Flower arranging Volunteers for parish churches

Are you able to assist in flower arranging or at least willing to learn about this parish ministry?

Flowers enhance the beauty of the church and our experience of mass.
Parishioners are asked to pickup flowers from the wholesaler (Footscray) and potentially use flowers from the parish properties or from parishioners who are willing to donate flowers from their gardens and arrange the flowers for either of our two churches.

This ministry is best done in pairs, so if you have another person who you would like to work with, or we can pair you up.
Usually the flowers are done on the Saturday but can be Fridays as well.
If we have enough people then you may only have to do this once a month.

A flower arranging masterclass will be organised in the coming weeks.
If anyone is interested, contact the Parish Office via phone or email

ANZAC day Saturday 25th April

In preparation for Anzac day, remembering through Love & Prayer

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning
We will remember them.

ANZAC PRAYER

God of love, we bring our thanks this day, remembering the ANZACs courage and devotion and those who gave their lives in time of war.
We pray that their labour and sacrifice may not be in vain, but that their spirit may live on in us and in generations to come.
This we pray in the name
of the one who gave his life
for the sake of the world,
Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Good Shepherd Sunday - World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Next Sunday the 26th April

We celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday - the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.
During this coming week, you may like to pray each day for more vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Perhaps there is a young person you may know to pray for by name this week or carry them with you 'spiritually' to Mass on Sundays and place them on the altar at the offertory.

Sometimes the Lord uses us as his instruments to encourage vocations.

I invite everyone - in families, parishes and religious communities, as well as bishops, priests, deacons, catechists, educators and all the faithful - to commit themselves more fully to creating conditions that allow this gift to be embraced, nourished, protected and accompanied, so that it may bear abundant fruit.

Only when our surroundings are illumined by living faith, sustained by constant prayer and enriched by fraternal accompaniment can God's call blossom and mature, becoming a path of happiness and salvation for individuals and for the world.

By embarking on the path that Jesus, the Good Shepherd, shows us, we come to know more deeply both ourselves and the God who calls us.

Excerpt from Pope Leo XIV message

We ourselves have known and put our faith in God's love toward ourselves. God is love ... 'I John 4:16

*'Jesus Christ loves you;
he gave his life to save you; and now he is living at your side every day to enlighten, strengthen and free you.' - Pope Francis*
