First Reading

Genesis 18:20-32

A reading from the book of Genesis

Lord, do not be angry if I speak.

The Lord said, 'How great an outcry there is against Sodom and Gomorrah! How grievous is their sin! I propose to go down and see whether or not they have done all that is alleged in the outcry against them that has come up to me. I am determined to know.'

The men left there and went to Sodom while Abraham remained standing before the Lord. Approaching him he said, 'Are you really going to destroy the just man with the sinner? Perhaps there are fifty just men in the town. Will you really overwhelm them, will you not spare the place for the fifty just men in it? Do not think of doing such a thing: to kill the just man with the sinner, treating just and sinner alike! Do not think of it! Will the judge of the whole earth not administer justice?' The Lord replied, 'If at Sodom I find fifty just men in the town, I will spare the whole place because of them.'

Abraham replied, 'I am bold indeed to speak like this to my Lord, I who am dust and ashes. But perhaps the fifty just men lack five: will you destroy the whole city for five?' 'No', he replied 'I will not destroy it if I find forty-five just men there.' Again Abraham said to him, 'Perhaps there will only be forty there.' 'I will not do it' he replied 'for the sake of the forty.'

Abraham said, 'I trust my Lord will not be angry, but give me leave to speak: perhaps there will only be thirty there.' 'I will not do it' he replied 'if I find thirty there.' He said, 'I am bold indeed to speak like this, but perhaps there will only be twenty there.' 'I will not destroy it' he replied 'for the sake of the twenty.' He said, 'I trust my Lord will not be angry if I speak once more: perhaps there will only be ten.' 'I will not destroy it' he replied 'for the sake of the ten.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 137:1-3. 6-8. R. v.3

(R.) Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

1. I thank you, Lord, with all my heart,
you have heard the words of my mouth.
Before the angels I will bless you.
I will adore before your holy temple. (R.)
2. I thank you for your faithfulness and love which excel all we ever knew of you.
On the day I called, you answered;
you increased the strength of my soul. (R.)
3. The Lord is high yet he looks on the lowly and the haughty he knows from afar.
Though I walk in the midst of affliction
you give me life and frustrate my foes. (R.)
4. You stretch out your hand and save me,
your hand will do all things for me.
Your love, O Lord, is eternal,
discard not the work of your hands. (R.)

Colossians 2:12-14

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

He has made you alive with Christ for he has forgiven all our sins.

You have been buried with Christ, when you were baptised; and by baptism, too, you have been raised up with him through your belief in the power of God who raised him from the dead. You were dead, because you were sinners and had not been circumcised: he has brought you to life with him, he has forgiven us all our sins. He has overridden the Law, and cancelled every record of the debt that we had to pay; he has done away with it by nailing it to the cross.

Gospel Acclamation

Romans 8:15

Alleluia, alleluia!

You have received the Spirit which makes us God's children,
and in that Spirit we call God our Father.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 11:1-13

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Once Jesus was in a certain place praying, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said, 'Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples.' He said to them, 'Say this when you pray:

"Father, may your name be held holy, your kingdom come;
give us each day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins,
for we ourselves forgive each one who is in debt to us.

And do not put us to the test."

He also said to them, 'Suppose one of you has a friend and goes to him in the middle of the night to say, "My friend, lend me three loaves, because a friend of mine on his travels has just arrived at my house and I have nothing to offer him"; and the man answers from inside the house, "Do not bother me. The door is bolted now, and my children and I are in bed; I cannot get up to give it to you." I tell you, if the man does not get up and give it him for friendship's sake, persistence will be enough to make him get up and give his friend all he wants.

'So I say to you: Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. For the one who asks always receives; the one who searches always finds; the one who knocks will always have the door opened to him. What father among you would hand his son a stone when he asked for bread? Or hand him a snake instead of a fish? Or hand him a scorpion if he asked for an egg? If you then, who are evil, know how to give your children what is good, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!'

Communion Antiphon

Psalms 102:2

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and never forget all his benefits.

gospel focus

Relationship

A crucial aspect of prayer is the attitude with which we view God. We trust in God's character that it is not a pointless exercise to ask for something. We trust that God is even more loving than a parent who tries to give their child what they need. If we did not make these basic assumptions about God, there would be little point in prayer. When our prayer lives falter at times, perhaps we need to first check out our relationship with God and our attitude towards God before trying to 'fix' the ways we pray.

Gospel reflection

In today's gospel, Jesus provides his disciples, and all Christians, with a model for prayer. In keeping with this modelling by Jesus, it is significant that the Lord's Prayer, or Our Father, is the common prayer of all Christians, regardless of denomination. The parable and teaching that follow the Lord's Prayer make clear the particular purpose of prayer that Jesus was highlighting – prayer as petition. In this instance, Jesus assures us that if we pray for what we need with conviction and confidence, then God cannot fail to respond to our prayer. Jesus in fact encourages us to be demanding and persistent in our prayer. However, the parable used to demonstrate the persistent nature of prayer is not focused on demands for selfish purposes, but rather the neighbour needs assistance in fulfilling his obligations of hospitality to a traveller. He is not waking his neighbour in the middle of the night to ask for bread for himself; he asks for bread to give to his guest. He asks for help to fulfil his duty and responsibility. This gives us something of an idea about how we might focus our prayer. Praying for a pony or new bike isn't quite in the same league! The final element of the gospel passage provides us with a description of God's love and care by something of a negative comparison: if human parents would not do harm instead of good to their children, God is even less likely to act like this towards us. It's a bit of an odd way around of saying that God's love is greater than anything within our experience or imagination.

Living the Gospel – Ask, Search, Knock

Jesus says in the gospel, 'Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you.' The actions of asking, searching and knocking are means by which we initiate the encounter with God. If we don't ask, search and knock, how is anyone (including God) to know our needs or know what it is that we are searching for. Particularly in our spiritual lives, it is only through the search and the knocking on the doors of different experiences that we ever come closer to finding answers.

Historical Context – Stone for bread

The stone/bread, snake/fish and scorpion/egg comparisons seem a little far fetched to us, but would have made perfect sense to a 1st Century Palestinian audience. The flat, brown stones around Lake Galilee look very similar to the flat bread that was baked in the area. The 'snake' may refer to a sea-snake – an eel – which might be caught up in a fisherman's nets but was regarded as unclean by the Jews. The poisonous scorpions of the region are very pale in colour and when curled up at rest could be mistaken for an egg.

Pope appeals for end to Gaza 'barbarity'

Speaking after the Sunday Angelus, Pope Leo mourns the three Gazans killed in an attack on the Holy Family Catholic parish in Gaza city, which he says is "just one" of the "continuous" attacks on Gaza's people and holy sites.

By Joseph Tulloch

Pope Leo XIV has expressed his "deep sorrow" over the recent Israeli attack on the Catholic parish in Gaza, and called for "an immediate halt to the barbarity" in the Strip.

After the Holy Family church was struck on Thursday morning, three of the approximately 600 Gazans sheltering there were killed, and several others, including the parish priest Fr Gabriel Romanelli, were injured.

Speaking on Sunday after reciting the Angelus prayer at his summer residence in Castel Gandolfo, the Pope named the three victims – Saad Issa Kostandi Salameh, Foumia Issa Latif Ayyad, and Najwa Ibrahim Latif Abu Daoud – and said he was "close" to them and their families.

Pope Leo then stressed that the attack

"is just one of the continuous military attacks against the civilian population and places of worship in Gaza".

The Pope appealed for "an immediate halt to the barbarity of the war" and for "a peaceful resolution of the conflict". He urged the international community to observe humanitarian law and respect the obligation to protect civilians, "as well as the prohibition against collective punishment, indiscriminate use of force and forced displacement of the population".

Pope Leo brought his appeal to a close with a message to "our beloved" Christian communities in the Middle East, saying he understood they felt they could "do little, in the face of this tragic situation".

"You are in the heart of the Pope and of the whole Church," he said. "Thank you for your witness of faith."

Phone call with Netanyahu

Earlier in the day, speaking to journalists as he returned from celebrating Mass in the nearby town of Albano, Pope Leo stressed the need to "pray for peace, and try to convince all parties to come to the table, to dialogue and to lay down their weapons".

"The world can't take it any more", the Pope said. "There is so much conflict, so many wars".

Pope Leo was then asked about his phone conversation on Friday with Benjamin Netanyahu, during which he urged a "renewed push" for an end to the conflict, and lamented the "agonizing price" being paid by Gaza's civilians.

"We insisted on the need to protect the sacred places of all religions," Pope Leo said, "and to respect people and sacred places and try to leave behind all the violence and the hatred".

Melburnians to join hundreds of thousands at Jubilee of Youth in Rome

Melburnians will be among the hundreds of thousands expected to descend on Rome for the Jubilee of Youth next week, from 28 July to 3 August. Emma Bakker, Youth Discipleship Specialist from Proclaim: The Office for Mission Renewal, is travelling with the group and says the pilgrimage will be an opportunity for the young adults to witness the breadth of the Catholic Church, something she believes is needed to encourage them in their journey. Coming from Generation Z, the pilgrim group are 'curious and open minded', she says. 'I actually think the biggest barrier these days is that we don't share our faith with one another—out of fear, out of doubt, out of isolation. 'So for those that do have faith, having the courage to share it and really be vulnerable in that is good, because I think they're really hungry for more.' The group of 12 will be joined by chaplain Fr Jude Johnson, Assistant Priest of St Mary of the Angels in Geelong. All regions of the Archdiocese are represented in the group, says Emma.

The diocesan pilgrimage will begin in Assisi, with the group visiting the Basilica of St Francis and the Church of Santa Maria Maggiore, where the body of soon-to-be saint Carlo Acutis is located. They will also visit the Basilica of St Clare and the Church of San Damiano and Hermitage. From Assisi, the group will travel to Rome and join youth from around the world for the Jubilee celebrations.

St Mac's Café

At St Mac's café we have been serving meals (Thanks to the generous contribution of casseroles from St Mac's parishioners) to a range of people who come together for companionship, social interaction and be part of a caring community.

Our volunteers provide a listening ear and point of interaction with our guests who otherwise might be isolated for whatever reason. Here we encourage everyone to mix and socialise at our community table which we have found to be a positive move.

Our volunteers are at the core of each Wednesday providing a safe, warm and engaging environment.

Feedback from our guests has been ..." It's the only time we have been acknowledged as a person/individual!"

Once again, I wish to thank the generous contribution of St. Mac's Parishioners without whose help we would NOT be able to make a difference.

Thanks, Peter Lynch

Parish Footy Tipping Competition

Well done to loyal Blue, Kevin Groves who was our best tipper last week with 8/9. Nevertheless, our leaderboard top 4 was unchanged . Teresa and Terry share top place followed 1 back by Tessa and James. Another 2 behind, Jacinta, Adam and Nathan have been joined by Kathleen. With 4 Rounds to go before the end of the home and home season anyone could still win our first prize of $ 600.

The “wooden spoon” is given to the team that finishes on the bottom of the ladder at the end of each season. This year West Coast are favourites to win. Which team was the first and last team to win both the flag and the wooden spoon in the same season? Do you know what year was it and why is it called the “wooden spoon”?

Thank you. James and Spencer

The second series of the Stories of Hope prayer cards for the second half of 2025 has been delivered to our church . These cards will be left at each entrance. The first in the series is Cardinal Van Thuan.

Francis Xavier Nguyen Văn Thuận was born in Vietnam, the eldest of eight children. He was ordained a priest in 1953 and became a bishop in 1967. Just six days before Saigon fell to North Vietnamese forces, he was appointed coadjutor archbishop. Soon after, he was arrested and spent 13 years in prison, including nine in solitary confinement. Despite harsh conditions, Văn Thuận remained steadfast in his faith. With the help of sympathetic guards, he made a small crucifix from wood and wire. He also wrote brief messages of hope that were smuggled out to the Catholic community. After his release in 1988, he spent a further 3 years under house arrest. . In 2001, Văn Thuận became a cardinal but sadly died of cancer at the age of 74. His cause for beatification began in 2007, and he was declared venerable in 2017.

Little Mac's Playgroup has begun!

We had our very first Little Mac's Playgroup on Wednesday and it was a wonderful morning! The children had lots of fun exploring different activities and making new friends - and so did the parents, carers and grandparents. If you're looking for a relaxed, friendly playgroup and a chance to connect with others in the community we'd love to have you join us next week. We can't wait to meet you!

Jokes of the Week

1) Memory pills to remember the prayers. Two elderly men were walking along the beach and their wives were walking behind them. One man says, "Eddie, did you know I've been taking these new memory pills to help me remember my prayers? They're tremendous." "I would like to improve my memory too," said the other man. "What are those pills called?" The first man scratches his head, embarrassed because he can't remember the name of the memory pills. "Wait!" he exclaims. "Let me ask my wife." He thinks a moment and then says, "My God! I forgot her name. It's the same name as a flower with red petals, long green stems and thorns." "The rose?" Eddie guesses. "Yes, that's her name!" The first man replies, smiling brightly, as he turns around to ask his wife. "Rose! What is the name of those memory pills I take?"

2) The Tavern and the power of prayer: A tale is told about a small town that had always been "dry." One day, however, a local businessman erected a tavern. A group of Christians from a local Church were concerned and they convened an all-night prayer meeting to ask God to intervene. It just so happened that shortly thereafter lightning struck the tavern burning it down to the ground. The owner of the bar sued the Church, claiming that the prayers of the congregation were responsible, but the Church hired a lawyer to argue in court that they were not responsible. — The presiding judge, after his initial review of the case, stated, "No matter how this case comes out, one thing is clear: the tavern owner believes in prayer and the Christians do not."

Would You Like to Contribute to Our Parish Bulletin?

We're always looking to include more voices in our weekly bulletin! If you have a event, photo, or story you'd like to share with the parish, we'd love to hear from you. Your input helps make our bulletin a richer reflection of our parish community.
