PARISH OF ST JOSEPH CHELSEA

14TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

7 JULY 2024

Having a child with a life limiting condition means being constantly on edge, waiting for a phone call from school saying something has happened or seeing my darling Niamh have a seizure that impacts her wellbeing.

Sadly, a child in Niamh's class at Glenallen school passed away at his home on Friday the 21st of June. Anastos shared a birthday with Niamh and had some serious medical conditions along with his disability, but his passing was quite sudden – he had been at school on the Thursday. I cannot even begin to understand the grief that his family must be feeling.

Conversely, I do need a break sometimes – otherwise I will fall into a heap. I'm very lucky to have family who care for Niamh deeply – allowing me to attend Melbourne Storm matches where I can vent my frustrations at the world by screaming and yelling my team to victory (Up The STORM!!). I also have a wonderful carer who spends 4 hours on Tuesday and Thursday afternoon/evenings with Niamh, allowing me to do some shopping, have a massage or catch up on some reading. But I'm never far from home should something happen – and there it is, the never-ending fear of something happening.

Niamh helping with some shovelling.

Lord of all, we lift up parents and carers of children with disabilities. Refresh them and give them strength to persevere each and every day.

Lord, thank you for creating every child. May they experience Your deep love every day.

Part 3 next week.....

Please do not attend Mass if you are unwell.
There are no numbers restrictions on attendees at church.
Face masks are no longer mandatory inside the church.
Please use the hand sanitiser provided.

OUR SATURDAY VIGIL MASS CHOIR

The Vigil Mass Choir is looking for a male voice to enhance the richness of our Liturgical singing. Consequently we need another male voice which will make an immense difference. Currently we have practice on Wednesdays at 2pm and a run through at approximately 5pm on a Saturday evening prior to Mass. It is not all work as it is quite 'social' in nature and there is much laughter and enjoyment. If you think you can give it a go but that somethings could be problematic please ring Elaine Shelton 0409026839 who will clarify and explain. Many thanks in anticipation.

The Men's Focus Group meet every fortnight - next meeting will be Monday 8th July at 7:30pm - in the parish centre. All men are welcome to join us as we read the gospel for the day and share our reflections on this, and how we can bring a positive change in our own lives.
