

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSA

Although this is not the last Sunday of the liturgical year, the major theme found in the readings is the end of time. The events that will usher in and will take place during this time are described in apocalyptic terms. The struggles of life will culminate in a massive cosmic confrontation between the forces of good and those of evil. This last battle will be universal in scope, just like the first primordial conflict between chaos and God.

In some way, all of today's readings state that good will finally prevail over evil. In the last days Michael, the angelic warrior of God, will rise up. In the epistle, Christ is pictured seated triumphantly at the right hand of God with his enemies under his foot, a sign of conquest. Finally, in the gospel, the Son of Man, the mysterious figure from apocalyptic literature, comes in the clouds with great power and glory. All of these images are apocalyptic; each of them is quite hopeful.

We read these stories at the close of the liturgical year, because we are coming to the conclusion of our yearly telling of the story of salvation. However, apocalyptic images are timely whenever we find ourselves in the throes of the battle with evil and it appears that we will succumb. These forms will remind us that good will be able to withstand evil. From this we will conclude that we need only trust in God.

Gospel Mk 13:24-32

He shall gather his elect from the four winds.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.

'Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

'But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.'

PETER KEARNEY CONCERT REFLECTIONS 'Signs of Hope – People of Faith' Tuesday 19th November, 7.00-8.30pm at St Vincent de Paul Church, Strathmore. Sunday 24th November, 2.00pm-3.30pm at Our Lady of Nativity Church, Aberfeldie. Free Concert. Donations Welcome. Light refreshments provided. Fr. Anil will be away from 19th of November to 27th of November 2024. Wisdom from the Saints Saint Angela of Foligno: “The only thing necessary for us is God. Finding God consists in recollecting our souls in Him. One must separate one’s soul from all which disperses it, and bring it to know the abyss of its miseries.” Are you interested in becoming a Catholic ? Would you like to know more about becoming a Catholic, being baptised and received into the Church? Please speak to Fr Anil, or contact the parish office: keilloreast@cam.org.au

A Prayer for the Month of November God of Compassion, We remember with gratitude and love all the people we have known and who you have called home to yourself. In this month of the holy souls we give thanks for the great cloud of witnesses who have shaped us, inspired us, loved us and forgiven us. We pray especially for our deceased family members, knowing that they also pray for us. We hold out to you the millions who are dying because of war, famine, disease and climate change. We pray for refugees who die in search of safety. May our sorrow encourage us to work for a more just world where every life is treated with equal dignity Living and dead, we are all your family. May your perpetual light shine on us all. Amen. Written by Michael McGirr NOVEMBER MEMORIAL MASSES As usual, we will have our Memorial Masses for our departed loved ones during the month of November. Masses will be offered and all names received will be placed at the Altar during our weekend Masses. Please make use of the special envelopes in your Thanksgiving boxes or the November Mass Offering Envelopes, available in the Church Narthex.
