Readings for NEXT WEEK
Second Sunday of Easter, 2026

NEXT SUNDAY

First Reader: Acts 2:42-47

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.
This is the Word of God

Psalm

Let Israel say: "His steadfast love endures forever"
Let the house of Aaron say,
"His steadfast love endures forever"
Let those who fear the Lord say,
"His steadfast love endures forever"

I was pushed hard, so that I was falling, but the Lord helped me.
The Lord is my strength and my might;
he has become my salvation
There are glad songs of victory in the tents of the righteous

The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone
This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.
This is the day that the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it

Second Reader: 1 Peter 1:3-9

A reading from the first letter of St Peter

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls .

This is the Word of God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!
You believed, Thomas, because you have seen me;
Blessed are those who have not seen, and yet believe
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Gospel: John 20:19-31

It was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

Reflection

"If Jesus is inviting you, like Thomas, to come touch his wounds, how might you do that?"

"How can we apply 'resurrection optimism' to situations of fear or uncertainty in our own lives?"

We are committed to the safety, wellbeing and dignity of all children and vulnerable adults.

EASTER MESSAGE FROM ARCHBISHOP PETER COMMENSOLI

Friends,
Easter invites us to stand at the threshold from night into dawn. In the Gospel, we meet Mary Magdalen arriving at the tomb while it was still dark (Jn 20:1). She carries grief and confusion, yet a fragile hope. What she finds is not an ending but a beginning: the stone is rolled away, the tomb is empty. And before her stands the One who knows her name: Mary.

As dawn breaks, a quiet truth emerges: death has not had the final word; life has arisen. The resurrection unfolds like morning light. It does not blind, but illumines. It does not erase wounds, but transfigures them. Christ, the Light of the World, comes to meet us as the light we need. Christ is present; Christ is life. Yet many today experience absence. For the young especially, the world can feel stripped of mystery—flattened, reduced. Meaning feels distant; hope can seem lost. Our lives can appear dark and empty. Conflict and war confront us.

And yet, it is precisely there that Easter speaks our name. The empty tomb is the sign which awakens us to the truth that God is still with us; Jesus is still for us. This Easter, we are called not only to receive Christ's light, but to rediscover its wonder—and to bear that light for others.

Here in Melbourne, we see both vitality and vulnerability: generosity among neighbours, yet distance towards others. Into this world comes the risen Christ, shining light into every darkness and upon every life. To be a light is to reflect the One who brings hope, and to keep it alive in a world that can forget to hold in safety those in need.

In our divided and conflicted world, Easter offers not escape but a way forward: to live with compassion, seek truth, build peace, and stand for hope.

To the steadfast in faith: may this Easter renew your joy and courage. To those who feel distant: the light of Christ is already seeking you. To people of goodwill: Easter proclaims that life is stronger than death, love stronger than fear, and hope stronger than despair.

May the risen Christ bless Melbourne and all its people this Easter. And may we rediscover his company as we walk from darkness into his marvelous light. Christ is risen. Alleluia.

THANK YOU

HAPPY EASTER!!

In the midst of so much uncertainty around recent events in the world at this time, we are so grateful that we could celebrate this Easter peacefully and meaningfully. What we have experienced was a celebration of the unity within our community, as without the hard work of so many hands, Easter services would not have been so memorable. As always, so many of you have been very generous with your support of the parish.

From the groups who help set up the chairs (so many times), the choir, the flower arrangements, the working bee, readers, the youth for the station of the cross, the Passionist companions who ran the weekly station of the cross, those who distributed the hot cross buns, those who bravely arrived in the dark to prepare the breakfast for dawn Mass, communion ministers, collectors as well as many who have accompanied us all in their quiet prayer times. No doubt there are many more of you which we may have neglected to mentioned here, however you know who you are. We thank you all for your ongoing efforts, your contributions ensured the celebrations were meaningful, well organised and rather special.

PASSIONIST FAMILY GROUP

Our Passionist Family group is organising an event on Sunday 19th April, 12pm to 3pm at the St Paul Apostle School Hall, 9 William Hovell Drive, Endeavour Hills VIC 3802. We hope you can all join this event for an afternoon of stories, culture, and connection. This special parish gathering invites every member of our community, new and familiar, to come together, celebrate our shared heritage, and strengthen the friendships that make our parish feel like home. Everyone is invited to wear or bring something that represents your story, a cultural item, a family keepsake, a traditional garment, colours, symbols—anything meaningful that reflects where you come from and who you are. And don't forget please bring a plate of finger food to share. On the day, the group will also have silent auction in the effort to raise funds for a Community Christmas Lunch for those who will otherwise spend Christmas alone. Your contributions, whether donating items or placing bids, will help ensure that they can also enjoy some Christmas cheer surrounded by great company and good food.
