Commentary by Gerard Moore Pastoral Review

The feast of the Trinity was first celebrated early in the second millennium, and so the Mass prayers have a slightly different feel to those found in the earliest sources.

Our current prayer for Trinity Sunday is even more contemporary, as it was first created for the reform of the Missal after Vatican II. Its most unusual feature is to name God as 'Father'. The ancient prayers are most reserved about this form of appellation. Here, it identifies the divine Trinity as Father, Word and Spirit, whereas normally the language of Father would be set with that of Son as a more complete filial metaphor. In this, the prayer signals the difficulty of speaking about the triune God! The sense of the prayer highlights God's self-revelation as triune through the incarnation of the Word and the gift of the Spirit. The response sought from God is that we profess the mystery and adore. This is a most wonderful reminder of the nature of God as revealed and sits well at the conclusion of the celebrations of the Paschal mystery and the power of the Spirit in our midst. Spirit in our midst.

Spiritual Nourishment for Carers', Thursdays 16 June & 21 July 2022, 1pm-4pm, attend via Zoom or in-person, according to personal circumstances. Carers live with profound beauty amidst the challenges of daily life. We offer these reflection/retreat days for carers who may need support, a place of welcome and some nurturing. The session will offer an opportunity for carers to take some time out for themselves, if they are able, and join us for one or both of these reflection days. Each day is offered as an oasis, with space and time to be silent, reflect, with the opportunity to share if you wish. We invite you to re-energise your mind and replenish your spirit. Led by Heart of Life spiritual directors, Carole Carmody rsm and Cathy Beaton. Cost $30 per session. Enquiries to Heart of Life Centre for Spiritual & Pastoral Formation, Rear 41 Stanhope Street, Malvern VIC, email secretary@heartoflife.melbourne, or tel (03) 9890 1101 or book and pay via www.heartoflife.melbourne

JUNE PRAYER FOR FAMILIES

Pope Francis has announced that his prayer intention for the month of June is families, saying people should see God in their families. The family is the place where we learn to live with one another, to live with young people and with those who are older. And by being united —young people, the elderly, adults, children— by being united in our differences, we evangelise with our example of life.

Of course, there is no such thing as a perfect family. There are always “buts.”

But that doesn't matter. We shouldn't be afraid of mistakes; we have to learn from them so we can move forward.

Let's not forget that God is with us: in our family, in our neighbourhood, in the city where we live, He is with us.

And He takes care of us. He remains with us at all times in the swaying of the boat tossed by the sea: when we argue, when we suffer, when we're joyful, the Lord is there and accompanies us, helps us, and corrects us.

Family love is a personal path of holiness for each one of us.

This is why I chose it as the theme for this month's World Meeting of Families.

Let us pray for Christian families around the world; may each and every family embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives.

The World Meeting of Families will be held from June 22 to 26. To watch the pope's video about his June prayer for families go to: For Families – The Pope video 06 – June 2022 – YouTube

FIRST READING: Proverbs 8:22-31

A reading from the book of Proverbs

The Wisdom of God cries out:

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded,
before the oldest of his works.

From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning,
before earth came into being.

The deep was not, when I was born,
there were no springs to gush with water.

Before the mountains were settled, before the hills,
I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust.

When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there,
when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep,
when he thickened the clouds above,
when he fixed fast the springs of the deep,
when he assigned the sea its boundaries-
and the waters will not invade the shore-
when he laid down the foundations of the earth,
I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him
day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

The Word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps. 8

R: O Lord, our God,

How great your name in all the earth!

1. When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him in mind,
mortal man that you care for him?

2. Yet you have made him little less than a god;
with glory and honour you crowned him,
gave him power over the works of your hand,
put all things under his feet.

3. All of them, sheep and cattle,
yes, even the savage beasts,
birds of the air, and fish
that make their way through the waters.
and renew the face of the earth.

R: O Lord, our God,

How great your name in all the earth!

SECOND READING: Romans 5:1-5

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory.

But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation Rev: 1:8

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Glory to the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit:
To God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

THE GOSPEL John 16, 12-15

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you
but they would be too much for you now.

But when the Spirit of truth comes
he will lead you to the complete truth,
since he will not be speaking as from himself
but will say only what he has learnt;
and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me,
since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.

Everything the Father has is mine;

that is why I said:

All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

The Gospel of the Lord

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
