First Reading

Isaiah 62:1-5

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

As the bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so will your God rejoice in you.

About Zion I will not be silent, about Jerusalem I will not grow weary, until her integrity shines out like the dawn and her salvation flames like a torch.

The nations then will see your integrity, all the kings your glory, and you will be called by a new name, one which the mouth of the Lord will confer.

You are to be a crown of splendour in the hand of the Lord,
a princely diadem in the hand of your God;

no longer are you to be named 'Forsaken', nor your land 'Abandoned', but you shall be called 'My Delight' and your land 'The Wedded';

for the Lord takes delight in you and your land will have its wedding.

Like a young man marrying a virgin, so will the one who built you wed you, and as the bridegroom rejoices in his bride, so will your God rejoice in you.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 95:1-3. 7-10. R. v.3

(R.) Proclaim his marvellous deeds to all the nations.

1. O sing a new song to the Lord, sing to the Lord all the earth.

O sing to the Lord, bless his name. (R.)

2. Proclaim his help day by day, tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples. (R.)

3. Give the Lord, you families of peoples, give the Lord glory and power,
give the Lord the glory of his name. (R.)

4. Worship the Lord in his temple.
O earth, tremble before him.

Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'
He will judge the peoples in fairness. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:4-11

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

One and the same spirit distributes different gifts as he chooses.

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. One may have the gift of preaching with wisdom given him by the Spirit; another may have the gift of preaching instruction given him by the same Spirit; and another the gift of faith given by the same Spirit; another again the gift of healing, through this one Spirit; one, the power of miracles; another, prophecy; another the gift of recognising spirits; another the gift of tongues and another the ability to interpret them. All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, who distributes different gifts to different people just as he chooses.

Gospel Acclamation

See 2 Thessalonians 2:14

Alleluia, alleluia!

God has called us with the gospel to share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Alleluia!

Gospel

John 2:1-11

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

The first of the signs given by Jesus was at Cana in Galilee.

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited. When they ran out of wine, since the wine provided for the wedding was all finished, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' Jesus said, 'Woman, why turn to me? My hour has not come yet.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' There were six stone water jars standing there, meant for the ablutions that are customary among the Jews; each could hold twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, 'Fill the jars with water,' and they filled them to the brim. 'Draw some out now' he told them, 'and take it to the steward.' They did this; the steward tasted the water, and it had turned into wine. Having no idea where it came from – only the servants who had drawn the water knew – the steward called the bridegroom and said, 'People generally serve the best wine first, and keep the cheaper sort till the guests have had plenty to drink, but you have kept the best wine till now.'

This was the first of the signs given by Jesus: it was given at Cana in Galilee. He let his glory be seen, and his disciples believed in him.

Communion Antiphon.

Cf Psalm 22:5

You have prepared a table before me, and how precious is the chalice that quenches my thirst.

Dear Parishioners of St Macartan's,

After Christ, our Good Shepherd, led me from a promised green land of Mornington to a new promised land of Werribee! I reached it safely.

It looks promising, a vast green pasture with many Sheep! Christ, you are so good. Thank you.

Thank you, Fr. Geoff, for having welcome me to the green pasture of St. Macartan's to be among the Sheep of the Lord to learn and serve them. I would like to thank you all Parishioners very much for your care, love, prayers, and good examples of living Christian faith. You have taught me by your actions rather than words. You have been my formators. I treasure you in my heart and prayers.

With love and prayers— Fr An

Use of alcohol

Sadly, this text is sometimes used by people to show that Jesus legitimizes drinking alcohol. If there was anything wrong with drinking, they say, Jesus wouldn't have made wine out of water! This argument is used to not only justify consumption of alcohol (sometimes to excess) but also to berate and ridicule those who, for religious and other reasons, abstain from alcohol. It is, of course, a feeble attempt to misappropriate scripture and use it completely out of context and for their own purposes. One could not even justify this argument on the grounds of a literal interpretation of scripture!

Gospel Reflection

Today's first reading from Isaiah is one of several references in the Old Testament that use wedding imagery – bride and groom – to describe the relationship between God and the people of Israel. The imagery is never that of an 'old married couple' but rather young lovers entering into a new life together full of hope; full of romance; and full of passion. This image of God and the people as bride and groom would not have been lost on the first audiences of today's gospel passage. Immediately, they would have recognised the significance of Jesus' first outing in public ministry being at a wedding feast – at the coming together of God and God's people, Jesus is present! It is a very neat and quite deliberate follow on from the prologue of the Gospel of John where the gospel writer uses the image of 'the Word made flesh who lives among us' to describe Jesus. The Word has come into the world and the first public appearance is at an event that symbolises the relationship between God and God's people.

The interplay between Jesus and his mother is very interesting in this gospel event. In this particular gospel it is one of only two occasions that Mary is mentioned: this event at the beginning of Jesus' ministry and then at the foot of the cross as he is crucified. Mary does not ask Jesus to do anything. She simply states, 'They have no wine', but one can almost hear the motherly tone with which it was said. I'm sure Jesus was left in no doubt that he was expected to do something about it. When he tries to avoid the issue, Mary apparently ignores his objections and instructs the servants to do whatever Jesus tells them. No fuss; no argument. How do mothers do it?

Pope Francis' autobiography 'Hope' hits bookshelves in 80 countries

Pope Francis' widely-anticipated autobiography 'Hope' hits bookshelves in 80 countries this Jubilee, and includes narrated memories, anecdotes, photos, and elements offered personally to readers.

By Deborah Castellano Lubov

Pope Francis' greatly-anticipated autobiography 'Hope' has hit bookshelves on Tuesday, 14 January 2025, in 80 countries globally.

The text, written firsthand by the Pope but with the collaboration of Italian writer Carlo Musso, is also made available to English-speaking readers in the United States through the publisher Random House, and in the UK, through the publisher Viking.

Photos and unpublished material personally made available by Pope Francis

The book is enhanced by remarkable photographs, including private and unpublished material made personally available by Pope Francis himself.

Written over six years, this complete autobiography starts in the early years of the twentieth century, with Pope Francis' Italian roots and his ancestors' courageous migration to Latin America.

The text continues through his childhood, the enthusiasms and preoccupations of his youth, his vocation, adult life, and the whole of his papacy up to the present day.

Narration and anecdotes

Narrating his memories, the Holy Father addresses crucial moments of his papacy and various important and controversial questions of our present times, including wars plaguing the world, the future of the Church and religion, social policy, migration, the environmental crisis, women, technological developments, and sexuality.

Moreover, "Hope" includes numerous revelations, anecdotes, and considerations. Random House describes it as a thrilling and very human memoir, moving and sometimes funny, which represents the "story of a life."

Moreover, the publisher calls it "a touching moral and spiritual testament that will fascinate readers throughout the world and will be Pope Francis's legacy of hope for future generations."

Jubilee 2025

For locals wanting to participate in next year's Jubilee and unable to travel to Rome, we have good news. In anticipation of the official opening of Jubilee 2025: Pilgrims of Hope, the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne has revealed the 13 churches and shrines within the Archdiocese that will be designated Pilgrim Places for the purposes of the 2025 Jubilee, with the majestic St Patrick's Cathedral serving as the principal Pilgrim Place.

The designated pilgrim places are:

- St Patrick's Cathedral, East Melbourne
- St Mary Star of the Sea (Archdiocese Shrine of the Holy Family), West Melbourne
- St Mary MacKillop, Keilor Downs
- St Luke's, Lalor
- St Mary Magdalene's, Trentham
- Polish Marian Shrine, Aberfeldie/Essendon
- St Dominic's, Camberwell East
- St Francis Xavier, Mansfield
- Sacred Heart, Croydon
- Divine Mercy Shrine, Keysborough
- Our Lady of Lavang, Keysborough
- St Patrick's, Mentone
- St Macartan's, Mornington

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen.

Francis

PLENARY INDULGENCES

Indulgences are a way to reduce the time a person spends suffering for sins, even after they have been forgiven. A faithful Christian can earn an indulgence for themselves or for someone who has passed away, as long as they meet certain conditions. Indulgences are a wonderful support on the great pilgrimage towards heaven. While indulgences do not absolve people of sin—that is for the sacrament of Reconciliation—they orient hearts towards God and are characterised by a mysterious interior renewal.

To receive a Jubilee plenary indulgence within the Archdiocese of Melbourne, individually or in a group, people can visit any Pilgrim Place, remain there for a suitable period of time, engage in Eucharistic adoration and meditation, then conclude their time of prayer with the Our Father, the Profession of Faith and the Hail Mary (or any other invocation to Mary the Mother of God).

By fulfilling these conditions while they are at a Pilgrim Place, the grace of the Jubilee Indulgence is granted. Normally only one plenary indulgence can be received per day, but for the duration of the 2025 Jubilee Year, pilgrims will be able to 'pay it forward' and obtain a second, on condition that they have carried out an act of charity offered for the souls in purgatory and received Holy Communion a second time that day.

Bring on the Jubilee!

New & upcoming Jubilee events at St Macartan's

St Macartan's has been designated a "pilgrim place" and pilgrims will be eligible to receive Jubilee indulgences by visiting a designated Pilgrim Place within the Archdiocese. This special time of grace, is a time to focus on reconciliation and forgiveness, prayer and reflection, sojourn and pilgrimage.

So far on our calendar we have added an extra "Adoration/Exposition time:

- Every Saturday 9:45 - 10:30am during reconciliation time.

(We still have: Fridays at 9:45-10:45am and Every 2nd & 4th Sundays 3:30-4:30pm)

A Jubilee pilgrimage brings people together in ways that bind body and spirit together in celebration and endurance. The word 'Jubilee' is associated with excitement. Its origins are found in two different causes for celebration. In Latin, jubilation was the shout of joy accompanying the birth of a king or the victory of a famous gladiator. In Hebrew, the word referred to the trumpet sounded to announce the 50th year in which Law of Moses people ordered people to be released from their debt. That was also a happy event, but like the Roman celebrations one in which excess was never far away. We see this double association of jubilee in the lines of Marching through Georgia, a popular song written at the end of the American Civil War, Hurrah! Hurrah! We bring the jubilee!

Hurrah! Hurrah! The flag that makes you free!

So we sang the chorus from Atlanta to the sea!

While we were marching through Georgia

JUBILEE PILGRIMAGE

For most Catholics the Jubilee Pilgrimage of Hope will be one of the heart. Hearts, like pilgrimages are messy affairs. They bring people together in ways that binds body and spirit together in celebration and endurance.

GENEROSITY OF SPIRIT

The Pilgrimage had all the generosity of spirit, all the down to earth charity, that we find in the Gospel. Like this pilgrimage, Jubilee years are not special but are ordinary. They invite us to live our faith by travelling lightly, looking after one another, and looking forward to the happy ending of our journey.

St Macartan's are looking for ideas for how we can celebrate this Jubilee year - Please send ideas to our Parish email: mornington@cam.org.au

Jokes of the Week

1 “Then why did you marry my mother?” Little Tommy was so impressed by his oldest sister’s wedding that he announced. “I want to have a wedding just like Linda had.” “That sounds great,” said his father. “But whom will you marry?” Tommy announced: “I want to marry grandma because she loves me and I love her.” “You can’t marry grandma,” his father said. “Why not?” Tommy protested. “Because she is my mother.” “Well,” reasoned Tommy. “Then why did you marry my mother?”

#2 The same service? A man who had been a husband for ten years was consulting a marriage counsellor. “When I was first married, I was very happy. When I came home from a hard day the shop, my little dog would race around barking and my wife would bring me my slippers with a heart-warming smile. Now after all these years everything is changed. Now when I come home, my dog brings me my slippers and my wife barks at me.”

“I don’t know what you are complaining about,” said the counsellor. “You are still getting the same service.”

#3) Countdown! One woman asked the other, “You were always my first marriage was to a millionaire; my second marriage was to an actor; my third marriage was to a preacher; and now I’m married to an undertaker.” Asked the friend, “What do those marriages have to do with a well-planned life?” “The first marriage was for the money, the second for the show, the third to get ready and the fourth to go!”

'The Missionary Sisters of St Peter Claver will visit the Parish on the weekend of 25/26 January to promote their work on behalf of the missions and distribute their 2025 Claver Almanac - Calendar at all Masses. This is a free copy but any donation towards the missions would certainly be gratefully received.'

Feel free to have a chat and introduce yourself.

Statement from the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne

The Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne utterly condemns the appalling attack on the Adass Israel Synagogue in Melbourne.

Hello, my greetings to you. I've just arrived in Rome to the terrible, terrible news of the fire-bombing of the Adass Israel Synagogue in Melbourne.

I'm horrified by what has happened. This is truly an evil act, a wicked, wicked act by those who have perpetrated it. They have acted with enormous harm in so many different ways.

My prayers and my utter support is for the Jewish community in Melbourne and elsewhere at this moment. Know of my prayers for you. Know of my support for you. And that I utterly condemn what has occurred, and I also strongly condemn those who have perpetrated this, or any who might in some way think this is justified. It is not.

To my brothers and sisters in the Jewish community in Melbourne, know of my prayer for you. Know of my support for you, and know that I will reach out in whatever way I can to contend with this evil of antisemitism that is at play in our society at the moment.

Most Rev Peter A Comensoli

Archbishop of Melbourne.

FAREWELL CHERRIE - WE WILL MISS YOU

12 Months ago I decided to give an inexperienced 18yr old young lady, on a gap year from university, an opportunity to be a Parish secretary, her name

Cherrie Azzopardi

At the time, the human resource department of the Archdiocese, advised me it maybe a risk as she had no experience, but Cherrie in her interview, said all the right things.

I am so delighted and proud of Cherrie, she has turned into a terrific secretary, one I don't want to lose, she is also a wonderful person. But Cherrie has a calling a vocation of sorts, to be a teacher and I know she will be excellent teacher.

Cherrie; the Parish has been enriched by your dedication, hard work, your always "can do" attitude and your genuine friendliness - We THANK YOU!

I will greatly miss you but I know we will see you around in our Parish and we will remain connected and assist you where we can in your future endeavours.

Good luck and you remain in our prayers.

Blessings

Fr Geoff
