First Reading

Isaiah 7:10-14

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The virgin will conceive.

The Lord spoke to Ahaz and said, 'Ask the Lord your God for a sign for yourself coming either from the depths of Sheol or from the heights above.' 'No', Ahaz answered 'I will not put the Lord to the test.'

Then Isaiah said:

'Listen now, House of David:
are you not satisfied with trying the patience of men
without trying the patience of my God, too?

The Lord himself, therefore,
will give you a sign.

It is this: the maiden is with child
and will soon give birth to a son
whom she will call Immanuel,
a name which means "God-is-with-us".'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 23:1-6. R. see vv 7. 10

(R.) Let the Lord enter;
he is king of glory.

1. The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. (R.)
2. Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. (R.)
3. He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. (R.)

Second Reading

Romans 1:1-7

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

From Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus who has been called to be an apostle, and specially chosen to preach the Good News that God promised long ago through his prophets in the scriptures.

This news is about the Son of God, who, according to the human nature he took, was a descendant of David: it is about Jesus Christ our Lord who, in the order of the spirit, the spirit of holiness that was in him, was proclaimed Son of God in all his power through his resurrection from the dead. Through him we received grace and our apostolic mission to preach the obedience of faith to all pagan nations in honour of his name. You are one of these nations, and by his call belong to Jesus Christ. To you all, then, who are God's beloved in Rome, called to be saints, may God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send grace and peace.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 1:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

A virgin will give birth to a son;
his name will be Emmanuel: God is with us.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 1:18-24

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

This is how Jesus Christ came to be born. His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph; but before they came to live together she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a man of honour and wanting to spare her publicity, decided to divorce her informally. He had made up his mind to do this when the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, 'Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because she has conceived what is in her by the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son and you must name him Jesus, because he is the one who is to save his people from their sins.' Now all this took place to fulfil the words spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son and they will call him Emmanuel,

a name which means 'God-is-with-us'. When Joseph woke up he did what the angel of the Lord had told him to do: he took his wife to his home.

Communion Antiphon

Isaiah 7:14

Behold, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a son;
and his name will be called Emmanuel.

Living the gospel

Advent

Emmanuel; God-is-with-us – that's what we celebrate through Christmas and that's what we've been preparing for during Advent. We celebrate God-with-us in a particular time and place through our celebration of the birth of Jesus. But we remember it every year because we also use the Christmas celebration to remind ourselves that God continues to be with us. That is what is so remarkable about the Christmas season: that God-is-with-us now, not just in a stable in Palestine so many years ago, but now! Advent is the time to remind ourselves of this incredible truth and prepare ourselves to acknowledge it once again.

Gospel reflection

We will see throughout the coming liturgical year that the gospel of Matthew places a great deal of emphasis on the importance of the Law and upon its proper application. Indeed, the gospel writer casts Jesus in the role of the 'new Moses' – Moses was the great Law-giver of the Old Testament and Jesus is portrayed in this gospel as bringing a new Law to the people of Israel. In this gospel, the proper application of the Law is as important as the Law itself. In today's passage, Joseph provides an example of the proper application of the Law. His betrothed wife was pregnant; she would have been subject to the Law against adultery and probably would have been stoned to death. Under the Law, Joseph was obliged to divorce her, and yet he determines that he will do so quietly and protect

Mary from too much shame and possibly save her life. Joseph did not intend to ignore the Law, but he sought to carry it out in such a way as to bring the least shame and the least hurt to all involved. The role of Joseph is often overlooked. There is no mention of him during the public ministry of Jesus. In fact the latest mention in any of the gospels is the account of Jesus in the Temple at the age of 12. After that, Joseph disappears and we can only assume that he has passed away by the time Jesus takes up his ministry. Yet Joseph is truly a man of great faith. By rights he should have divorced Mary and walked away. But he trusts in the word of the God that is addressed to him in a dream and from that point on he goes to great lengths to protect and care for his family.

Scriptural context

Today's first reading is from the prophet Isaiah and contains the prophecy that is quoted in the gospel passage. The book of Isaiah was written at a time when the people of Israel were under threat and had once again fallen away from their covenant with God. Isaiah's prophecy is one of the 'Messiah' prophecies but despite the future-focus is a promise to the people of the time that God-is-with-us. The promise is that God-is-with-us now, despite the conditions we find ourselves in, and God-will-be-with-us in the future when God's Messiah is born of a young woman.

Gospel Focus – What's in a name?

It appears from the passage that Mary's child is to be called both Jesus and Emmanuel. Emmanuel is not intended as a different name for Jesus but rather one of the many titles that will be applied to him. The title means God-is-with-us. That one word, Emmanuel, sums up the essence of Jewish and Christian belief. The Jewish people's faith in God was built on the basis that God travelled with them and through their lives. Christians believe that God took on an even closer sense of being with us through God's incarnation in the life of Jesus.

VATICAN NEWS

Pope: remembers victims of Sydney attack: 'Enough with antisemitic violence!'

Speaking with the groups that donated this year's Vatican Christmas Tree and Nativity Scene, Pope Leo highlights God's closeness to humanity and calls for prayers for those who suffer on account of war and violence, especially the victims of Sunday's terror attack on the Jewish community in Sydney, Australia. By Christopher Wells

Nativity scenes and Christmas trees are "signs of faith and hope", Pope Leo said on Monday, inviting the faithful as they contemplate them to "ask the Lord to renew within us the gift of peace and fraternity". The Holy Father went on to ask for prayers for all those suffering due to war and violence, especially victims of the terrorist attack against the Jewish community in Sydney on Sunday, whom he entrusted to the Lord. "Enough with these forms of antisemitic violence!" Pope Leo said. "We must eliminate hatred from our hearts."

A mystery of humility and love

Pope Leo's remarks came during an encounter with representatives of the communities that donated the Christmas Tree and Nativity Scene for Saint Peter's Square, and the Nativity Scene set up in the Paul VI Hall, where Monday's audience took place. The Nativity Scene in St Peter's Square – from the Diocese of Nocera Inferiore-Sarno outside of Naples – will remind pilgrims from around the world "that God draws near to humanity, becomes one of us, enters into our history with the smallness of a child," the Pope said. He recalled that "in the poverty of the stable in Bethlehem, we contemplate a mystery of humility and love" that invites us to "rediscover ourselves and enter into communion with God."

A sign of life and hope

Greeting representatives of the "beautiful land" of Bolzano in northern Italy, who donated the 25-meter Norway spruce that stands next to the Creche in St Peter's Square, Pope Leo recalled that the Christmas tree "is a sign of life and evokes the hope that never fails, even in the cold of winter." At the same time, the lights on the tree symbolize Jesus Christ, "the light of the world, Who came to dispel the darkness of sin and illuminate our path." The Pope noted that other trees destined for use throughout the Vatican have come from the same region of South Tyrol.

An appeal to protect life from conception

Pope Leo went on to thank representatives of Costa Rica for the donation of the Nativity Scene for the Paul VI Hall, the creation of a Costa Rican artist entitled "Nacimiento Gaudium," the birth of joy. The scene is adorned with 28,000 ribbons, each representing a life saved from abortion thanks to the prayers and support of Catholic organizations offered to mothers in need. The Pope thanked the artist for adding to the Christmas message of peace an appeal for the protection of life from the moment of conception.

May the tenderness of the Christ Child illuminate our lives

Finally, Pope Leo expressed his gratitude to Vatican workers for their generous commitment in decorating the spaces in and around the Vatican for the Christmas seasons. Concluding his greetings, the Holy Father invited everyone "to allow the tenderness of Baby Jesus to illuminate our lives" and "to allow the love of God, like the branches of an evergreen tree, to remain vibrant within us."

Food for hungry families

Your generosity can help provide people facing hunger with healthy, nutritious food.

Please consider leaving non-perishable food in the foyers of both entrances this Christmas.

The wonderful team at Vinnies will ensure it is distributed to those most in need.

The Counting Team—2025

We extend our sincere thanks to the members of our Counting Team for their quiet, faithful service throughout the year. Their care, integrity, and commitment ensure that parish collections are handled accurately and responsibly, supporting the life and mission of our parish. This important work often happens behind the scenes, and we are deeply grateful for the time and trust they give so generously.

As we look to the new year, we warmly welcome any parishioners who may be willing to assist with this ministry. Volunteers are always appreciated, and training and support are provided.

We join with heavy hearts in mourning the innocent lives lost in the recent tragic violence at Bondi. As a Catholic community, we stand in solidarity with our Jewish brothers and sisters, and with all who are grieving and living in fear because of hatred and violence. Our faith calls us to be peacemakers, to reject antisemitism in all its forms, and to uphold the dignity of every human life. We pray for the families who mourn, for the Jewish community, and for the broader community affected by this senseless tragedy. May God grant comfort to the sorrowful, healing to the wounded, wisdom to our leaders, and peace to all hearts troubled by violence.

Community Centre Toilet Renewal – Fundraising Appeal

The toilets in our Community Centre are no longer fit for purpose. Some urgent works were completed some time ago to keep the facilities operational; however, they are now well past their useful life and no longer provide a safe, hygienic, or welcoming environment for those who use the Centre. As a parish that hosts many community groups, families, and visitors each week, it is important that these facilities meet appropriate standards of safety, cleanliness, and dignity. We are therefore seeking to fully refurbish the toilets to make them safe, hygienic, and aesthetically pleasing. To achieve this, we need the support of our parish community. Any contribution, large or small, will assist in bringing this important project to fruition and help ensure our Community Centre remains a welcoming space for all.

Thank You to Our Piety Store Volunteers

The parish extends its heartfelt thanks to Trish, Graham, and all our Piety Store volunteers for their tireless and generous service throughout the year. The countless hours spent ensuring the store is welcoming, well stocked, and running smoothly — particularly during this Pilgrim Year — have not gone unnoticed. Through their quiet dedication, they support not only the life of our parish but also the wider community of pilgrims and visitors who come through our doors. The parish and broader community truly owe them a deep debt of gratitude for their faith, care, and commitment

Thank You

We extend our heartfelt thanks to Kate McInnes as she finishes her time as our Encounter Youth Leader. Kate has given so much of herself to our young people through her joy, dedication, and gentle leadership, helping them grow in faith and friendship. As she now turns her focus to her studies, we offer her our prayers and very best wishes for the journey ahead. May God continue to bless her with wisdom, strength, and every grace she needs in this next chapter.

Hello all St Macartans Parishioners, Friends and Pilgrims

As you know we try to have a good variety of goods covering all the Sacraments and a selection of other products for other occasions, such as birthdays, friendship, or a gift simply to say I am thinking of you and of course Christmas which is only a couple of days away.

You now only have this weekend of 21st and 22nd, to buy a meaningful religious gift, hopefully that will make a difference to someone's life. You all understand how the younger generation need visual reminders of their Faith and what a perfect opportunity Christmas is, to include a simply gift that one day may make the difference. We are the generation that has to pass our Faith on to our kids and their kids, our grandchildren. Please don't miss Christmas as the perfect opportunity to do so.

A few simple suggestions:

1. A colour wall cross
2. One of our Spiritual Books, which is the best gift you could give a friend or relative – the verses in these books are uplifting and they draw you back to Prayer and make you think about your Faith.
3. A simple prayer book for the kids with the Prayers we say continually – they also explain the meaning of the prayer.
4. A wooden medal with endless love, to give to anyone you believes needs it.
5. For the younger kids a Christmas story book or an activity book, again just bringing the meaning of Christmas into their lives.
6. For a young family who haven't a Nativity Crib – a gift they will have always. There are a couple of nativities to choose from plus children's Nativities.

Due to the Pilgrim visits, the Fair and for Christmas Shopping we made sure we had enough stock to cover it all, so we do have a great range and a very full Gift Shop. We ask you to consider the Gift Shop when you are looking for those special gifts. There is a Christmas table set up with all Christmas stock at one, another table with gifts for those special people in your life. There is also a great variety inside the shop.

NEWSFLASH >>>>>>>>>

We have now marked down all Nativity Cribs so you can enjoy them over Christmas. What a great gifting idea to your Grandchildren, a Children's Nativity, they will have it for years to come. All Christmas stock is on one table. The original price is on the item along with the sale price – great savings. If something isn't reduced and it Christmas stock, please ask.

From Graham, Trish, Ann, Rosemarie, Marie and Esme we do thank you for your continued support throughout the year and wish you all a peaceful and blessed Christmas.

Jokes of the Week

Jesuit Joke: A Jesuit, a Dominican and a Franciscan were walking along an old road, debating the greatness of their orders. Suddenly, a vision of the Holy Family appeared in front of them, with Jesus in a manger and Mary and Joseph praying over him. The Franciscan fell on his face, overcome with awe at the sight of God born in such poverty. The Dominican fell to his knees, adoring the beautiful reflection of the Trinity and the Holy Family. The Jesuit walked up to Joseph, put his arm around his shoulder, and said, "So, where ya thinking of sending the kid for school?"

True story

The nativity play was going as planned and Joseph and Mary were going from house to house knocking on the doors and asking if there was any room for them. As they continued to get "no room" answers a little voice called from the back "YOU SHOULD HAVE BOOKED!" bringing the house down.

Didn't You Get My E-Mail?

As a little girl climbed onto Santa's lap, Santa asked the usual, "And what would you like for Christmas?"

The child stared at him open mouthed and horrified for a minute, then gasped: "Didn't you get my E-mail?"
