PENSIERO DOMENICALE

Carissimi, oggi siamo invitati a prendere chiara coscienza della nostra qualita di "Missionari di Cristo". "La messe e' abbondante - dira' Gesu' nel vangelo - ma gli operai sono pochi".

Non dobbiamo certo trascurare la preghiera, perche' Dio susciti numerose vocazioni sacerdotali e religiose; ma dobbiamo anche riflettere sul dovere che hanno tutti i cristiani, senza eccezione, di essere operai della messe.

Se riusciamo ad uscire dal nostro mondo ristretto e aprire gli occhi sugli altri, saremo presi certamente dalla pietà, di fronte all'immensa miseria degli uomini, miseria materiale e morale. Ognuno di noi deve sentire il dovere di rivelare loro Cristo e il suo vangelo, e di esserne noi stessi i testimoni. Dobbiamo essere portatori dell'amore di Dio ad un mondo che muore perche' non sa amare.

Please remember in your prayers/Gentilmente ricordate nelle vostre preghiere:

ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Your kindness this winter can help someone who has lost everything – through no fault of their own – get back on track and rebuild their life.

St Vinnies are seeking non-perishable food and items (items in great need toilet paper, washing powder, bath soaps, toothpaste and toothbrushes, shampoo & conditioners, deodorants).

Donations can be placed in the box located in the church gathering space.

A special cash collection will be held next weekend.

Thank you for supporting the Catholic Mission appeal.

A total of $288 was raised last weekend.

Because of your kindness, children like Yamikani will have greater access to education, nourishment, and the opportunity to build a hopeful future.

Thank you for helping Catholic Mission continue its important work and for bringing hope to communities in need.

Called to a life of planting, nurturing & gathering

A huge crowd followed Jesus. They looked dejected and overcome by injustice. What made them that way? Were they troubled by sin, spiritually abandoned or victims of Roman oppression? Through the eyes of Jesus they were a potential harvest for whom labourers were needed.

How does the Church Community, full of labourers, prepare for the harvest? The first phase is the planting of the seeds. If we want a renewed morality in our world, the rebirth of community, a restoration of respect for human life, or the rebuilding of family life, we need to start planting seeds. This is not the most glamorous task but there can be no harvest without it! The planting happens in many ways and may be done quietly in the context of our daily lives.

The second phase in producing a harvest is nurturing, providing the care and encouragement that enables seeds to thrive. Millions of seeds can be planted, but if they aren't watered, there's no harvest.

Finally we reap the harvest, gather it together to build up the community of the Church here as the visible sign of Christ's presence in our world. The planting, the nurturing, the gathering are always going on. It starts again with the birth of each baby, with every new generation.

Are we planting or nurturing or gathering? Whatever our role may be, we are all invited to be one of the labourers for the kingdom.

Fr. Phil

We welcome and congratulate the children receiving God's gift of Jesus in the Eucharist for the first time this Sunday.
