First Reading

Wisdom 9:13-18

A reading from the book of Wisdom

Who can comprehend the will of God?

What man can know the intentions of God?

Who can divine the will of the Lord?

The reasonings of mortals are unsure

and our intentions unstable;

for a perishable body presses down the soul,

and this tent of clay weighs down the teeming mind.

It is hard enough for us to work out what is on earth,

laborious to know what lies within our reach;

who, then, can discover what is in the heavens?

As for your intention, who could have learnt it, had you not granted Wisdom and sent your holy spirit from above?

Thus have the paths of those on earth been straightened and men been taught what pleases you,
and saved, by Wisdom.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 89:3-6. 12-14. 17. R. v.1

(R.) In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

1. You turn men back into dust and say: 'Go back, sons of men.'

To your eyes a thousand years
are like yesterday, come and gone,
no more than a watch in the night. (R.)

2. You sweep men away like a dream, like grass which springs up in the morning.

In the morning it springs up and flowers:
by evening it withers and fades. (R.)

3. Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart.

Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever?
Show pity to your servants. (R.)

4. In the morning, fill us with your love;
we shall exult and rejoice all our days.

Let the favour of the Lord be upon us:
give success to the work of our hands. (R.)

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St Paul to Philemon

Receive him, not as a slave anymore, but as a very dear brother.

This is Paul writing, an old man now and, what is more, still a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for a child of mine, whose father I became while wearing these chains: I mean Onesimus. I am sending him back to you, and with him – I could say – a part of my own self. I should have liked to keep him with me; he could have been a substitute for you, to help me while I am in the chains that the Good News has brought me. However, I did not want to do anything without your consent; it would have been forcing your act of kindness, which should be spontaneous. I know you have been deprived of Onesimus for a time, but it was only so that you could have him back for ever, not as a slave any more, but something much better than a slave, a dear brother; especially dear to me, but how much more to you, as a blood-brother as well as a brother in the Lord. So if all that we have in common means anything to you, welcome him as you would me.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Let your face shine on your servant,
and teach me your laws.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 14:25-33

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Great crowds accompanied Jesus on his way and he turned and spoke to them. 'If any man comes to me without hating his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes and his own life too, he cannot be my disciple. Anyone who does not carry his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

'And indeed, which of you here, intending to build a tower, would not first sit down and work out the cost to see if he had enough to complete it? Otherwise, if he laid the foundation and then found himself unable to finish the work, the onlookers would all start making fun of him and saying, "Here is a man who started to build and was unable to finish." Or again, what king marching to war against another king would not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he could stand up to the other who advanced against him with twenty thousand? If not, then while the other king was still a long way off, he would send envoys to sue for peace. So in the same way, none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.'

Communion Antiphon

Cf Psalm 41:2-3

Like the deer that yearns for running streams,
so my soul is yearning for you, my God;
my soul is thirsting for God, the living God

Historical Context

Radical poverty

The earliest Christian communities were characterized by a redistribution of all wealth and possessions to ensure that the needs of every single member were met. This was the first interpretation of Jesus' teaching to give up possessions to embrace discipleship. Modern religious life, grounded in the monastic traditions of the Middle Ages, embraces a radical poverty in order to free religious from societal notions of status and power so that they might more freely and openly serve others. Lack of possessions and wealth brings a humility and openness that is almost impossible when playing the game of 'keeping up with the Joneses'.

Gospel reflection

I 'Hate' is an emotive and extremely harsh word in our society. In its gospel context, the word is not used as an opposite of 'love' but as an indication of deserving of less significance than another thing. So the teaching about hating father, mother, etc can be read as saying that being a disciple of Jesus must take precedence over everything else, even family. In 1st Century culture, family was foremost above everything else; it was the very fibre that held society together. Jesus is saying that discipleship must be put above even that which is most important and most intrinsic to life in this world. That is why he goes on to tell the two stories about the need to count the cost before undertaking an important venture. He makes clear to his listeners that discipleship is more important than anything else and that there are huge costs associated with taking it on. A believer has to literally 'count the cost' of what it will mean to place discipleship above family, friendships, career, politics and even life itself. Jesus makes no apologies for the fact that what he is asking is incredibly demanding. Our 'possessions' are all those things – material, emotional, and psychological – that we cling to and that we think give us our identity and status. Jesus called for a radical reinterpretation of status and position. He tells his listeners that they cannot truly be disciples if they continue to cling to those things that are considered important in this world. They have to surrender the things that bind them to this world's ideas of status and position before they can fully embrace the kingdom view of the world. As Jesus said, you have to really count the cost!

Scriptural context – Honour and Shame

The first example of counting the cost that Jesus relates is about a man building a house without the means to complete it suffering the fate of his neighbours making fun of him. Whilst the thought of neighbours laughing at our mistake may not be too serious to us, it was a devastating thought in the 1st Century. A social code of honour and shame dominated the world view at the time. To be shamed by your actions or by the actions of others was humiliating and lowered social status. Jesus frequently used the honour-shame code to make his point and challenge social expectations.

Living the Gospel – Give up my possessions?

We live in an era of extraordinary wealth in some countries contrasted against extraordinary poverty and need in other countries. Accumulation of possessions has become a driving force in our society. However, Jesus' message about being a disciple calls to us. How can some people in the world surround themselves with luxuries while others don't have enough to eat? Does the love of 'possessions' blind us to the needs of others?

Pope Leo to meet with Israeli President Herzog and Polish President Nawrocki

The Holy See Press Office announces that Pope Leo XIV will receive Israeli President Isaac Herzog and Polish President Karol Nawrocki in audience later this week. Vatican News

Pope Leo XIV is set to meet Thursday morning with Israeli President Isaac Herzog, who has served in the role since 2021. After the meeting with Holy Father, President Herzog will be received by Cardinal Secretary of State Pietro Parolin, according to the Holy See Press Office. The audience with the Pope will be the second encounter between the two leaders, after a meeting on the occasion of the Mass for the Inauguration of Pope Leo's Petrine Ministry on 18 May. On Friday, Pope Leo will receive Polish President Karol Nawrocki, who assumed office on 6 August 2025. It will be their first meeting

Pope Leo XIV: May Ukraine keep the flame of hope alive each day

Even within the seemingly formal constrictions of a message penned in Latin, Pope Leo XIV expresses his heartfelt solidarity with war-ravaged Ukraine.

In a letter to Cardinal Crescenzo Sepe, whom he appointed as his special envoy to celebrations that will take place in Lviv on 6 September for the 650th anniversary of the establishment of the Metropolitan See of Halić, the Pope expressed his wish that the Archbishop Emeritus of Naples would convey his love and "closeness" to all the Christian faithful and to "all people of good will" who will take part in the event.

The historical Metropolitan See of Halić, which ultimately became the Archdiocese of Lviv of the Latins, is part of the Latin Rite of the Catholic Church.

Charity within the family and society

"In this extremely difficult moment that Ukraine is experiencing," Pope Leo urged the faithful to guard "the commandment of charity with even greater care, both within the family and in public life," and to "nurture a living Christian hope in daily life," while asking God "fervently for the gift of peace."

According to the Holy See Press Office, the ceremony will be held in the Cathedral of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Lviv.

Cardinal Sepe will be accompanied by a delegation that includes Fr Andriy Lehovych, personal secretary to the Archbishop of Lviv of the Latins, and Fr. Roman Broda, professor at the Metropolitan Seminary and head of the Liturgical Office of the same Ukrainian Archdiocese.

CHANGE - CAN BE GOOD

ENCOUNTER YOUTH GROUP

Hello, all.

As the season of Winter ends it changes to Spring, change is often inevitable and so it is within our Parish community.

We start things, to try them out, and if the time and place isn't working we try other things, and many times after several changes we eventually find the right time and place, that works best.

Over the last five years or so, we have had a 3pm Encounter Youth group meet before 5pm Youth Mass, every 2nd and 4th Sunday of the Month. But for a variety of reasons numbers have dwindled considerably. So the Encounter Youth Group, is changing times!

The youth group currently runs on the 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month from 3pm- 5pm followed by the 5pm youth mass but this is changing.

Starting September 14th, Encounter will run after the 11am Mass on the 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month. Our youth group will run from midday to 1.30pm, with a light lunch being provided for the children.

We hope this change will encourage more youth to come.

We can't wait to see you on September 14th at 12pm in the Parish Hall and beforehand at 11am Mass.

ADORATION / EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Adoration is quality time spent with the Lord in front of the blessed sacrament .

We added an extra adoration time period on Saturday's, for this year of Jubilee, as well as our usual Friday time period.

We are now moving the Friday Adoration to Wednesday, to align with reconciliation. So the Adoration times are Wednesday's 9:45 - 10:30 and Saturday's 9:45 - 10:30 approx.

Blessings

Fr Geoff

We remember fathers, grandfathers and great grandfathers who are no longer with us,
but who continue to live in our memory,
having nourished us with their love.

Parish Footy Tipping Competition

Congratulations to our season's champion tipper Teresa Lincoln who wins $ 600 first prize. One winner behind was Terry Roberts who wins $ 150 and one more behind in equal third place winning $ 80 each were Tessa Houlihan, James Barrett and Nathan Barden. As in previous years our Finals' competition has started this week with more great prizes to be won. Can anyone out tip Teresa who not only is our champion this year but also won in 2023? Perhaps her love of the Lions helps?

Now the Finals have started. Do you know in what year the AFL introduced the "Final Eight" series format? How about in what year did the AFL introduce the "Golden Goal" rule to decide drawn Finals' matches, although it has never been used? Do you also know which player has played the most Finals?

Thank you. James and Spencer

Jokes of the Week

1) Prime minister in search of a true Christian disciple: The Prime Minister was debating whom to hire as Indian Commissioner. He called his advisor and a Senator for assistance in selecting the right man. "Gentlemen," said Prime minister, "I want an honest, decent, caring, moral Christian man, a man frugal and self-sacrificing!" "Mr. Prime minister, I feel certain you won't find him," said his advisor. "And why not?" he asked. "Because he was Jesus of Nazareth who was crucified two thousand years ago," said the Senator.

2) Christian burial for a non-disciple? One morning Rev. Desmond went to the front door of his rectory to get his newspaper and found a dead mule on the street. He quickly called the city health department and asked to have the mule disposed of. The smart-mouthed secretary on duty said, "Hey, Reverend Pastor, I always heard that you pastors buried your own dead even if they are not practicing Christian disciples". "Yes, we do," the pastor, replied. "But not in all cases. In this case, I would like to meet the deceased's close relatives in the Health Department in person to offer my condolences and to give a special blessing!"
