PARISH OF ST JOSEPH CHELSEA

13TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

30 JUNE 2024

Navigating life with a child with disabilities is a myriad of appointments, therapies, finance organisation and most importantly, love. It's advocating, fighting for entitlements, learning and maintaining a safe and happy environment for your child.

When that child becomes an adult, what changes? Niamh turned 17 in May so my thoughts and actions turn to the future and what I need to do to ensure that Niamh continues to be the joyous and affectionate person that she is today and has been all of her life. That she has all of the support that she needs and deserves and that her life is fulfilling and of value.

No one's life as a parent stops when their child turns 18. Hopefully the relationship between a parent and a child strengthens with time, and as each party matures and grows. What does that mean to a parent of a non-verbal child, one who cannot express her wishes and desires or tell you her feelings? A child who needs to be looked after constantly – fed, nourished, showered and changed, moved from wheelchair to bed and back again and, as such, has no real independence.

I've supported, cared for, advocated for and loved my child into adulthood. I'm exhausted and scared, and taking the next step is a lot to think about. But worrying about the future won't help me or Niamh. Embracing the challenge of planning for the future will. Trusting in the Lord, and knowing that he is guiding me and Niamh on our journey is how I get through some tough times, and will continue to as Niamh gets older.

Part 2 next week

Please do not attend Mass if you are unwell.

OUR SATURDAY VIGIL MASS CHOIR

The Vigil Mass Choir is looking for a male voice to enhance the richness of our Liturgical singing. Consequently we need another male voice which will make an immense difference. Currently we have practice on Wednesdays at 2pm and a run through at approximately 5pm on a Saturday evening prior to Mass. It is not all work as it is quite 'social' in nature and there is much laughter and enjoyment. If you think you can give it a go but that somethings could be problematic please ring Elaine Shelton 0409026839 who will clarify and explain. Many thanks in anticipation.

Many thanks to those who have so kindly donated for our essential roof repairs/ replacement!! I have added a donation link to our website if you are able to assist:
