First Reading

Isaiah 49:3. 5-6

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

I will make you the light of the nations so that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

The Lord said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel,
in whom I shall be glorified';

I was honoured in the eyes of the Lord,
my God was my strength.

And now the Lord has spoken,
he who formed me in the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him,
to gather Israel to him:

'It is not enough for you to be my servant,
to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back the survivors of Israel;
I will make you the light of the nations
so that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 39:2. 4. 7-10. R. vv.8. 9.

(R.) Here I am, Lord;
I come to do your will.

1. I waited, I waited for the Lord
and he stooped down to me;
he heard my cry.

He put a new song into my mouth,
praise of our God. (R.)

2. You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings,
but an open ear.

You do not ask for holocaust and victim.
Instead, here am I. (R.)

3. In the scroll of the book it stands written that I should do your will.

My God, I delight in your law
in the depth of my heart. (R.)

4. Your justice I have proclaimed
in the great assembly.

My lips I have not sealed;
you know it, O Lord.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:1-3

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

The grace and peace of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

I, Paul, appointed by God to be an apostle, together with brother Sosthenes, send greetings to the church of God in Corinth, to the holy people of Jesus Christ, who are called to take their place among all the saints everywhere who pray to our Lord Jesus Christ; for he is their Lord no less than ours. May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.

Gospel Acclamation

John 1:14. 12

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us.

He enabled those who accepted him
to become the children of God.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 1:29-34

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

Seeing Jesus coming towards him, John said, 'Look, there is the lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world. This is the one I spoke of when I said: A man is coming after me who ranks before me because he existed before me. I did not know him myself, and yet it was to reveal him to Israel that I came baptising with water.' John also declared, 'I saw the Spirit coming down on him from heaven like a dove and resting on him. I did not know him myself, but he who sent me to baptise with water had said to me, "The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and rest is the one who is going to baptise with the Holy Spirit." Yes, I have seen and I am the witness that he is the Chosen One of God.'

Communion Antiphon

Cf Psalm 22:5

You have prepared a table before me,
and how precious is the chalice that quenches my thirst.

GOSPEL FOCUS

Ranking

There is an odd line in today's passage. John reminds the crowd that he had said 'A man is coming after me who ranks before me because he existed before me.' In Jewish tradition, the prophets and patriarchs who came earlier in their history ranked higher than those who came later. They believed that the history of salvation was at its pinnacle with God's self-revelation to Abraham. Successive episodes and characters were regarded as lesser. But John affirms that Jesus ranks before himself because Jesus existed before John. He is saying that Jesus is more than simply the latest in a long line of prophets.

Gospel reflection

Strangely, despite being in Ordinary Time again, the lectionary temporarily departs from the gospel of Matthew and today's reading is from the gospel of John. Given that last week's reading was the Matthean account of the baptism of Christ we must assume that there is a deliberate purpose in the choice of reading for today. Indeed, the three readings for today give a very specific slant to the baptism and mission of Jesus. The readings from Isaiah and Paul's letter to the Corinthians emphasise that God's salvation is for all the world, not just the people of Israel. We find this also in the gospel when John the Baptist declares, 'there is the lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world'. It is the sin 'of the world' that Jesus takes away; that is, all humankind. This was a tough concept for the Jews whose relationship with God was grounded in the concept of being the 'chosen people'; a people set apart. It continues to be a difficult concept for many Christian people today who struggle with the notion that God's love and mercy are so extravagant that they are poured out for absolutely anyone and everyone. Some Christians like to maintain an 'us and them' approach to their faith and think that if you're not one of 'us' then salvation will be denied by God. The role of John the Baptist in this passage is to be a witness; to point to Jesus and say 'He is the one!' Lots of us need the affirmation and direction provided by another person before we are ready to commit to a new direction in our lives. John gives the crowd confidence and effectively hands over to Jesus the authority that the crowd had perceived in him.

Living the Gospel – Pointing the way

John the Baptist fills the role of 'pointing the way' to Jesus. In our own lives we also have the ability to 'point the way' towards Jesus. It doesn't need to be as blatant as John's 'Look, there he is!' However, the way we choose to live our life can point the way just as powerfully as John did. More often than not, our actions speak much more powerfully than any words we might utter. Consistently treating others with respect, maintaining prayer as a central part of life and working for justice in the world will make an impression on others and point the way to Jesus.

Scriptural context – Baptism of Jesus

Each of the three synoptic gospels (Mark, Luke and Matthew) presents an account of the baptism of Jesus. All three versions record the Spirit descending in the form of a dove. In the fourth gospel, it is interesting that the gospel writer does not actually give an account of the baptism as by the time of this gospel's writing the story is well entrenched in the Christian culture. Instead of a baptism account, John the Baptist appears to recall the event. Rather than needing to describe the event, this gospel writer treats it as a given and simply refers to it.

VATICAN NEWS

Pope at Audience: Second Vatican Council still guiding star of Church's journey

Pope Leo XIV begins a new catechesis series on the Second Vatican Council and its documents, emphasizing that the Council's teaching still serves as the guiding star of the Church's journey.

By Deborah Castellano Lubov

The Pope called this "a valuable opportunity to rediscover the beauty and the importance of this ecclesial event," pointing to Pope Saint John Paul II's words at the end of the Jubilee 2000 when he said, "I feel more than ever in duty bound to point to the Council as the great grace bestowed on the Church in the twentieth century." Pope Leo recalled that, in 2025, along with the anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, the Church recalled the 60th anniversary of Vatican II. He said that while the time that separates us from this event is not so long, it is true that the generation of Bishops and theologians of Vatican II is no longer with us.

Rereading Council's documents

"Therefore, while we hear the call not to let its prophecy fade, and to continue to seek ways and means to implement its insights, it will be important to get to know it again closely, and to do so not through 'hearsay' or interpretations that have been given, but by rereading its documents and reflecting on their content." He quoted Pope Benedict XVI's words in 2005 that "as the years have passed, the Conciliar Documents have lost none of their timeliness; indeed, their teachings are proving particularly relevant to the new situation of the Church and the current globalized society."

Pope Leo recalled that when Pope Saint John XXIII opened the Council on October 11, 1962, he spoke of it as the dawn of a day of light for the whole Church, adding that, "The work of the numerous Fathers convened from the Churches of all continents did indeed pave the way for a new ecclesial season."

Rediscovering face of God as Father calling us to be His children

"After a rich biblical, theological, and liturgical reflection spanning the twentieth century," Pope Leo highlighted, "Vatican II rediscovered the face of God as the Father who, in Christ, calls us to be His children; it looked at the Church in the light of Christ, light of nations, as a mystery of communion and sacrament of unity between God and His people; it initiated important liturgical reform, placing at its centre the mystery of salvation and the active and conscious participation of the entire People of God." At the same time, the Pope reflected, "it helped us to open up to the world and to embrace the changes and challenges of the modern age in dialogue and co-responsibility" as a Church that "wishes to open her arms to humanity, to echo the hopes and anxieties of peoples, and to collaborate in building a more just and fraternal society." Thanks to the Second Vatican Council, Pope Leo underscored, quoting Pope Saint Paul VI's Encyclical Ecclesiam suam, the Church "has something to say, a message to give, a communication to make," striving to seek the truth by way of ecumenism, interreligious dialogue, and dialogue with people of good will.

Guide for Church's spiritual life and pastoral action

"This spirit, this inner disposition," Pope Leo insisted, "must characterize our spiritual life and the pastoral action of the Church, because we have yet to achieve ecclesial reform more fully in a ministerial sense, and, in the face of today's challenges, we are called to continue to be vigilant interpreters of the signs of the times, joyful proclaimers of the Gospel, courageous witnesses of justice and peace." Finally, Pope Leo XIV concluded with an invitation to engage in a fresh reading of the Second Vatican Council's documents."

IF YOU LOVE YOUR CULTURE
COME AND SHARE YOUR FOOD!

SUNDAY 8th February 11am Prep Welcome Mass.
Cultural event follows Mass.

Every year we have a welcome Mass for our new Preps at St Macartan's Primary School. This year we are adding a cultural flavor to it, by celebrating the many different ethnic groups in our wonderful Parish.

If you would like to cook your countries favorite foods, enough for 20-30 people. We can all take delight in sharing them. I would like 6 or 7 different cultures represented please.

To register, please contact the office 59752200 or email: mornington@cam.org.au

We will also (as per usual), have:

- Magician for the children
- Tea, coffee and soft drinks etc.

Thank you
Fr Geoff

PS - Keep receipts for your food preparation, and you will be reimbursed.

'The Missionary Sisters of St Peter Claver will visit the Parish on the weekend of 24/25 January to promote their work on behalf of the missions and distribute their 2026 Claver Almanac - Calendar at all Masses. This is a free copy but any donation towards the missions would certainly be gratefully received.'

Community Centre Toilet Renovation Update

We are pleased to share that good progress is being made on the renovation of the Community Centre toilets. Our builder has assisted with the works in the lead up to Christmas, allowing us to reconfigure the space to create a more functional, accessible, and hygienic bathroom area for all who use the Centre. The total cost of this important project has been quoted at $30,000, and we are seeking the ongoing financial support of our parish community to help bring it to completion. We thank you sincerely for your generosity and continued support of our parish facilities.

Youth Worker Opportunity at St Macartan's

St Macartan's Parish is seeking a casual Youth Worker to help nurture, support, and engage the young people of our parish in a safe, welcoming, and faith-centred environment. This role is focused on building meaningful relationships with youth, encouraging friendships, parish connection, and helping young people explore and live their faith in ways that are relevant to their lives. The Youth Worker will support junior and senior youth groups, create opportunities for social and spiritual growth, and provide a safe "hang-out" space where young people feel valued, included, and supported.

Working closely with parents, parish staff, and the Parish Priest, the Youth Worker will also help connect youth activities with parish life, including the Sunday 11am Youth Mass, and assist with events, communication, and safeguarding responsibilities. This is a deeply meaningful role within our community, ideal for someone with a passion for youth ministry, strong interpersonal skills, and a commitment to Catholic values. A Working With Children Check, Police Check, and driver's license are required. Applications close 23 January 2026.

Parish Safety Reminder

St Macartan's as well as being a faith community, is also a family, and as such, we do look out for one another and we care for each other. So we kindly remind all parishioners that any accidents or significant injuries occurring on parish grounds, should be reported to a member of parish staff or a volunteer as soon as possible. This helps us ensure proper immediate care is provided and we can look into what the cause was so we can continue to maintain a safe environment for everyone.

Please be assured that our parish has first aid-trained volunteers with a fully stocked first aid kit to assist in the event of an emergency. Also, there are parishioners who are nurses and doctors and we have defibrillator available.

Jokes of the Week

1) Pastor joke: My neighbouring pastor put sanitary hot air hand dryers in the rest rooms at his Church and after two weeks took them out. I asked him why and he confessed that they worked fine but when he went in there, he saw a sign that read, "For a sample of this week's sermon, push the button."

2) "The future son-in-law: The rich businessman Raymond goes to meet his new son-in-law to be, Ben. He says to Ben, "So, tell me Ben, my boy, what you do?" "I study the Theology," he replies. "But Ben, you are going to marry my daughter! How are going to feed and house her?" "No problem," says Ben, "I study Theology, and it says God will provide." "But you will have children! How will you educate them?" asks Raymond. "No problem," says Ben, "I study Theology, and it says God will provide." When Raymond returns home, his wife anxiously asks him what Ben is like. "Well," says Raymond, "he's a lovely boy. I only just met him, and he already thinks I'm God."

3) Lamb o God: If Mary is the mother of Jesus and Jesus is the lamb of God Does that mean that Mary had a little lamb?

Volunteers needed as SACRISTANS:

The role of the Sacristan is crucial in supporting the smooth running of our church services. Each Mass needs a Sacristan - a person in charge of the Sacristy. Preparing the altar and sacred vessels, ensuring there are enough hosts and wine and assisting the Priest before Mass.

If you are interested, please see Fr Geoff.
