First Reading

2 Kings 5:14-17

A reading from the second book of the Kings

Naaman returned to Elisha, the prophet, and acknowledged the Lord.

Naaman the leper went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child.

Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. 'Now I know' he said, 'that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant.' But Elisha replied, 'As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing.' Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, 'Since your answer is "No," allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any god except the Lord.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 97:1-4. R. see v.2

(R.) The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

1. Sing a new song to the Lord
for he has worked wonders.
His right hand and his holy arm
have brought salvation. (R.)
2. The Lord has made known his salvation;
has shown his justice to the nations.
He has remembered his truth and love
for the house of Israel. (R.)
3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
Shout to the Lord all the earth,
ring out your joy. (R.)

Second Reading

2 Timothy 2:8-13

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

If we hold firm, we shall reign with Christ.

Remember the Good News that I carry. 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal – but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it.

Here is a saying that you can rely on:

If we have died with him, then we shall live with him.

If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him.

If we disown him, then he will disown us.

We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful,
for he cannot disown his own self.

Gospel Acclamation

1 Thessalonians 5:18

Alleluia, alleluia!

For all things give thanks to God,
because this is what he expects of you in Christ Jesus.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

It seems that no one has returned to give thanks to God except this foreigner.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

Communion Antiphon

Cf Psalm 33:11

The rich suffer want and go hungry,
but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.
for we shall see him as he is.

Historical context

Leprosy

In ancient times, a wide variety of skin diseases were loosely labelled as 'leprosy'. Because of Jewish purity laws, people with skin diseases were automatically regarded as 'unclean' and were forced to live away from others. The assumption was that such disfigurement must be a punishment from God for sinful behaviour. When Jesus encounters the men they are outside the town and keep the required distance from Jesus. He tells them to go and show themselves to the priest, whose authority was relied upon to declare a person healed and fit to return to society after extensive ritual purification.

Gospel reflection

Today's gospel is one of the stories unique to the gospel of Luke. At the same time, it is a commonly known story that is often cited to demonstrate the value of saying thank you. However, as usual, there's more to this story than initially meets the eye. One of the recurrent themes of the gospel is at play here: the message of salvation that Jesus brings is available to all, not just the Jews. The first reading is an interesting link with the gospel of Luke. In chapter 4 of the gospel, when Jesus visits Nazareth and preaches in the synagogue, he later tells a story about the prophets Elijah and Elisha responding to the needs of Gentiles rather than Jews. He tells the story to make the point that the message of salvation is not reserved exclusively for the Jews. The incident involving Elisha that Jesus refers to in chapter 4 is the one we hear in today's first reading. Whilst both the first reading and the gospel tell stories about the healing of those with skin diseases, the common factor is actually about their expressions of gratitude and conversion of heart. In the gospel, all ten men are healed but it is only the stranger; the foreigner; the Samaritan, who comes back to give thanks and to praise God. The others – Jewish men, presumably – are only concerned about themselves and have no time to acknowledge the graciousness of God that they have experienced. The gospel writer has Jesus emphasise the point that it is the Samaritan – the outsider – who has recognised God's activity in his cure and come back to give praise and thanks. It is only he who has experienced the change of heart; the conversion of faith.

Have you thought? – On the Borders

When Jesus encounters the ten men, he is travelling along the border between Galilee and Samaria. The level of distrust between the Jews of Galilee and the Samaritans were deep and abiding. The land that fell between the two countries was sparsely populated and mostly barren. That Jesus should encounter the men in this environment is not surprising for these men literally and metaphorically were at the border of society. Not welcome in any town, the men roamed the very edges of society. They lived their whole lives on the borderline – welcome nowhere and belonging nowhere.

Gospel Focus – Where are they?

'The other nine, where are they?' asked Jesus. Why would the other nine not have come back to give thanks? It is insufficient to say that the miraculous healing these men experienced changed their lives. Being healed of this disease meant so much to them: they could return to their families; they could return to work; they could touch another person; they could walk among other people; they could join in prayer at the synagogue. They must have been overwhelmed by the possibilities but they neglected to acknowledge the source of their great joy!

Pope praises Swiss Guards' discipline, courage, and faith

At the swearing-in ceremony, 27 new Swiss guard recruits take an oath to protect the Pope. By Antonella Palermo

For the swearing-in of 27 new Swiss Guard recruits, the Vatican's San Damaso Courtyard was decorated festively with the flags of each of the Swiss Cantons. It was a special occasion because of the participation of the Pope—something that hadn't happened since the time of Paul VI.

The Swiss President, as well as Prelates, clergy, and civil and military officials, and family, friends, benefactors, and former guards, were all present at what is a particularly significant moment in a Swiss Guard's career.

Discipline, sacrifice, and faith

"We are proud of you," the Swiss guard chaplain said, "and grateful that you have responded to the call to this honorable service, which you now swear to carry out conscientiously and faithfully." He then recited the oath:

"I swear to serve faithfully, loyally, and honorably the Supreme Pontiff Leo XIV and his legitimate successors, and to dedicate myself to them with all my strength, even sacrificing my life if necessary for their defense. I also assume these obligations toward the College of Cardinals during the time of a vacant See. I furthermore promise respect, loyalty, and obedience to the Commander and my other superiors. I swear it. So help me God and our Holy Patrons."

The Vatican and Swiss anthems were played. One by one, called by the sergeant major, the recruits approached the flag of the Corps, grasping it, and pronouncing the oath.

The ceremony lasted just over an hour and concluded with a short concert performed by the Swiss Guard band. It was then sealed with words of thanks from the Pope, who expressed his gratitude "above all, to God for the gift of life and faith." Calling the event "beautiful", the Pope greeted those present: the cardinals, archbishops, bishops, the president of the Swiss Confederation, and the families of the Swiss Guards "who today have made this oath in a very special way." He added: "To all of you who have made this oath: it is a very important witness in today's world. It shows us the value of discipline, of sacrifice, of living the faith in a way that truly speaks to young people—about the value of giving one's life, of serving, and thinking of others. I thank you in my name and on behalf of the entire Holy See for your service."

Are you or a friend thinking of becoming a Catholic?

Where do you begin?

Adults entering the Catholic Church or just thinking about it, follow a process called RCIA the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the normal way in which adults become full active, participating members of the Catholic Church.

The goal of the process is full communion which means "full active participation" in the Eucharist and in the whole life of the Catholic faith community.

RCIA helps adults to grow in their relationship with God, become familiar with Catholic teachings and practices, get acquainted with people in the community and get involved in service within the community.

Many persons who want to join the Catholic Church have already been baptised in another Christian Church. They must attend the sessions but do not need to be baptised again.

INFORMATION NIGHT: Wednesday 22nd October 7pm (Hall 10 Drake St)

Sue Renner discusses her trip to the Holy Land.

Sunday the 19th of October, at 1PM in the parish hall.

All Welcome

A Walk in the Footsteps of Jesus

Sue writes.....In November 2022 I went on pilgrimage to the Holy Land: we visited Bethlehem and Ain Karem, and we literally walked in Jesus' footsteps in Nazareth, beside the River Jordan and the Sea of Galilee and along the Via Dolorosa to Calvary, ending one visit offering Mass inside the Edicule – with a chance to step behind the altar and pray for a moment inside the Empty Tomb. This experience has profoundly changed the way I pray the Mysteries of the Rosary and the way I read the New Testament.

In the light of current events, I feel blessed to have visited the Holy Land when I did, and I feel moved to share some images and experiences .

For some years, the “Lifeboat Foundation” has been assisting victims of church-related sexual abuse with basic living costs, counselling, vehicle expenses – and just simply listening, believing and caring. The Foundation has been greatly assisted by donations of unwanted cars e.g. from deceased states, or people relinquishing licence etc., either to give to victims who need them, or selling them to raise funds.

You could help this important work (a) by identifying people who might donate an unwanted motor vehicle, and (b) identifying someone to assist in the administration of Lifeboat’s “Car Donation Project” e.g. speaking to potential donors of vehicles – it’s not complicated nor over-demanding of time.

If you can assist or would like more information about the “Lifeboat Foundation” and/or the “Car Donation Project”, contact Fr. Kevin Dillon – frkdillon@outlook.com.au or 0421 777 360.

ST MACARTAN’S GIFT SHOP

Hello to all our Friends at St Mac’s and any visitors that may be joining us this weekend

It has been a while since the Gift Shop had a notice in the bulletin, so I thought I would update you on what has been going on.

We have been so blessed to have had so many Pilgrims visit our Church. They all have their own agenda - some arrive with their own Priest, they may have lunch in the hall, some have Mass, maybe Adoration, Reconciliation or Prayers and singing. During their time at St Macs they are in and out of the Gift Shop taking every opportunity to visit and make a purchase or two or three. The most popular items are definitely the Sterling Silver Medals, Jerusalem Crosses and the wooden plaques. They are such beautiful people, very sincere and very friendly. Our stock has changed considerably. We have a great variety of gifts for Baptisms, Holy Communion and Confirmation, the best yet. We also have a great range of sterling silver medals but these sell so quickly we just can’t get enough stock. There are goods on display outside the Gift Shop so come into the Church through the foyer and have a browse. To cover the Pilgrim Groups booked in before the end of the Jubilee Year, The Year of Hope, our Christmas Fair and Christmas itself, we have more stock arriving in 2-3 weeks including all the Christmas stock. We are so excited for what’s ahead before the end of the year.

If you haven’t visited the Gift Shop in the last few months, please call in and have a look around, there is plenty to see and gifts for all occasions.

Take care and God bless you all for your continued support.

The Gift Shops Guys

Jokes of the Week

1) "The pigs don't." The story is told of a farmer who went into town for a little breakfast. As his meal was set before him, he bowed his head and offered a silent prayer. The man at the next table derided him, "Hey, does everybody do that where you come from?" "No," said the farmer. "The pigs don't."

2) Thanks to the guide: A man was lost in the woods. Later, in describing the experience, he told how frightened he was and how he had even finally knelt and prayed. Someone asked, "Did God answer your prayer?" "Oh, no," the man replied. "Before God had a chance, a guide came along and showed me the way out."

3) None died: Two old friends met each other on the street one day. One looked forlorn, almost on the verge of tears. His friend asked, "What has the world done to you, my old friend?" The sad fellow said, "Let me tell you: three weeks ago, my uncle died and left me forty thousand dollars." "That's a lot of money." "But you see, two weeks ago, a cousin I never even knew died, and left me eighty-five thousand dollars, free and clear." "Sounds to me that you've been very blessed." "You don't understand!" the sad one interrupted. "Last week my great-aunt passed away. I inherited almost a quarter of a million from her." — Now the man's friend was really confused. "Then, why do you look so glum?" "This week . . . no relative died!"

THANK YOU

St Macartan's has been blessed to have over 500 pilgrims visit us in various size groups, of all different nationalities and at all times on Saturdays and Sundays.
