on the 20th day of every month in their city's main square to pray the Rosary for peace.

To mark that anniversary, Pope Francis sent a message, released on Friday, to the Nazzari Committee for Persecuted Christians, which organizes the monthly Rosary that has spread to many cities across the globe.

In his message, the Pope thanked the Nazzari Committee for their attention toward "brothers and sisters living in lands affected by terrible conflicts."

"Thank you for your witness of kind charity, solidarity, and especially for your union with the suffering of populations wounded by injustice, oppression, hatred, and greed," he said.

Good News of peace for war-torn world

Pope Francis took the occasion to encourage Christians everywhere to bear witness to the Gospel message of peace.

"Today, more than ever," he said, "humanity needs the Good News of peace, and every Christian is called to proclaim and share it."

He expressed his hopes that those who take part in the monthly Rosary prayer might "continue to be promoters of a culture of respect for all, of welcome, and of an inclusive fraternity where everyone can enjoy the bread of communion and the joy of solidarity."

Pope Francis wrapped up his message with an encouragement for the 10th anniversary of Rimini's public Rosary.

"I urge you to invoke the help of the Virgin Mary, Mother of Perpetual Help, so that she may welcome us under her mantle and support us in times of trial," he said. "May she kindle in our hearts the light of hope to dare for a future of serenity and harmony."

'Appeal to Humanity'

The Rimini Rosary initiative began in August 2014 following the expulsion of Christians from the Nineveh Plain in Iraq at the hands of the so-called Islamic State.

Entitled "Appeal to Humanity," the prayer is offered for all persecuted people, both Christians and non-Christians.

"This prayer is the affirmation of the Lordship of Christ—who can do all things—over each of us," reads a communiqué from the Nazzari Committee. "It is the beginning of our transformation. Prayer is the most powerful instrument for changing history."

Over the past 10 years, the Nazzari initiative has collected tens of thousands of euros, which it has sent to assist hundreds of vulnerable families, particularly in Syria and Iraq.

On August 20, Bishop Nicolò Anselmi of Rimini will lead the 10th anniversary Rosary prayer in his city's main square.

Jokes of the Week

1) "Choose my God and my denomination and rite or die!": Once I saw this guy on a bridge about to jump. I said, "Don't do it!" He said, "Nobody loves me." I said, "God loves you. Do you believe in God?" He said, "Yes." I said, "Are you a Christian or a Jew?" He said, "A Christian." I said, "Me, too! Protestant or Catholic?" He said, "Catholic." I said, "Me, too! Latin rite Catholic or Oriental rite Catholic?" He said, "Oriental rite Catholic." I said, "Me, too! Syrian or Armenian Catholic?" He said, "Syrian." I said, "Me, too! Syro-Malabar or Syro-Malankara rite?" He said, "Syro-Malankara." I said, "Oh well do what you want - I'm busy!"

2) A climber fell off a cliff. As he tumbled down into a deep gorge he grabbed hold of a branch of a small tree. "Help" he shouted. "Is there anyone up there?" A deep majestic Voice from the sky echoed through the gorge. "I will help you, My son. But first you must have Faith in Me." "All right, all right. I trust you." answered the man. The Voice replied, "Let go of the branch." There was a long pause and the man shouted again, "Is there anyone else up there?"

It is that time once again to get things moving for the 2024 with the "Combined Catholic Parishes Raffle".
