First Reading

Baruch 5:1-9

A reading from the prophet Baruch

Jerusalem – God will show you splendour.

Jerusalem, take off your dress of sorrow and distress, put on the beauty of the glory of God for ever, wrap the cloak of the integrity of God around you, put the diadem of the glory of the Eternal on your head:

since God means to show your splendour to every nation under heaven, since the name God gives you for ever will be, 'Peace through integrity, and honour through devotedness'. Arise, Jerusalem, stand on the heights and turn your eyes to the east: see your sons reassembled from west and east at the command of the Holy One, jubilant that God has remembered them.

Though they left you on foot, with enemies for an escort, now God brings them back to you like royal princes carried back in glory. For God has decreed the flattening of each high mountain, of the everlasting hills, the filling of the valleys to make the ground level so that Israel can walk in safety under the glory of God.

And the forests and every fragrant tree will provide shade for Israel at the command of God; for God will guide Israel in joy by the light of his glory with his mercy and integrity for escort.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 125. R. v.3

(R.) The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

1. When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage, it seemed like a dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter, on our lips there were songs. (R.)

2. The heathens themselves said: 'What marvels the Lord worked for them!'

What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad. (R.)

3. Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage as streams in dry land.

Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap. (R.)

4. They go out, they go out, full of tears, carrying seed for the sowing: they come back, they come back, full of song, carrying their sheaves. (R.)

Second Reading

Philippians 1:3-6. 8-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

Show yourselves sinless and without blame in the day of Christ.

Every time I pray for all of you, I pray with joy, remembering how you have helped to spread the Good News from the day you first heard it right up to the present. I am quite certain that the One who began this good work in you will see that it is finished when the Day of Christ Jesus comes. God knows how much I miss you all, loving you as Christ Jesus loves you. My prayer is that your love for each other may increase more and more and never stop improving your knowledge and deepening your perception so that you can always recognise what is best. This will help you to become pure and blameless, and prepare you for the Day of Christ, when you will reach the perfect goodness which Jesus Christ produces in us for the glory and praise of God

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 3:4. 6

Alleluia, alleluia!

Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths:
all people shall see the salvation of God.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 3:1-6

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

All people shall see the salvation of God.

In the fifteenth year of Tiberius Caesar's reign, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judaea, Herod tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of the lands of Ituraea and Trachonitis, Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, during the pontificate of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. He went through the whole Jordan district proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the sayings of the prophet Isaiah:

A voice cries in the wilderness; Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight. Every valley will be filled in, every mountain and hill be laid low, winding ways will be straightened and rough roads made smooth.
And all mankind shall see the salvation of God.

Communion Antiphon.

Baruch 5:5; 4:36

Jerusalem, arise and stand upon the heights,
and behold the joy which comes to you from God.

LIVING the gospel

Make way!

Today's gospel is a reminder to us that Advent is a season of preparation. In this case, the preparation is all about making way for the love of God in our lives. The love of God surrounds us all the time. It's like a rapidly flowing stream and sometimes we have placed boulders in the stream that send the water flowing around us. The call to make a way for the Lord is a call to clear the rocks out of the stream; to remove the obstacles that are directing the love of God around us and allow it instead to flow directly through us.

Gospel Reflection

The second and third weeks of Advent this year focus particularly on the role of John the Baptist as the one who prepared the way for Jesus and announced his coming. It continues the theme of preparation that was begun last week, but still, rather than preparing for the birth of Jesus, we are exploring the wider theme of preparation. The gospel writer includes a quote from Isaiah in which the prophet says, 'Prepare a way for the Lord.' (Often translated as 'Prepare the way of the Lord'.) The application of this passage to John the Baptist is a logical one. This gospel emphasises that John was preaching 'a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins'. Throughout the gospel of Luke, the recognition of sinfulness and the desire to repent and seek forgiveness is the prelude to receiving God's favour.

This gospel makes it clear that one way in which we can prepare a way for the Lord is to recognise our faults and failings and to seek forgiveness. It is only through such repentance that we can make ourselves receptive to the love of God. The only preparation of the way that is necessary for the Lord is a personal preparation to be receptive. We are absolutely assured of God's love. The problem is that we often feel that we are undeserving of that love or are unable to receive it. When we are called to 'Prepare a way for the Lord' it is a call to prepare a way in our own hearts – to break down the barriers that we have put up; to clear the obstacles that we have placed in the path. God's love will find a way! We simply make the way easier for ourselves to recognise God's love if we 'Prepare a way'.

Volunteering - Something we can all do.

This week we are asking for more volunteers for this ministry group.

Pope: May Jubilee offer opportunity for ceasefire on all war fronts

Pope Francis writes the foreword to a book by Italian journalist Francesco Antonio Grana who covers the Vatican, entitled "Jubilee of Hope." The Pope writes: "I hope this time truly becomes an opportunity for conversion and for looking at one's life in the light of the Gospel."

Vatican News

The Holy Year and the Pope's dream look with hope to a world marked by peace, where weapons are locked away in arsenals, those who manufacture them have stopped profiting from the deaths of others, the death penalty has no executions scheduled, and prisoners are granted "forms of amnesty or pardon." Pope Francis underscores these points in the foreword of a new book entitled, "Jubilee of Hope," written by Italian journalist Francesco Antonio Grana who covers the Vatican, a book for release by the publisher Elledici.

A Jubilee lived fully

"I truly hope that the upcoming Jubilee marks an opportunity for a ceasefire in all the countries where war is being emphasised, as he appeals. "From war, this must be clear, comes out defeated, "there are no winners defeated!" he stressed in the Bull of Year "Spes non does not disappoint").

waged!" the Pope has in many of his from every conflict, everyone always everyone!" and and losers, only the es, recalling what he Indiction for the Holy confundit" ("Hope

He explains that hope a vague positive feel-but "something else": "It is not an illusion or an emotion. It is a concrete virtue, a way of life, and it involves concrete choices. Hope is nourished by each person's commitment to good."

"Nourishing hope," Pope Francis continues, has the value of "a social, intellectual, spiritual, artistic, and political action in the highest sense of the word. It is putting one's abilities and resources at the service of the common good."

is not "optimism, nor ing about the future,"

An instrument of grace

This means focusing on the common good, as it relates to migrants who experience the paradox of odysseys called "journeys of hope," which often "turn into true journeys of despair," with the Mediterranean becoming a "great cemetery." Or the good for those imprisoned, as the Pope has called for "dignified living conditions" alongside the abolition of the death penalty, judged "unacceptable because it violates the inviolability and dignity of the person."

The Holy Year, Pope Francis writes in a passage from the foreword, "is not exclusively an event dictated by a calendar, but a true pastoral instrument that the popes, since 1300, have used according to the needs of the times in which they were called to lead the Church."

A time of rebirth

The forthcoming Holy Year in 2025 will see millions of pilgrims crossing the threshold of the Holy Door of St. Peter's and the other three Papal Basilicas. The Pope hopes, however, that this pilgrimage is not simply a touristic visit or the achievement of a goal, as in the Olympics. "I hope it is truly an occasion for conversion, for looking at one's life in light of the Gospel," and that "this pilgrimage is always accompanied by a charitable act carried out in secret."

The book also remembers Pier Giorgio Frassati and Carlo Acutis, two young people who will be canonised during the Jubilee. The Pope recalls their examples and words, urging us not to "waste away" on the couch of our lives, but to embody, with Jesus in our hearts, the beauty of love that turns into service.

A Message for all Parishioners:

Heartfelt thanks to all folk for your prayers and support during my recent illness . Whilst not back to full mobility , I am slowly but surely on the right track . Again ,thank you so much .

HELP SUPPORT THE VINNIES THIS CHRISTMAS

St Vincent de Paul Society Victoria—helping families survive the cost-of-living crisis

This Christmas, Vinnies is calling for support to help families struggling with the cost-of-living crisis. As inflation and interest rates surge, many vulnerable families like Kelly's are finding it increasingly difficult to afford basic necessities such as food, electricity and rent.

Kelly's story highlights the challenges faced by many. Despite her husband working in hospitality, their income is insufficient to cover rising expenses. 'When the electricity bill came in, I literally dropped to my knees. There was no way we could pay it,' Kelly says.

With rent consuming over half their income, the family is experiencing acute housing stress. Vinnies has provided assistance with rent, utilities, food, school expenses and bedding for Kelly's daughters. 'To get some help really changes everything,' she adds.

As costs continue to rise, families like Kelly's need urgent support this Christmas. You can help by donating to the Vinnies' Christmas appeal, which provides food, pays bills, and offers essential items to those struggling to make ends meet.

To donate or learn more about how you can help, call Vinnies on 13 18 12 or

Jubilee 2025

The jubilee of Jesus

Jesus consciously used the language of jubilee when beginning his ministry. In the synagogue at Nazareth, he stood before the people and read from the prophet Isaiah: 'The spirit of the Lord is upon me, for he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to captives, sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim a year of the Lord's favour' (Lk 4:18-19). Through his life, death, and resurrection, what Jesus brought about was a kind of 'ultimate jubilee': a time of newness and 'new creation' (2 Cor 5:17), a time of abundant mercy for his people until his return in glory. The apostles saw their task as continuing this work of Christ's jubilee: 'See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation' (2 Cor 6:2).

Being pilgrims of hope in the world St Mary of the Cross Mackillop used to say:

'We are but travellers here.' For the 2025 Jubilee Year, Pope Francis invites us to reflect on what it means to be pilgrims of hope: a people who are not only travellers here but walking in joyful anticipation of 'the heavenly goal to which we have been called' (SNC §25). Pope Francis believes that, in today's world, hope suffers; that too many people have been robbed by cynicism and despair. During Jubilee 2025, he wants everyone to have 'an intense experience of the love of God that awakens in hearts the sure hope of salvation in Christ' (SNC §6). Only this hope—born from knowing that nothing can separate us from God's love (Rom 8:35-39)—can breathe life back into weary souls. This hope is not optimism. It is not a forced positivity in the face of hardship and evil. It is a grace from God, a trust in the Lord's promises: that he is good, that he is merciful, and that we are journeying towards the one who says, 'Look, I am making everything new' (Rev 21:5).

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos
in the sure expectation
of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee
reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer
throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.

Amen.

Francis

Jokes of The Week

#1: “Oh, well, soap only works when it is applied.” A soap manufacturer and a pastor were walking together down a street in a large city. The soap manufacturer casually said, “The Gospel you preach hasn’t done much good, has it? Just observe. There is still a lot of wickedness in the world, and a lot of wicked people, too!” The pastor made no reply until they passed a dirty little child making mud pies in the gutter. Seizing the opportunity, the pastor said, “I see that soap hasn’t done much good in the world either; for there is much dirt still here, and many dirty people are still around.” The soap man said, “Oh, well, soap only works when it is applied.” And the pastor said, “Exactly! So, it is with the Gospel.”

ADVENT REFLECTION - LECTIO DIVINA: With Fr Joseph O’Shea

EVERY MONDAY 6pm-7pm in the Church

Lectio Divina has an illustrious past. St Ambrose (4th century) taught it to St Augustine; and St Benedict (6th century) made it part of monastic life. Guigo II (12th century), prior of La Grande Chartreuse, wrote the classic text of Lectio Divina, which gives the Latin terms lectio, meditatio, oratio and contemplatio to the four steps of this ‘ladder’ of prayer. It went through a dark period in the 19th century, when the ‘historical critical’ approach of biblical studies made it unfashionable, but revived in the early 20th century and is now widely used.
