First Reading

2 Samuel 7:1-5. 8-12. 14. 16

A reading from the second book of Samuel

The kingdom of David will be established for ever in the sight of the Lord.

Once David had settled into his house and the Lord had given him rest from all the enemies surrounding him, the king said to the prophet Nathan, 'Look, I am living in a house of cedar while the ark of God dwells in a tent'. Nathan said to the king, 'Go and do all that is in your mind, for the Lord is with you.'

But that very night the word of the Lord came to Nathan:

'Go and tell my servant David, "Thus the Lord speaks: Are you the man to build me a house to dwell in? I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be leader of my people Israel; I have been with you on all your expeditions; I have cut off all your enemies before you. I will give you fame as great as the fame of the greatest on earth. I will provide a place for my people Israel; I will plant them there and they shall dwell in that place and never be disturbed again; nor shall the wicked continue to oppress them as they did, in the days when I appointed judges over my people Israel; I will give them rest from all their enemies. The Lord will make you great; the Lord will make you a House. And when your days are ended and you are laid to rest with your ancestors, I will preserve the offspring of your body after you and make his sovereignty secure. I will be a father to him and he a son to me. Your House and your sovereignty will always stand secure before me and your throne be established for ever."

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 88:2-5. 27. 29. R. see v.2

(R.) For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

1. I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord;
through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth.

Of this I am sure, that your love lasts for ever,
that your truth is firmly established as the heavens. (R.)

2. 'I have made a covenant with my chosen one;
I have sworn to David my servant:
I will establish your dynasty for ever and set up your throne through all ages.' (R.)

3. He will say to me: 'You are my father,
my God, the rock who saves me.'
I will keep my love for him always;
for him my covenant shall endure. (R.)

Second Reading

Romans 16:25-27

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

The mystery kept secret for endless ages is now revealed.

Glory to him who is able to give you the strength to live according to the Good News I preach, and in which I proclaim Jesus Christ, the revelation of a mystery kept secret for endless ages, but now so clear that it must be broadcast to pagans everywhere to bring them to the obedience of faith. This is only what scripture has predicted, and it is all part of the way the eternal God wants things to be. He alone is wisdom; give glory therefore to him through Jesus Christ for ever and ever.

Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 1:38

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the servant of the Lord:
may his will for me be done.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 1:26-38

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

You will conceive and bear a son.

The angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the House of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. He went in and said to her, 'Rejoice, so highly favoured! The Lord is with you.' She was deeply disturbed by these words and asked herself what this greeting could mean, but the angel said to her, 'Mary, do not be afraid; you have won God's favour. Listen! You are to conceive and bear a son, and you must name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David; he will rule over the House of Jacob for ever and his reign will have no end.' Mary said to the angel, 'But how can this come about, since I am a virgin?' 'The Holy Spirit will come upon you' the angel answered 'and the power of the Most High will cover you with its shadow. And so the child will be holy and will be called Son of God. Know this too: your kinswoman Elizabeth has, in her old age, herself conceived a son, and she whom people called barren is now in her sixth month, for nothing is impossible to God.' 'I am the handmaid of the Lord,' said Mary 'let what you have said be done to me.' And the angel left her.

The Creed is said.

Communion Antiphon

Isaiah 7:14

Behold, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a son;
and his name will be called Emmanuel.

Scriptural Context

Throughout the gospel of Luke, great importance is placed on the people in society who were regarded as the 'lesser ones'. The mission of Jesus, as described in Luke's gospel, is directed towards those who were unimportant in the eyes of society. In first century society, women were regarded as much less in status than men. So it is significant that the first revelation of Jesus is made to a woman, Mary. The angel Gabriel announces that Mary has won God's favour. For a woman to win God's favour would have been unimaginable to many Jews at the time, yet, through this woman God was revealed in human form.

Gospel Reflection

We have reached the final Sunday in the season of Advent – a time of preparing ourselves to recognise and celebrate Christ's presence in the world, both historically and in an ongoing, timeless way. This week's gospel account of the Annunciation is an ideal culmination to this season as we recall Mary's emphatic 'Yes' to all that was being asked of her. At the end of the Advent season of reflection and preparation to recognise Christ's presence in the world and in our lives, what better response could there be than to simply say, 'Yes'? In a world that is driven by selfishness and the drive to push one's self ahead of others, Mary's selfless act stands as a challenge to our modern society. Even in her own time, Mary's decision must have been an enormously difficult one – one that had the potential to bring great shame on herself and Joseph. Yet, her decision is made swiftly and in faith. She trusts God absolutely and gives her life over into God's hands. That is perhaps the supreme act of faith; to say 'Yes' to God so completely that you are prepared to hand over direction and control of your own life. Few of us tend to be visited by angels who lay out God's plan for us as clearly as Gabriel did for Mary. For most of us, it is a challenge to discern God's desire for us; to realise what it is that we are called to do and then give ourselves fully to that call. In the hustle and bustle of life, it is difficult to hear anything that God may be trying to ask of us. Perhaps the example of Mary's 'Yes' is a reminder to be still enough to hear the question in the first place!

Have you thought? What about Joseph?

Luke's account of the Annunciation (and indeed much of the infancy narrative) focuses its attention on Mary. But what of Joseph? How does he react to the news that his betrothed wife is pregnant? By Jewish Law and tradition, Mary could well have been stoned to death if Joseph had denounced her. Even if Joseph allowed people to think that he was the father of her child, this would have caused an enormous scandal – a breach of the sanctity of the betrothal vow. However, foreshadowing the compassion of Jesus himself, Joseph acts purely out of compassion and continues with his marriage to Mary.

Different View – Virgin births

Some critics of Christian tradition argue that the account of the virgin conception and birth of Jesus is merely a literary device used to give status to Jesus' birth. At the time, it was not an uncommon device to accord a significant figure a heroic or even virginal birth. In Greek, Egyptian and even Roman legend, several characters are credited with virgin births. Some authors say that it is only the gospels of Matthew and Luke and none of the earlier writings that portray Mary as a virgin. The argument suggests that assigning Jesus a virgin birth was an attempt to place Jesus alongside other historical and legendary figures as a person of great status.

Pope Francis: Healthcare must put human person at the centre

Pope Francis meets with hospital staff from the Italian city of Bari, and praises their efforts to provide healthcare for migrants and training for medical students.

By Devin Watkins

Pope Francis held an audience on Monday with a delegation from the F. Miulli Hospital in the southern Italian city of Bari.

In his address, the Pope highlighted two important aspects of which the healthcare facility should always be aware: “putting the person at the center and promoting scientific research”.

Centrality of human person in healthcare

Speaking about the centrality of the human person, Pope Francis recalled the founding principle of you a dynamic reality which is constantly growing,” he said, “as borne out by the way in which you often renew the care you provide and the hospital facilities, in order to offer a more complete service to patients.” Pope Francis expressed appreciation for a recently opened clinic for migrants, which was set up together with the Caritas outfit of the Archdiocese of Bari-Bitonto.

Creating virtuous cycles of research and care

The Pope went on to praise the Miulli Hospital’s dedication to scientific research, in collaboration with various Italian universities.

The hospital’s work to train future doctors and nurses, he said, “provides an opportunity for the best local talents not to emigrate,” adding that “emigration is a problem that impoverishes our lands.” He also praised their efforts to encourage “other high-level professionals to come and work in Italy, fostering an enriching exchange of skills across broader horizons.” In conclusion, Pope Francis thanked the staff of the F. Miulli Hospital in Bari for the “virtuous cycle” they have created and for seeking to offer the best medical care to the many people who seek out their assistance.

ADVENT REFLECTIONS

Thank you to Fr Joe O'Shea for your Advent reflections and your ongoing support to our parish. We extend our warmest wishes and Christmas blessings.

NEW ASSISTANT PRIEST

I would like to introduce to you our new Assistant Priest
Fr An Hoang Le

Fr An, 39, credits his own faith, and that of his family's to his grandmother, Nguyễn Thị Chiêu, his father's mother. Born in Cam Ranh, about 350 kilometres to the north-east of Ho Chi Min City (formerly known as Saigon) in Vietnam, he and his five siblings—four brothers and one sister—grew up with his grandmother due to family circumstances. Fr An says that his call to the priesthood was 'a journey', one that 'wasn't really clear.' There was an initial curiosity, but eventually, he discovered something deeper in his heart, which was the calling to be a religious. He initially joined the Scalabrinians in Vietnam and undertook philosophy studies at a Jesuit seminary in Ho Chi Min City. He then left and was invited by some Scalabrinian priests to visit Sydney and Melbourne in 2015 to see whether he might continue to become a priest. Recognising the 'goodness of God and the goodness of the people for him and his vocation and his family', Fr An decided to continue the journey towards priesthood. Fr An undertook studies in English at the Australian Catholic University in 2016 and in 2017, and officially entered Corpus Christi College, in Carlton.

Fr An begins on Tuesday 12 December and I feel we are blessed to have him here.

Fr Geoff

NEW PARISH SECRETARY

I am also pleased to announce and introduce to you our new Parish secretary

Cherrie Azzopardi

Cherrie begins on Tuesday 12 December and Yes, if the name sounds familiar it is because Cherrie is a local and her and her family are long serving members of our congregation. Cherrie recently graduated from college and was one of two applicants interviewed by myself and a supervisor from the Archdiocese Human Resources Dept.

Well done Cherrie, we are delighted to welcome you to our Parish team.

Fr Geoff

Jokes of the Week

1) "I did not send you!" A man who thought he was John the Baptist was disturbing the neighbourhood. So, for public safety, he was forcefully taken to the psychiatric ward of a hospital. He was put in a room with another crazy patient. He immediately began his routine, "I am John the Baptist! The Lord has sent me as the forerunner of Christ the Messiah!" The other guy looked at him and declared, "I am the Lord your God. I did not send you!"

2) "Maybe Jesus was a Jew, but God is a Baptist!" A little girl who normally attended another Sunday School happened to attend a Methodist Sunday School one weekend, while visiting her grandmother. In the course of the morning she heard a number of things she wasn't quite sure about, but when the teacher said that Jesus was a Jew she responded, "Maybe Jesus was a Jew, but God is a Baptist!" — Of course, God isn't a Baptist; and neither was John the Baptist, for that matter. That is why the Revised Standard Version calls him "John the Baptizer"...to avoid such confusion.

3) "Fake Jeep?" Christmas shopping, though fun, can be difficult. Did you hear about the guy that bought his wife a beautiful diamond ring for Christmas? A friend of his said, "I thought she wanted one of those sporty 4-Wheel drive vehicles." "She did," he replied. "But where was I going to find a fake Jeep?"

ROOF RESTORATION FUND RAISING

Currently you have donated $10,760 - Increase of $1620 from last week.

Thank you

Dear parishioners,

You may be wondering why after so long; the Church roof is still leaking and has not been fixed? It may appear like we are ignoring a serious problem and just putting out more and more buckets to catch the water? Well that is true in a way – we do have more buckets collecting water, but we have not been ignoring the problem.

Over the years, maintenance has been conducted on all church buildings in our Parish; such as plumbing, lighting, painting, minor repairs etc. at an already significant cost to the Parish but maintenance costs are expected. However; some large maintenance issues have been deferred because of costs and need to be planned for.

The roof at St Macartan's Church has been repaired several times. However, new leaks open and then the repaired ones eventually begin to leak again. Why? Because the current roof is past its 'best before' date and increases in large rain events >30mm, are becoming more & more regular and were not expected in the design of this roof. See our website video: <https://youtu.be/G4UgPcjSOk0>

The Parish has spent a lot of money in repairs and we have had three roof plumbers give us advice on more permanent solutions. All are extremely expensive, none of which fit within our normal maintenance budget. But we are going to deal with it, and hopefully have it fixed within the next three months. However, we need to raise funds - our bank balance will get us started with the roof restoration but we will need it replaced and topped up. We expect it to cost $100,000.

So this fundraising starting today, will continue until we raise all the money. The sooner we raise it, the sooner we stop asking! There are several ways to donate!

1. Via a specific 'roof fundraising' Tap & Pay machine in the main foyer
2. Via our website and give - under donations
3. Send a cheque to the church

I thank all of you for your patience and I know your generous support in this matter.

Blessings - Fr Geoff

St Macartan's Parish – Year in Review.

To PPC members,

December is a busy time for all of us, and as we have not been able to meet this month, I decided to do a summary of all that has been achieved this year.

February 2023 - Welcome Mass for new Preps and their families. This was a huge success with Duck Cameron, the magician mesmerizing the children – and adults.

Also in February, Maria Ford entertained us with a spiritual reflection on Lent. In April we celebrated Palm Sunday with the re-enactment of Jesus entering Jerusalem, on the back of a real live donkey. Children threw palms to welcome him. We had a coffee cart, sausage sizzle, petting zoo and lots of fun.

Excelsis Choir entertained us in June; and we participated in the combined parish church raffle. Unfortunately, no prizes came our way.

In July the parish bought a bus, so that parishioners who could not drive to church could be picked up and enjoy the Mass, followed by fellowship and a cuppa afterwards. This has been well received, not only by all those parishioners who ride the bus, but by their families as well.

In August we said Farewell to Fr Jude Johnson, our assistant priest, who is now across the bay in Geelong.

In November we had the Teddy Bear's Picnic event, and the children were entertained by CJ and his amazing puppets. A fun day was had by all.

The parish also engaged Ernest and Young to assist in engaging a company to lease land at St Macartans School for the purpose of building an Early Childhood Centre, which, when completed will ensure the future viability of St Macartans School. Australian Unity was the accepted provider, and we anticipate that the centre will be open in 2028.

Work is well underway to fix the church roof, with the skylights already replaced. We anticipate that the roofers will commence work in February, when the weather allows. Fundraising has now commenced to cover the cost of repaying the loan.

We have recently undertaken a Parish Census to get a better understanding of who the members of our parish community are. This will lead into a new Thanksgiving Campaign in 2024. Quinns Place has grown with about 80 youth attending recently.

Encounter Youth Group is also doing well, with Kate McInnis now employed as a youth leader.

As you can see, this has been a busy year for the parish, and with your help, 2024 will be even bigger.

Thank you for your support.

One thing I will ask of each of you, is to think of someone who you think would be good value for the council, and approach them to join. We really need new members, and so I am asking each member to perhaps, hopefully, bring someone new along to our next meeting in the new year.

Merry Christmas to all.
