First Reading

Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

A reading from the prophet Habakkuk

The just will live by faithfulness.

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help
while you will not listen;
to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear
and you will not save?

Why do you set injustice before me,
why do you look on where there is tyranny?
Outrage and violence, this is all I see,
all is contention, and discord flourishes.

Then the Lord answered and said,

'Write the vision down,
inscribe it on tablets
to be easily read,

since this vision is for its own time only:
eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive;
if it comes slowly, wait,
for come it will, without fail.

See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights,
but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 94:1-2. 6-9. R. v.8

(R.) If today you hear his voice,
harden not your hearts.

1. Come, ring out our joy to the Lord;
hail the rock who saves us.

Let us come before him, giving thanks,
with songs let us hail the Lord. (R.)

2. Come in; let us bow and bend low;
let us kneel before the God who made us
for he is our God and we
the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand. (R.)

3. O that today you would listen to his voice!
'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your fathers put me to the test;

Second Reading

2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

Never be ashamed of witnessing the Lord.

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God.

Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

Gospel Acclamation

1 Peter 1:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

The word of the Lord stands for ever;
it is the word given to you, the Good News.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 17:5-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

If you had faith!

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.

'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."

Communion Antiphon

Lam 3:25

The Lord is good to those who hope in him,
to the soul that seeks him.

Faith

The disciples ask Jesus to increase their faith, but their question – and the reply given by Jesus – does not make clear the faith that they want increased. Is it their faith in God; their faith in themselves; or their faith in the people they are called to serve? The response by Jesus suggests that, in fact, it is faith in all these things. Faith in God and faith in self are intrinsically linked and Jesus makes plain to the disciples that this faith must find its expression in selfless service to others.

Gospel reflection

How much faith does one have to have? How much faith is enough? How is it possible to measure one person's faith against another? When the disciples asked Jesus to increase their faith, what exactly were they asking of him? These fishermen and nobodies chosen as disciples by Jesus must surely have had moments of realisation that they were not the sorts of young men normally chosen by Rabbis to be disciples. They must have looked around at the disciples of other teachers and seen that, by comparison, they weren't really in the same league. So they ask Jesus to increase their faith. What they're saying is: make us more like the sorts of people we think we should be. Jesus counters their request by telling them that if they had faith the size of a tiny mustard seed they could accomplish great things. It's not a matter of how much faith one has but what they do with it. How much faith does it take to do great things? Jesus says that it only takes the tiniest scrap of faith. Jesus follows up this statement by pointing out to the disciples that no matter how small the amount of faith, it carries with it a responsibility and duty to act upon it. One shouldn't be looking for acclaim and special treatment when one acts out of faith as that is simply what is expected. The gift of faith carries with it a duty to live that faith and act upon it.

Historical Context – Servants and Slaves

When speaking about doing what is expected, Jesus uses the image of a servant or slave. Whilst this image may be a difficult one for us, Jesus is simply using an image that would have held meaning to his audience. The sense of doing what is expected without anticipating acclaim was best captured in the time by talking about a servant or slave. This does not suggest that Jesus condoned the practice of slavery or servitude – they were just cultural norms at the time. When Jesus spoke about these matters it was only to ensure that slave and servants were treated fairly.

Scriptural context – A lesson for the disciples

For the last few months, in the Sunday gospel readings, we have been working our way through the second half of the gospel of Luke. From the end of chapter 9 onwards, the gospel charts the journey of Jesus towards Jerusalem. Throughout this journey, Jesus teaches his disciples and attempts to prepare them for his departure and their need to step up and take on his ministry. Today's passage is an example of this instruction to the disciples. Jesus makes clear that they are being called to give their lives to faith in service of others without expecting any return – just as Jesus does!

Pope Leo urges Catholics to pray daily Rosary for Peace in October

Pope Leo XIV invites the faithful to join in praying the Rosary every day during October to invoke God's gift of peace, and announces a Rosary in St. Peter's Square on October 11 as part of the Jubilee of Marian Spirituality.

By Devin Watkins

Catholics across the globe will unite to pray the Rosary for peace in war-torn lands, especially during the month of October, which the Church dedicates to the Holy Rosary.

Pope Leo XIV made the announcement at the Wednesday General Audience. He said the faithful in Rome will gather in St. Peter's Square on October, 11, 2025 at 6:00 PM.

"I invite everyone, each day of the coming month, to pray the Rosary for peace—personally, in the family, and in community," he said.

The Pope also invited Vatican employees to pray the Rosary daily in St. Peter's Basilica at 7:00 PM throughout October.

In his greetings to Portuguese pilgrims, Pope Leo lamented the "ruins wrought by murderous hatred." He invited Christians to share with others "the love of Jesus that illumines and lifts up humanity."

The Rosary for Peace will be held during the Jubilee of Marian Spirituality, which takes place on October 11-12.

That day also marks the 63rd anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council, which Pope St. John XXIII opened on October 11, 1962.

The original image of Our Lady of Fatima will be in St. Peter's Square for the Rosary prayer and the Jubilee of Marian Spirituality.

Are you or a friend thinking of becoming a Catholic?

Where do you begin?

Adults entering the Catholic Church or just thinking about it, follow a process called RCIA the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the normal way in which adults become full active, participating members of the Catholic Church.

The goal of the process is full communion which means "full active participation" in the Eucharist and in the whole life of the Catholic faith community.

RCIA helps adults to grow in their relationship with God, become familiar with Catholic teachings and practices, get acquainted with people in the community and get involved in service within the community.

Many persons who want to join the Catholic Church have already been baptised in another Christian Church. They must attend the sessions but do not need to be baptised again.

INFORMATION NIGHT: Wednesday 22nd October 7pm (Hall 10 Drake St)

RCIA – Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults
Is a guided faith journey towards becoming a Catholic

WHO IS RCIA FOR?

- Adults who are not baptised.
- Adults who are already baptised in another Christian Church.
- Non-practising Catholics who wish to renew their faith.

Where do you begin?

At the Parish of St Macartan's Mornington, new sessions begin with an information night.

There is no obligation – come and find out more:

Wednesday 22nd October

7:00pm in the Church Hall, 10 Drake Street (under the Palm tree)

or ring the Parish office on 5975 2200 or Email: mornington@cam.org.au

PUBLIC ROSARY

2025

SATURDAY 11TH OCTOBER

10AM (AFTER 9.15 AM MASS)

Once again, St Macartan's Parish is joining over 400 Parishes around Australia in praying the Rosary. This is our fourth year in uniting with the rest of Australia in the prayer Our Blessed Mother has asked for.

Chairs will be set up in the rose Memorial garden under Our Lady's Statue.

Should the weather be a problem, we shall pray in the Church.

Please invite a friend and join us in prayer.

The sharing of a plate over morning tea will bring the special time to a conclusion.

Parish Footy Tipping Competition

Well done Jackson Gibb. Our youngest tipper, Jackson, is Spencer's grandson. Jackson was one of only a few who correctly tipped Brisbane to win the Grand Final and had the closest margin. He wins $ 100. Champion season's tipster for 2025 Teresa Lincoln won our first prize of $ 600 in front of Terry Roberts followed by Tessa Houlihan, James Barrett and Nathan Barden.

The 2025 AFL season has now finished. Thank you very much to our band of 40 tippers who made the year a lot of fun and very enjoyable. Thank you also to Father Geoff and Tim for your support.

Thank you. James and Spencer

For some years, the “Lifeboat Foundation” has been assisting victims of church-related sexual abuse with basic living costs, counselling, vehicle expenses – and just simply listening, believing and caring. The Foundation has been greatly assisted by donations of unwanted cars e.g. from deceased states, or people relinquishing licence etc., either to give to victims who need them, or selling them to raise funds.

You could help this important work (a) by identifying people who might donate an unwanted motor vehicle, and (b) identifying someone to assist in the administration of Lifeboat’s “Car Donation Project” e.g. speaking to potential donors of vehicles – it’s not complicated nor over-demanding of time.

If you can assist or would like more information about the “Lifeboat Foundation” and/or the “Car Donation Project”, contact Fr. Kevin Dillon – frkdillon@outlook.com.au or 0421 777 360.

ST MACARTAN’S GIFT SHOP

Hello to all our Friends at St Mac’s and any visitors that may be joining us this weekend

It has been a while since the Gift Shop had a notice in the bulletin, so I thought I would update you on what has been going on.

We have been so blessed to have had so many Pilgrims visit our Church. They all have their own agenda - some arrive with their own Priest, they may have lunch in the hall, some have Mass, maybe Adoration, Reconciliation or Prayers and singing. During their time at St Macs they are in and out of the Gift Shop taking every opportunity to visit and make a purchase or two or three. The most popular items are definitely the Sterling Silver Medals, Jerusalem Crosses and the wooden plaques. They are such beautiful people, very sincere and very friendly. Our stock has changed considerably. We have a great variety of gifts for Baptisms, Holy Communion and Confirmation, the best yet. We also have a great range of sterling silver medals but these sell so quickly we just can’t get enough stock. There are goods on display outside the Gift Shop so come into the Church through the foyer and have a browse. To cover the Pilgrim Groups booked in before the end of the Jubilee Year, The Year of Hope, our Christmas Fair and Christmas itself, we have more stock arriving in 2-3 weeks including all the Christmas stock. We are so excited for what’s ahead before the end of the year.

If you haven’t visited the Gift Shop in the last few months, please call in and have a look around, there is plenty to see and gifts for all occasions.

Take care and God bless you all for your continued support.

The Gift Shops Guys

Jokes of the Week

1) Faith of a little boy: A little boy wanted $100.00 very much, and his mother told him to pray to God with Faith. He prayed and prayed for two weeks, but nothing turned up. Then he decided perhaps he should write God a letter requesting the $100.00. When the postal authorities received the letter addressed to God, they opened it up and decided to send it to the Prime minister. The Prime minister was so impressed and touched that he instructed his secretary to send the little boy a check for $5.00. He thought that this would appear to be a lot of money to a little boy. The little boy was delighted with the $5.00 and sat down to write a thank-you letter to God, which ran as follows: "Dear God: Thank you very much for the money. I noticed that you had to send it through Canberra. Dad said that, as usual, they deducted $95.00 for themselves in the name of 'security tax' to save our country from terrorists."

2) Faith of a little girl: "Whales can't swallow people," the teacher said. "Even though they are large mammals, their throats are very small." "But the Bible teaches us that Jonah was swallowed by a whale," the little girl replied. "My mom says Bible is God's words, and it must be correct." "That just can't be," the teacher said. "It's physically impossible." "If so, when I get to Heaven, I will ask Jonah," said the little girl. The teacher looked down at her, smiled and asked, "What if Jonah went to Hell?" The little girl replied, "Then you can ask him yourself when you get there."
