St Simon the Apostle Parish

A compassionate community celebrating and living in Christ

2 Taylors Lane, ROWVILLE VIC 3178 | <https://www.melbcatholic.org/s/rowville>

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT | 14/15 MARCH 2026 | YEAR A

John 9:35 | "What have you to say about Him yourself, now that He has opened your eyes?"

In today's Gospel, Jesus encounters a man who has been blind from birth. The disciples immediately begin looking for someone to blame: "Who sinned?" But Jesus refuses this way of thinking. Instead of focusing on blame, he brings healing and new life.

Jesus places mud on the man's eyes and sends him to wash in the Pool of Siloam. When the man returns, he can see. Yet the real drama begins after the miracle. Those around him struggle to accept what has happened. The neighbours are confused. The Pharisees question him repeatedly. Even his parents are afraid to speak openly. Ironically, the man who was blind begins to see more clearly than anyone else. Step by step, he comes to recognise who Jesus is.

This Gospel reminds us that faith often grows gradually. The blind man first calls Jesus "the man called Jesus," then "a prophet," and finally he declares, "Lord, I believe." His physical sight is restored, but more importantly, his spiritual sight awakens.

This passage also challenges us as a Church, especially as we enter the Synod journey in Melbourne. A synodal Church is one that asks: Are we truly seeing clearly? Sometimes we can become like the Pharisees — confident that we already know everything, yet missing the new work God is doing among us.

The Synod invites us to listen deeply to one another, to recognise the experiences of those who may feel unseen or unheard, and to allow Christ to open our eyes again. Like the blind man, we are called to move from confusion to clarity, from doubt to faith.

Lent is a time for this kind of healing vision. When we allow Christ to touch our lives, we begin to see differently — with compassion, humility and hope.

And when our eyes are opened, we too can say with confidence: "I was blind, and now I see."

With Blessings,
Fr Jerald Mariadas

Lenten Reconciliation

As we prepare our hearts during Lent, reconciliation is a vital part of our journey towards the risen Christ of Easter.

You are warmly invited to join our Lenten Reconciliation service

WEDNESDAY 25 MARCH, 7.30PM—ST JUDE'S

THURSDAY 26 MARCH, 7.30PM—ST SIMON'S

This liturgy is a time for reflection and an opportunity to see how we can change to become better versions of ourselves to those around us.

What is a SYNOD?

A Synod is a moment when the Church deliberately pauses to listen, pray, and discern together. It is not simply a meeting or a conference, but a spiritual process rooted in faith that the Holy Spirit continues to guide the Church today. In a Synod, we ask not only "What do we think?" but more importantly, "What is God asking of us at this moment in our mission?"

Our parish was delighted to host the annual World Day of Prayer service, prepared this year by the people of Nigeria. Around 60 people gathered in prayer, including friends from the Christian communities of Rowville and Lysterfield, making it a wonderful expression of unity in faith.

We were especially grateful to welcome our Nigerian speaker, John Eric-Ighalo, who shared insights into the prayer and spirit of the celebration. Thank you to everyone who helped prepare and host this meaningful ecumenical gathering.

We also thank all who contributed so generously, with $780 collected and forwarded to the Bible Society.

Next year will mark the centenary celebration of the World Day of Prayer, and the service will be hosted by Rowville Uniting Church.

The Synod will focus on three key themes: Young Discipleship, Missionary Leadership, and Formation and Participation. We are encouraged to ask: Where is the Holy Archbishop Peter A Comensoli has formally convoked a Synod for the Archdiocese of Melbourne. This important step continues our journey of listening, discernment, and renewal — a synodal way of being Church, walking together in faith under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

In the months ahead, parishes and communities across the Archdiocese will be invited to gather in prayer and conversation to reflect on how we are called to proclaim the Gospel more faithfully in our time and place.

Spirit leading us? Who are we called to accompany? How can we reflect the face of Christ more clearly?

The Synod Assembly will be held across the weekend of 4–6 December 2026. Over these next months, a range of opportunities will be available for Melbourne Catholics to be part of the consultation process toward the Synod. In the meantime, further information can be accessed at melbournecatholic.org/synod2026.

Please keep this journey in your prayers as we move forward together with hope and confidence in the Lord.

Pray for Peace

In these troubled times, when many around the world are living in fear and uncertainty, we hold in prayer all who are suffering because of War. We remember the innocent lives lost, families forced from their homes, and those who find themselves stranded and vulnerable in the midst of travel disruptions, including in airports and transit points.

Let us also pray for the Leaders of all Nations. May the Spirit of God grant them wisdom, right judgment, and the courage to work tirelessly for peace—seeking solutions that protect life, uphold human dignity, and avoid the tragedy of war.

Prayer:

Heavenly Father, we lift up all those affected by the ongoing war. Please protect the innocent, comfort the grieving, and give strength to those living in fear. Soften the hearts of leaders and guide them toward peace, wisdom, and understanding. May violence cease, may healing begin, and may hope rise even in the darkest places. Grant safety, unity, and lasting peace to all. Amen.

First Reading:

1 Samuel 16:1, 6-7, 10-13

The Lord said to Samuel, ‘Fill your horn with oil and go. I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem, for I have chosen myself a king among his sons.’ When Samuel arrived, he caught sight of Eliab and thought, ‘Surely the Lord’s anointed one stands there before him,’ but the Lord said to Samuel, ‘Take no notice of his appearance or his height for I have rejected him; God does not see as man sees; man looks at appearances but the Lord looks at the heart.’ Jesse presented his seven sons to Samuel, but Samuel said to Jesse, ‘The Lord has not chosen these.’ He then asked Jesse, ‘Are these all the sons you have?’ He answered, ‘There is still one left, the youngest; he is out looking after the sheep.’ Then Samuel said to Jesse, ‘Send for him; we will not sit down to eat until he comes.’ Jesse had him sent for, a boy of fresh complexion, with fine eyes and pleasant bearing. The Lord said, ‘Come, anoint him, for this is the one.’ At this, Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him where he stood with his brothers; and the spirit of the Lord seized on David and stayed with him from that day on.

Responsorial Psalm 22

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
Second Reading: Ephesians 5:8-14
You were darkness once, but now you are light in the Lord; be like children of light, for the effects of the light are seen in complete goodness and right living and truth. Try to discover what the Lord wants of you, having nothing to do with the futile works of darkness but exposing them by contrast. The things which are done in secret are things that people are ashamed even to speak of; but anything exposed by the light will be illuminated and anything illuminated turns into light. That is why it is said: Wake up from your sleep, rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.

Gospel Acclamation:

Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ! I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will have the light of life. Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel: John 9:1. 6-9. 13-17. 34-38

As Jesus went along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth. He spat on the ground, made a paste with the spittle, put this over the eyes of the blind man and said to him, ‘Go and wash in the Pool of Siloam’ (a name that means ‘sent’). So the blind man went off and washed himself, and came away with his sight restored.

His neighbours and people who earlier had seen him begging said, ‘Isn’t this the man who used to sit and beg?’ Some said, ‘Yes, it is the same one.’ Others said, ‘No, he only looks like him.’ The man himself said, ‘I am the man.’ They brought the man who had been blind to the Pharisees. It had been a sabbath day when Jesus made the paste and opened the man’s eyes, so when the Pharisees asked him how he had come to see, he said, ‘He put a paste on my eyes, and I washed, and I can see.’ Then some of the Pharisees said, ‘This man cannot be from God: he does not keep the sabbath.’ Others said, ‘How could a sinner produce signs like this?’ And there was disagreement among them. So they spoke to the blind man again, ‘What have you to say about him yourself, now that he has opened your eyes?’ ‘He is a prophet’ replied the man. ‘Are you trying to teach us,’ they replied ‘and you a sinner through and through, since you were born!’ And they drove him away.

Jesus heard they had driven him away, and when he found him he said to him, ‘Do you believe in the Son of Man?’ ‘Sir,’ the man replied ‘tell me who he is so that I may believe in him.’ Jesus said, ‘You are looking at him; he is speaking to you.’ The man said, ‘Lord, I believe’, and worshipped him.

Who participates in a Synod?

A Synod involves the whole People of God: bishops, priests, deacons, religious, and lay faithful. Each has a distinct role, but all share responsibility for the Church’s mission. Synodality does not blur roles—it helps each vocation flourish in service of the Gospel.
