First Reading

Micah 5:1-4

A reading from the prophet Micah

Out of you will be born the one who is to rule over Israel.

The Lord says this:

You, Bethlehem Ephrathah, the least of the clans of Judah, out of you will be born for me the one who is to rule over Israel;
his origin goes back to the distant past, to the days of old.

The Lord is therefore going to abandon them till the time when she who is to give birth gives birth.
Then the remnant of his brothers will come back to the sons of Israel.
He will stand and feed his flock with the power of the Lord,
with the majesty of the name of his God.
They will live secure, for from then on he will extend his power to the ends of the land. He himself will be peace.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 79:2-3. 15-16. 18-19. R. v.4

(R.) Lord, make us turn to you;
let us see your face and we shall be saved.

1. O Shepherd of Israel, hear us, shine forth from your cherubim throne.

O Lord, rouse up your might,
O Lord, come to our help. (R.)

2. God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted. (R.)

3. May your hand be on the man you have chosen, the man you have given your strength.
And we shall never forsake you again:
give us life that we may call upon your name. (R.)

Second Reading

Hebrews 10:5-10

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

I am coming to do your will.

This is what Christ said, on coming into the world: You who wanted no sacrifice or oblation, prepared a body for me. You took no pleasure in holocausts or sacrifices for sin; then I said, just as I was commanded in the scroll of the book,

‘God, here I am! I am coming to obey your will.’

Notice that he says first: You did not want what the Law lays down as the things to be offered, that is: the sacrifices, the oblations, the holocausts and the sacrifices for sin, and you took no pleasure in them; and then he says: Here I am! I am coming to obey your will. He is abolishing the first sort to replace it with the second. And this will was for us to be made holy by the offering of his body made once and for all by Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 1:38

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the servant of the Lord:
may his will for me be done.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 1:39-45

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Why should it happen that I am honoured with a visit from the mother of my Lord?

Mary set out and went as quickly as she could to a town in the hill country of Judah. She went into Zechariah's house and greeted Elizabeth. Now as soon as Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leapt in her womb and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. She gave a loud cry and said, 'Of all women you are the most blessed, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. Why should I be honoured with a visit from the mother of my Lord? For the moment your greeting reached my ears, the child in my womb leapt for joy. Yes, blessed is she who believed that the promise made her by the Lord would be fulfilled.'

Communion Antiphon.

Isaiah 7:14

Behold, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a son;
and his name will be called Emmanuel.

GOSPEL FOCUS

Blessed are you

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Elizabeth's greeting to Mary forms the second portion of the traditional prayer, the Hail Mary. The first portion of the prayer also comes from Luke's gospel and is the greeting of the angel Gabriel to Mary at the Annunciation. The final portion was framed by the Church. Use of the Hail Mary dates to about the 11th Century.

The gospel passages of the second and third weeks of Advent this year featured John the Baptist in his role of preparing the way for the coming of Jesus; the one who announces the arrival of the Christ. In this week's passage, which goes back to an earlier point in the gospel of Luke, we might say that the as yet unborn John is already recognising the presence of the Christ. When Mary goes to visit her cousin, Elizabeth, the child within Elizabeth's womb – John – leaps for joy. At the time of the Annunciation, when Mary was told by the angel Gabriel that she was to give birth to a child, Mary is also told that Elizabeth and Zechariah, although very old, were to also give birth to a child. Mary rushes to visit Elizabeth, not to make sure that the angel was telling her the truth but because the fact that Elizabeth was also pregnant was a sign of confirmation to Mary that she had indeed made the right decision. Elizabeth's unlikely pregnancy confirms for Mary the even greater truth of her own pregnancy. These two women, separated by age and distance, share a common experience of God acting in their lives to bring about unlikely events. The lives of their two children will be inextricably linked such that the one who leapt for joy in his mother's womb will eventually baptise the other and announce the arrival of his ministry to the people of Israel.

The joy expressed by Elizabeth and her child reflects the joy of all people of faith as we draw so close to the celebration of Christmas and the greatest expression of God's love – to enter into the world as one just like us and share our experience.

catholic mission

Reach out. Give life.

Catholic Mission thanks the parish of St Macartan's for your generous support of this year's World Mission Day Appeal. Through your contribution of $515.00, you have empowered Church workers across 1047 mission dioceses to share a message of hope and compassion with communities around the world.

Your partnership with Catholic Mission makes an incredible difference. Thanks to you, Cardinal Giorgio Marengo and Brother Andrew in Mongolia can continue delivering life-saving care, essential resources, and educational support. Your gift not only uplifts individuals but also strengthens global mission programs, reaching countless others who need our support.

Thank you for being a light of hope to those in need!

Dear parishioners,

With Christmas nearly here and 2024 nearly behind us, it's a nice time to reflect and count our blessings.

Yes, no matter what suffering or tragedies we have endured, or are still enduring this year, like storms they don't last forever. After the storm there is always a clear sky - a blessing.

It's always my pleasure and a blessing to serve this wonderful community of faith.

Without you, I'd be a lonely preacher, in an empty Church.

Even though I hold each and everyone of you as equal, all of you are valued parishioners and friends, there have been a few who have given an outstanding contribution this year:

- Jody Kerrins - Chairperson Parish Pastoral Council
 - Cherrie Azzopardi - Parish secretary
 - Frank Crea - Finance/PPC & Bus Ministry
- Alwyn Azzopardi - Gardener/caretaker/handyman etc
 - Trish & Graham Thomas - Piety store
 - Tim Lambourne - Child safeguarding/OH&S
- Didier Lemiere & James Barret - Audio Visual & Computers
 - Louise Kesik - 9am choir conductor
- Veronica Ryan 6pm choir and Mass visuals and words.
 - Carmen, Billie & Adriana - Organists
 - Clive Tucker - Sacristan and acolyte
- Chris, Ted & Paul - The Counting Team leaders.
 - Barry Murphy - SVDP
 - All Ministry leaders

I don't often single people out, but those above have been outstanding in their support & assistance to me this year. But there are dozens of others, and you know who you are, who I truly thank now.

A special thanks to our wonderful assistant Priest Fr An Le.

What a Godsend he has been.

Blessings to you all this Christmas season.

Pope: Faith is not the opium of the people, but encounter and service

To mark his 88th birthday, Pope Francis has released several excerpts from his autobiography "Hope," which will hit bookshelves in January, recounting his childhood in Buenos Aires and the logistical difficulties of his 2021 visit to Iraq.

By Isabella Piro

The "concentrate of humanity" experienced in Buenos Aires' slums, and the "arrow to the heart" experienced in Iraq in 2021, are central themes in Pope Francis' autobiography "Hope", written with Carlo Musso. Published by Mondadori, an Italian publisher, the book will be released on January 14 in over 100 countries.

On December 17—the Pope's 88th birthday—two Italian newspapers "La Repubblica" and "Il Corriere della Sera" published a few excerpts.

Childhood in the Flores barrio

"When someone tells me I am a villero Pope, I pray to be worthy of it," says Pope Francis, as he recalls the "complex, multiethnic, multireligious, and multicultural microcosm" of the Flores barrio in Buenos Aires, where he spent his childhood. "Differences were normal, and we respected each other," he says, pointing to his relationships with Catholic, Jewish, and Muslim friends.

The "contemporary Magdalenes"

Pope Francis tells of his childhood experiences of seeing prostitutes on the streets of Buenos Aires, calling it an image of the "darkest and most difficult side of existence." As a bishop, he celebrated Mass for some of these women who had reformed their lives. He recalls one woman, named Porota, telling him, "I've worked as a prostitute everywhere—even in the United States. I earned money, then fell in love with an older man who was my lover. When he died, I changed my life. I have a pension now, and I go to bathe elderly people in nursing homes who have no one to care for them. I don't go to Mass much, and I did everything with my body, but now I want to care for the bodies no one else is interested in." Pope Francis calls her a "contemporary Magdalene." Porota called him one last time, from the hospital, just before dying, to receive the Anointing of the Sick and Communion. "She died well — like 'the tax collectors and prostitutes' who 'precede us in the kingdom of God' (Mt 21:31). I loved her dearly. Even now, I never forget to pray for her on the day of her death," he writes.

Friendship with "Father Pepe"

The Pope recalls the prisoners who made clothing brushes, and recounts his friendship with Father José de Paola, known as "Father Pepe", pastor at Virgen de Caacupé in Villa 21. The Pope, then Jorge Mario Bergoglio, supported Father Pepe through a vocational crisis. Speaking about those liminal areas where "the State was absent for forty years" and drug addiction is "a scourge that multiplies despair," the Pope affirms that "in these peripheries, which the Church must increasingly make its center, a group of lay people and priests like Father Pepe live and witness the Gospel every day, among those discarded by a killing economy."

Religion is not the opium of the people; faith is an encounter

From these harsh realities emerges the truth that religion, as some claim, "is not the opium of the people, a comforting story to alienate individuals," the Pope insists. On the contrary, he says, "It is thanks to faith and that pastoral and civil commitment" that the villas "have progressed in unimaginable ways, despite enormous difficulties." Just like faith, "every service is an encounter, and we especially can learn much from the poor."

Jubilee 2025

For locals wanting to participate in next year's Jubilee and unable to travel to Rome, we have good news. In anticipation of the official opening of Jubilee 2025: Pilgrims of Hope, the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne has revealed the 13 churches and shrines within the Archdiocese that will be designated Pilgrim Places for the purposes of the 2025 Jubilee, with the majestic St Patrick's Cathedral serving as the principal Pilgrim Place.

While there won't be Holy Doors through which to walk—those are reserved for specific places in Rome and the Vatican—pilgrims will be eligible to receive Jubilee indulgences by visiting a designated Pilgrim Place within the Archdiocese.

This will be the primary way in which the 2025 Jubilee will be observed locally across the Archdiocese of Melbourne, and Catholics across the Archdiocese, as well as further afield, are encouraged to visit and pray at one or more of the local Pilgrim Places during the Jubilee year.

The designated pilgrim places are:

St Patrick's Cathedral, East Melbourne

St Mary Star of the Sea (Archdiocese Shrine of the Holy Family), West Melbourne

St Mary MacKillop, Keilor Downs

St Luke's, Lalor

St Mary Magdalene's, Trentham

Polish Marian Shrine, Aberfeldie/Essendon

St Dominic's, Camberwell East

St Francis Xavier, Mansfield

Sacred Heart, Croydon

Divine Mercy Shrine, Keysborough

Our Lady of Lavang, Keysborough

St Patrick's, Mentone

St Macartan's, Mornington

Details of opening times and offerings at each Pilgrim Place will be announced early in the new year.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation
of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee
reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen.

Francis

Jokes of the Week

- 1) A beautiful diamond ring for Christmas: A guy bought his wife a beautiful diamond ring for Christmas. A friend of his said, "I thought she wanted one of those sporty 4-Wheel drive vehicles." "She did," he replied. "But where in the heck was I gonna find a fake Jeep?"
- 2) "Your mother and I are getting a divorce": An elderly man in Oklahoma calls his son in New York and says, "I hate to ruin your day son, but I have to tell you that your mother and I are getting a divorce; 45 years of marriage... and that much misery is enough!" "Dad, what are you talking about?" the son yells. "We can't stand the sight of each other any longer," the old dad explained. "We're sick of each other, and I'm sick of talking about this, so you call your sister in Hong Kong and tell her!" Frantic, the son calls his sister, who explodes on the phone. "Like heck they're getting divorced," she shouts, "I'll take care of this." She calls her elderly father immediately, and screams at him, "You are not getting divorced. Don't do a single thing until I get there. I'm calling my brother back, and we'll both be there tomorrow. Until then, don't do a thing, you hear me?" she yelled as she hung up the phone. The old man hangs up his phone and turns to his wife. "Okay", he says, "it's all set. They're both coming for Christmas and paying their own air-fare."

Statement from the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne

The Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne utterly condemns the appalling attack on the Adass Israel Synagogue in Melbourne.

Hello, my greetings to you. I've just arrived in Rome to the terrible, terrible news of the fire-bombing of the Adass Israel Synagogue in Melbourne.

I'm horrified by what has happened. This is truly an evil act, a wicked, wicked act by those who have perpetrated it. They have acted with enormous harm in so many different ways.

My prayers and my utter support is for the Jewish community in Melbourne and elsewhere at this moment. Know of my prayers for you. Know of my support for you. And that I utterly condemn what has occurred, and I also strongly condemn those who have perpetrated this, or any who might in some way think this is justified. It is not.

To my brothers and sisters in the Jewish community in Melbourne, know of my prayer for you. Know of my support for you, and know that I will reach out in whatever way I can to contend with this evil of antisemitism that is at play in our society at the moment.

Most Rev Peter A Comensoli

Archbishop of Melbourne.
