Good Shepherd Sunday

Next Sunday we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday – the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

You might know of a young person in the parish, in your family or an acquaintance whom you think would make a good priest or religious. Why not pray for them by name on a regular basis? Carry them with you 'spiritually' to Mass and place them on the alter at the offertory. Sometimes the Lord uses us as his instruments to encourage vocations.

3rd Sunday of Easter, Year A

Dear brothers and sisters in the Risen Lord,

This Sunday's Gospel about the two disciples walking down to Emmaus is a story worth repeating again and again. Their journey was made memorable by a "stranger" who joined them and talked with them as they travelled along. The stranger was none other than the Risen Lord himself, though the disciples were kept from recognising him until much later.

Our lives are also often compared to a journey. From the time we are born until the time we are gone, we are on a pilgrim journey. Today's Gospel reminds us that even when we feel 'left alone' we are not really alone. It was a heart-felt experience for those two disciples to realise in the end, that God himself walked with them through their entire journey.

We may well remember the good old hymn, "No man is an Island", because God is with us". The two disciples were going away from Jerusalem because of their Master's death. The news about the resurrection they disbelieved. They felt disappointed, disillusioned, defeated, discouraged, devastated, depressed, dispirited and in despair and doubt; yet it turned out to be one of the most wonderful walks in history! All because the Lord walked with them, even though unrecognized as he walked along! Only much later they were to realise also that their hearts were burning within them as the "stranger" talked to them.

Jesus is still here. He's the unseen "stranger" who is with us; listening to us and talking with us. If we are willing to hear his voice, he will reveal himself to us. He wants us to talk to him, not because he does not know anything about what is going on, but because he loves to hear from us.

The Gospel tells us that, "As they approached the village to which they were going, the "stranger", Jesus seemed as if he was going further." The disciples then showed their concern for the safety of the stranger, and invited him to stay with them. This concern for their fellow traveler in turn was helpful for themselves. It was now that the stranger breaks the bread and they in turn recognise their Lord and Master as they shared in the Eucharist.

Like the two disciples, let's also invite Jesus to come and stay with us, for "its nearly evening" for u. It's getting dark, do not walk alone; walk with Jesus.

Our Life will never be the same again!

God was talking to one of his angels: "Do you know what I have just done? I have just created a 24-hour period of alternating light and darkness on Earth. Isn't that good?" The angel says, "Yes, but what will you do now?" God says, "I think I'll call it a day."
