Music teaches harmony with others, self and Church, Pope says

(Written by Justin McLellan (CNS) in Catholic Magazine)

Music ‘creates harmony’ through its impact on people, the Pope said, such as by ‘consoling those who are suffering, restoring enthusiasm to those who are discouraged and making bloom within each person marvellous virtues like beauty and poetry, a reflection of the harmonious light of God.’ He said that music is a ‘universal and immediate language that has no need for translations nor conceptual explanations.’

The Catholic Church should function like a choir where every member contributes his or her unique part to create a harmonious whole, Pope Francis said.

Just as, in a choir or an orchestra, ‘one needs the others’ to create harmony, each person in the Church ‘is called to do his or her part well for the benefit of the whole community’, the Pope told choir members on 8 June.

Pope Francis met in the Paul VI Audience Hall with scores of members of parish and diocesan choirs, choir directors and musicians gathered in Rome for an international meeting of choirs to mark the 40th anniversary of the choir of the diocese of Rome.

Readings for Next Week

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

First Reading Job 38:1. 8-11

A reading from the book of Job

The Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind:
“Who is this that darkens counsel by word without knowledge?
I will question you, and you shall declare to me.
Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth?
Tell me if you have understanding. Who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb?—when I made the clouds its garment, and prescribed bounds for it, and set bars and doors, and said, ‘Thus far shall you come,
and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stopped’?”

Psalm

Some went down to the sea in ships doing business on the mighty waters they saw the deeds of the Lord his wondrous works in the deep

For he commanded and raised the stormy wind which lifted up the waves of the sea They mounted up to heaven and they went down to the depths their courage melted away in their calamity

Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble and he brought them out from their distress he made the storm be still and the waves of the sea were hushed

Then they were clad when it grew calm and he brought them to their desired haven Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love for his wonderful works to the children of Adam

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 5:14-7

A reading from the second Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians Brothers and sisters

The love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them.
From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view. Even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
A great Prophet has risen among us
God has looked favourably on his people Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 4:35-41

When evening had come, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let us go across to the other side.” And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?” And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this,
that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

Reflection

Jesus’ response to the fear of the disciples is to rebuke them for a lack of faith.
How are we to understand faith in this context?
