First Reading

Isaiah 8:23 – 9:3

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

In the Galilean country, the people have seen a great light.

In days past the Lord humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in days to come he will confer glory on the Way of the Sea on the far side of Jordan, province of the nations.

The people that walked in darkness has seen a great light;
on those who live in a land of deep shadow a light has shone.
You have made their gladness greater, you have made their joy increase,
they rejoice in your presence as men rejoice at harvest time,
as men are happy when they are dividing the spoils.

For the yoke that was weighing on him, the bar across his shoulders, the rod of his oppressor, these you break as on the day of Midian.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 26:1. 4. 13-14. R. v.1

(R.) The Lord is my light and my salvation.

1. The Lord is my light and my help;
whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life;
Before whom shall I shrink? (R.)

2. There is one thing I ask of the Lord,
for this I long,
to live in the house of the Lord,
all the days of my life,
to savour the sweetness of the Lord,
to behold his temple. (R.)

3. I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living.
Hope in him, hold firm and take heart.
Hope in the Lord! (R.)

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

I appeal to you, my brothers and sisters, make up the differences between you.

I appeal to you, brothers, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, to make up the differences between you, and instead of disagreeing among yourselves, to be united again in your belief and practice. From what Chloe's people have been telling me, my dear brothers, it is clear that there are serious differences among you. CONT...

CONT... What I mean are all these slogans that you have, like: 'I am for Paul', 'I am for Apollos', 'I am for Cephas', 'I am for Christ'. Has Christ been parceled out? Was it Paul that was crucified for you? Were you baptised in the name of Paul? For Christ did not send me to baptise, but to preach the Good News, and not to preach that in the terms of philosophy in which the crucifixion of Christ cannot be expressed.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 4:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom and healed all who were sick.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 4:12-23

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

He went to Capernaum, that the prophecy of Isaiah be fulfilled.

Hearing that John had been arrested Jesus went back to Galilee, and leaving Nazareth he went and settled in Capernaum, a lakeside town on the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali. In this way the prophecy of Isaiah was to be fulfilled:

Land of Zebulun! Land of Naphtali!

Way of the sea on the far side of Jordan, Galilee of the nations!

The people that lived in darkness has seen a great light;

on those who dwell in the land and shadow of death a light has dawned.

From that moment Jesus began his preaching with the message, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon, who was called Peter, and his brother Andrew; they were making a cast in the lake with their net, for they were fishermen. And he said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.' And they left their nets at once and followed him.

Going on from there he saw another pair of brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John; they were in their boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. At once, leaving the boat and their father, they followed him.

He went round the whole of Galilee teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom and curing all kinds of diseases and sickness among the people

Communion Antiphon

Cf Psalm 33:6

Look toward the Lord and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.

from the perspective

the first called

What must it have been like for those first four disciples Jesus called? The fact that they were fishing means that they had not been chosen to continue studying the Torah beyond childhood and had not been chosen by a rabbi to be his followers. Even as young men, these four were has-beens and had no hope of a rabbi asking them to be his disciples. Suddenly, Jesus appears and calls them to follow him. A life that had passed them by suddenly opened up before them! Of course they dropped everything and followed.

Gospel reflection

In today's gospel passage we see the importance that the gospel of Matthew gives to portraying Jesus as the fulfilment of scripture. Throughout this gospel, the author is at pains to demonstrate that Jesus fulfils prophecy. The purpose in doing this was not only to tie Jesus into the prophecies of the Messiah but to demonstrate that Jesus was part of God's plan all along. This gospel was written at a time when there were growing tensions between early Christian communities and mainstream Jews. By highlighting the fulfilment of scripture, the author attempts to firstly reassure the Christian community in the face of aggression and resentment from the mainstream Jews and secondly, challenge those who oppose the Christian sect to see this movement as just another thread in the ancient story of their people. Having established the credentials of Jesus, the gospel writer then provides a summary of the teaching that will be played out in the gospel, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' Repent had a far more powerful meaning than what we tend to ascribe to it today. Much more than simply being sorry, repent carried with it a sense of turning one's life around; making amends for past failures; and choosing a whole new direction for one's life. Literally, it meant a 'change of mind'. To demonstrate the urgency and strength of this teaching, Jesus calls his first four disciples who immediately drop what they are doing and set out on a new life with him. These disciples are the first of many to 'repent' and turn their lives around.

Historical Context – Repent

Throughout the Old Testament, the people of Israel repeated a cycle of behaviour. When their relationship with God was strong, they upheld the covenant and they prospered. They would forget that their prosperity lay in being in right relationship with one another and with God and so they would neglect those relationships. They would turn so far away that some tragedy or oppression would befall them. Out of their despair they would recognise their need for God and they would 'repent' and re-establish their relationship with God. Jesus' call to repent is a call to looking at the relationship with God in a whole new way.

Have you thought? People in darkness

The passage from Isaiah that is quoted in the gospel, speaks of the people who dwell in darkness. The passage is addressed to the Jewish tribes of Zebulun and Naphtali – two of the twelve tribes. These two tribes lived in the northernmost part of Palestine and their lands were surrounded by Gentiles. Any non-Jew was regarded as living in darkness because they did not have the light of 'truth', but these two tribes also dwelt in darkness because they were surrounded by it. Regardless, the passage asserts that all who dwell in darkness (Gentile and Jew alike) will receive a great light.

VATICAN NEWS

Pope: Amid war and loss of respect for human dignity, let us pray for peace

Pope Leo XIV invites the faithful to pray for Christian unity and for peace, especially in our time marked by a lack of respect for human dignity and heightened international tensions. By Deborah Castellano Lubov

"Let us pray for peace at a moment in history that seems marked by a growing loss of respect for the value of human dignity and in which war has come back into fashion."

Pope Leo XIV made this appeal during his General Audience in the Vatican's Paul VI Hall on Wednesday.

Greeting Portuguese-speaking faithful after delivering his catechesis, the Pope prayed, "May the humanity of Jesus, who reveals the Father, help us to find paths of justice and reconciliation."

He invited the faithful to pray for unity among Christians and for peace throughout the world, especially during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, taking place on January 18–25.

Recalling that Jesus prayed for the unity of His disciples before His Passion, the Pope urged German-speaking pilgrims, "During this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, let us pray with Him that all His disciples may find unity, so that the world may believe in Him and in His revelation."

Referring to the Week's theme this year—"There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling" (Eph 4:4)—the Holy Father encouraged Christians to implore the Lord "to bestow the gift of His Spirit upon all the Churches spread throughout the world, so that, through this gift, Christians may overcome division and form strong bonds of unity."

Earlier this week, during his Sunday Angelus, Pope Leo invited Catholic communities worldwide "to intensify their prayer during these days for the full, visible unity of all Christians."

As is customary on the Solemnity of the Conversion of Saint Paul, Pope Leo XIV will preside at the celebration of Vespers at 5:30 p.m. in the Basilica of Saint Paul Outside the Walls.

I'm Back!

Yes, after 12 days away, I can honestly say it's great to be home.

I would first like to thank Tim Lambourne, our Parish Coordinator, who I trusted with the keys to everything and responsibility to manage the Parish while I was away.

It truly was a great relief for me to be able to go away and know all would remain in control with Tim here, ably supported by Jody, Frank and others.

I also want to thank Fr Kevin Burke who filled in and I hope you all enjoyed his visit.

I called Kevin the evening I returned and he couldn't stop complimenting this Parish and to paraphrase him, he said: Geoff - I must say I've never enjoyed a supply parish more than St Macartan's. You have set a high bar and I supply for many different Parishes.

From Tim's helpfulness, to the sacristans assistance, and the friendliness of everyone, you clearly have a dynamic parish community and they all impressed me with their welcome and pastoral zeal. Please invite me back!

So well done to you all.

You may be wondering where I went?

I took my Mum on a cruise - Crown Princess. From Brisbane, to Cairns, Townsville, Port Douglas, around Willis Island and back to Brisbane. Eight nights with two nights in Brisbane before we sailed. I must say the tropics certainly lived up to their name. The humidity was difficult at times, but what beautiful places and I was most impressed with. Brisbane, a lovely city.

The highlight for me though, was just spending some time on the ship with my Mum and both of us being spoilt rotten - and loving it.

But I am truly glad to be home, and I appreciate our community here even more.

Fr Geoff

Youth Worker Opportunity at St Macartan's

St Macartan's Parish is seeking a casual Youth Worker to help nurture, support, and engage the young people of our parish in a safe, welcoming, and faith-centred environment. This role is focused on building meaningful relationships with youth, encouraging friendships, parish connection, and helping young people explore and live their faith in ways that are relevant to their lives. The Youth Worker will support junior and senior youth groups, create opportunities for social and spiritual growth, and provide a safe "hang-out" space where young people feel valued, included, and supported.

Working closely with parents, parish staff, and the Parish Priest, the Youth Worker will also help connect youth activities with parish life, including the Sunday 11am Youth Mass, and assist with events, communication, and safeguarding responsibilities. This is a deeply meaningful role within our community, ideal for someone with a passion for youth ministry, strong interpersonal skills, and a commitment to Catholic values. A Working With Children Check, Police Check, and driver's license are required. Applications close 23 January 2026.

Parish Safety Reminder

St Macartan's as well as being a faith community, is also a family, and as such, we do look out for one another and we care for each other. So we kindly remind all parishioners that any accidents or significant injuries occurring on parish grounds, should be reported to a member of parish staff or a volunteer as soon as possible. This helps us ensure proper immediate care is provided and we can look into what the cause was so we can continue to maintain a safe environment for everyone.

Please be assured that our parish has first aid-trained volunteers with a fully stocked first aid kit to assist in the event of an emergency. Also, there are parishioners who are nurses and doctors and we have defibrillator available.

Jokes of the Week

1) Teaching ministry: A pastor told his congregation, "Next week I plan to preach about the sin of lying. To help you understand my sermon, I want you all to read Mark 17." The following Sunday, as he prepared to deliver his sermon, the minister asked for a show of hands. He wanted to know how many had read Mark 17. Every hand went up. The minister smiled and said, "Mark has only 16 chapters. I will now proceed with my sermon on the sin of lying."

2) God's Chosen People absent in China? Two Jews Sid and Al were sitting in a Chinese restaurant. "Sid," asked Al, "Are there any Jews in China?" "I don't know," Sid replied. "Why don't we ask the waiter?" When the waiter came by, Al said, "Do you have any Chinese Jews?" "I don't know sir, let me ask," the waiter replied, and he went into the kitchen. He quickly returned and said, "No, sir. No Chinese Jews." "Are you sure?" Al asked. "I will check with our manager, sir." the waiter replied and went back to the kitchen. While he was still gone, Sid said, "I cannot believe there are no Jews in China. Our people are scattered everywhere." When the waiter returned, he said, "Sir, no Chinese Jews." "Are you really sure?" Al asked again. "I cannot believe you have no Chinese Jews." "Sir, I asked everyone," the waiter replied exasperated. "We have orange juice, prune juice, tomato juice and grape juice, but no one ever heard of Chinese juice!"

3) "Think about your face and cut the homily."

The story is told about a pastor that got up in the pulpit and apologized for the Band-Aid on his face. He said, "I was thinking about my homily while shaving and cut my face." Afterward the trustee found a note in the collection plate, "Next time, think about your face and cut the homily."
